RUSSELL'S PLAN FAILS.

Secretary of War Designates Raleigh For Mobilization. Expect a Regiment Ready by Friday.

Special to Journal. RALEIGH, April 26.—Secretary of War Alger has designated Raleigh as the point where the North Carolina troops will be mobilized. They will be drilled here and mustered into the service of the United States government.

Governor Russell had telegraphed to Washington that the State would furnish 2 regiments of infantry and one battery of heavy artillery, and that he would have the forces mobilized on the coast near Wilmington. This plan of the Governor's was anticipated by Secretary Alger. The decision to mobilize at Raleigh was confirmed this afternoon by a telegram from Senator Pritchard.

Secretary Alger states that the call for State troops is for able bodied men between the ages of 18 and 45 only.

Major Hayes is transferred from the Adjutant General's department to the Governor's office as military adviser. He thought that the troops would be mobilized at Wilmington on the Governor's recommendation, but was mistaken. Adjutant General Cowles says that he expected to have one regiment of volunteers ready by next Friday.

Six companies have thus far volunteered in the State and also a signal corps. Three companies have declined. All the companies in the State will be telegraphed to this afternoon to answer yes or no as to volunteering.

Charlotte offers its park as a camp ground for the use of the volunteer companies.

Deeds of Daring.

OFF HAVANA, April 25.—There is still no bombardment of Havana. The "a-cific" blockade continues, but deeds of heroism are being performed by the men of the American navy.

Here is one of these deeds. The torpedo boat Porter is as fleet as an express train, has a dare-devil crew and an intrepid commander. Lieut. J. C. Fremont is the commander's name. He is a son of the famous "pathfinders" and is a chip off the old block.

Under the darkness of last night Lieutenant Fremont made a landing on the north coast of Cuba with a small force in search of information. He did not meet any Spanish troops, but was ready to fight them if he had met them. The lieutenant got the information he wanted and reported at length to Admiral Sampson on board the flagship New York this morning.

This much of the Porter's expedition was permitted by Admiral Sampson to make public. The Admiral regarded the exploit as a daring one.

ANOTHER DAY OF WAR

Seizures of Spanish Vessels But No Fighting Yet.

WHERE'S SPAIN'S FLEET?

Conflicting Reports of Its Intended Movements.

The Holland Boat Purchased. The Panama Prize a Big One. Volunteers Enlisting Rapidly. Spanish Vessels Given Time to Leave. Revenue Bill Voted on Friday.

Yesterday's war record is mainly a repetition of the last three days, the capture of Spanish vessels and the uncertainty of the sailing of the Spanish fleet.

The cruisers Minneapolis and Columbia which left the Flying Squadron are reported off the New England coast, either to meet the Paris or to protect those waters.

The dynamite cruiser with a hundred shells on board is on its way to Key West. It is the most dangerous craft afloat.

The dating back in the declaration of war to April 21st as the beginning of hostilities is considered as legalizing the capture of the Ventura and other early prizes.

London opinion is that the war will be lengthy. Wheat sold in Chicago yesterday at 1.25 per bushel. Beef in Havana is quoted at two dollars a pound.

The attack on Manila is expected to begin by Thursday.

England repeated her notice of neutrality, orders vessels away within 24 hours. The Spanish torpedo boat Andaz got away from Queenstown, but the American boat Somers will likely be kept at Falmouth during the war.

Special to Journal.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The reports concerning the Spanish fleet at the Cape Verde Islands are conflicting but it seems likely that the fleet is still there. A cablegram from Cape Vincent says that the fleet is coaling up. This was sent at 4 p. m. today. It is stated that some of the engineers are Scotchmen and have refused to sail under orders received from England.

A report received from Jamaica by way of London asserts that the fleet is making its way towards Cuba. The Spanish admiral becoming impatient of delay threatens to sail without waiting for orders.

Captures Yesterday.

The American fleet is reported to have captured a transport, said to be the Montserrat with nine hundred troops and half a million in gold on board. The report that Captain Sampson's fleet was chasing the troop steamer was first reported and then its capture was announced. The Navy Department at Washington has information leading to the belief that it was the Montserrat that was captured.

At least three prizes were captured today by the fleet. The largest was the Spanish liner "Panama." The vessel and cargo are valued at a million dollars.

The gun boat Newport captured the Spanish schooner "Inired" and one other capture is reported. A cablegram from Kingston, Jamaica, says that one of the American cruisers chased the Spanish steamship Telefora bound from Galveston to Manchester, England, but that the steamship reached Port Royal, Jamaica.

The Holland Boat.

Secretary Long announces the purchase by the Navy Department of the Holland submarine boat which has been severely tested for practical service.

Investor Holland has the utmost faith in his boat and says that he can approach close enough to Morro Castle to blow it up.

General Gomez has issued a proclamation asking the United States government to send arms to the insurgent forces in Cuba.

A Spanish gunboat is reported from Plymouth as lying off the Lizard, which is the extreme southwestern coast of England.

Dillon reports say that the American fleet are heading towards the Philippines and will chase the Spanish fleet at that point. The first naval battle is expected, to take place at the Philippines.

There is no doubt that by tonight the quota called for from New York state, which is 10,011 men, will be filled. The existing is going on very rapidly. Nearly the entire National Guard is going in.

Special to Journal.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The expected change in the Cabinet has taken place and Day is Secretary of State to succeed John Sherman and John B. Moore of New York is the Assistant Secretary.

The vacancy caused by the resignation of Theodore Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy to accept the position of colonel of the "cow boy" regiment, is filled by the appointment of Sicard as a member of the board of war. Sicard lately was retired as Admiral from the Key West squadron.

The President issues a proclamation giving all Spanish vessels already in United States ports until May 31st to leave.

The Governors of all forty four States have responded to the President's call for 125,000 volunteers.

The government has sent a note to all nations asking them to issue proclamations of neutrality between the United States and Spain. Germany declines to issue the notice of neutrality so as to be in a position to intervene.

The Spanish Cortes today passed a vote of confidence in the government.

The Senate confirmed the nomination of Day as Secretary of State.

Congress has finally agreed to vote on the war revenue bill. Much debate has been had on this bill and the time set for reaching a vote is next Friday.

The President today signed the Hull bill.

Spain's Intentions.

St. VINCENT, Cape Verde Islands, April 25.—The Spanish battleship Pelayo and two swift cruisers, which were expected today and for which the formidable fleet now in this harbor has been waiting, have not arrived.

As has been cabled from time to time, the four first-class cruisers, three torpedo boats and three torpedo-boat destroyers here have reconnoitered each morning and kept fires banked, waiting for the Pelayo and the other ships.

All is changed this evening. There is a report, which was assured by one authority to be not without foundation, that the Pelayo and two crack cruisers of the Spanish navy accompanied by three torpedo boats and four torpedo-boat destroyers, have started across the Atlantic.

It is understood that the squadron now in port will sail tomorrow morning to join the Pelayo and her fleet. This could not be fully confirmed. But from indications it is evident that the fleet will not remain longer in the harbor. The four cruisers were today filled with coal. Not only were the bunkers filled, but every available place in the ships was utilized.

This is shown by the fact that about seven thousand tons were placed aboard the four cruisers.

Torpedo Boat Rodgers.

NORFOLK, Va., April 25.—The torpedo boat Rodgers returned to the navy yard this morning. Leaving here about the middle of last week, the Rodgers got as far on her course as Hatteras, when she ran on a shoal and strained her bottom plates. It was not thought serious, but after being at sea for forty-eight hours it was found that one of the bottom plates had sprung and the boat was leaking, so it was necessary to run back.

The cruiser Montgomery is ready to go to sea and probably will start tomorrow if she gets coaled. She will take with her the transport Panther, which is also armed.
