A DAY IN THE CITY.

The weather forecast for today, fair weather.

The fish market was almost deserted again, yesterday, there being practically no arrivals of fish.

The death of Mrs. Joshua Dennis is reported, as taking place last Wednesday at her home at Newport.

Rev. Hight C. Moore, who was recently called to the pastorate of Middle Street Baptist Church, will arrive this afternoon, and will preach tomorrow, morning and evening. Everybody invited to attend.

The steamer Carolina brought down a "stiff" and some "blockade whiskey," which officers had captured at Vanceboro, government officials took charge of the property here.

Our Naval Reserves

The Naval Reserves were again out in full force last night. The new canvas boat was successfully launched, and it was a pleasure to observe the alacrity with which the various orders were executed.

A crew took possession of the boat after it was launched and rowed around for some time, while the balance of the Division returned to the Armory and went through an infantry drill. Our Reserves are "hot stuff."

The Last Sad Rites

The funeral services of Mrs. Sarah L. S. Manly, were held at Christ Church last evening at six o'clock, and were conducted by the Rev. T. M. N. George. There was a quantity of flowers sent by loving friends, who were in attendance at the Church to assist in the last sad rites.

The remains after the services were borne to Cedar Grove cemetery, followed by relatives and friends.

King's Daughter Convention.

The fifth annual convention of The King's Daughters, will be held in Wilmington, N. C. commencing Thursday night, May 26th, and continuing Friday and Saturday, May 27th and 28th.

The City Union of Wilmington are making preparations for the convention, and hope to have a large attendance from all over the State.

For particulars, address Mrs. S. H. Burt, 307 Walnut street, Wilmington, N. C.

The railroads have granted reduced rates for the occasion.

Leaves for Philadelphia.

Mrs. Theresa Roberts left on the steamer Neuse, last night, on her way to Philadelphia, which is to be her future home. Misses Theresa and Kate Roberts, her daughters, will follow her to Philadelphia in a few weeks.

Mrs. Roberts will make her home in Philadelphia in order to be near her son, Charlie, whose headquarters are in that city.

Mrs. Robert's many friends are sorry to have her leave New Bern where she has resided so many years, and all wish her the best of everything in her new home.

Sol's Well Dead.

The news of the death of Mr. Sol C. Well, which occurred on Thursday at his home in New York City, was a surprise and shock to Mr. Well's friends in this city.

Sol Well had friends everywhere he was known, and in this city he had many, who sincerely mourn his death.

Delayed by Storm.

The steamer Neuse, which left here late on Wednesday night, delayed in her landing by the high tide on that day, had to run behind schedule time, returning from Elizabeth City, reaching here yesterday a little after 3 p. m.

There was a large amount of truck awaiting shipment last night, cabbages, peas and asparagus, and this took some time to load, the Neuse not being able to leave here until 8:15 p. m.

THE STATE CAPITAL.

Everything in War Talk and Movement. Too Harshly Criticized Election Treasurer N. C. Railroad. No Special School Election.

JOURNAL BUREAU.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 29.

The movement of the State troops to go into camp here will not begin until Monday, May 2nd. The camp has been selected and named in honor of General Bryan Grimes. Fifty men began this morning to prepare the ground for drill purposes, and to pitch tents and make other preparations for the encampment.

The North Carolina State Guard is volunteering slowly for the war with Spain—only 13 of the 23 companies of the State Guard have volunteered for service. This gives North Carolina only 1 regiment. North Carolina is requisitioned for 2 regiments of infantry and one battalion of heavy artillery. The number of men required for each company is 85. Regular U. S. officers will muster in the men.

There has been harsh criticism of those men who have "dropped out" of the State Guard here, but almost every one, to a man, has come out in a card giving his reasons. "Honor thy Father and thy Mother" is a Divine command and in many cases "honoring" means to support, and with $14 per month with probably a sacrifice of life is but a poor fulfillment of a heavenly command.

If nothing prevents Raleigh will be all astir on Monday when the State troops begin to go into camp here, according to orders. The "Governor's Guards" has its full quota of men, and a second company here is about formed by Capt. Fred Woolcott.

The Democratic Convention for the 4th District is called to meet here on May 23rd for the purpose of nominating a solicitor and the transaction of other business.

News of the death of Mrs. Matthias Manly, of New Bern, mother of Hon. Clement Manly, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, was received here yesterday with sorrow.

The programme for the N. C. State University commencement has been issued. The Baccalaureate sermon will be preached May 29th by Rev. Wilber F. Tillett, D. D. of Vanderbilt University. The closing exercises will be June 1st.

The school committee for Raleigh withdraws its request to the county commissioners for a special election for the $50,000 public school bonds. This being a campaign year, in addition to the war excitement, it is deemed best to wait awhile until many things are more settled.

The directors of the North Carolina Railroad met here today to elect a treasurer for the road to succeed the late Mr. E. S. Walton. The salary is $2,000 with a $600 clerkship. There are many applicants for the position, chief among them being Adjutant General Cowles, State Senator, Sharpe of Ireland.

Col. J. F. Armfield of Statesville has been appointed Colonel of the First North Carolina Regiment of volunteers.

Tonight the convention of the Southern Christian Church met here. There are many delegates from all over the South present.

Frost was predicted for this morning but there was none.

The first companies to go into camp here will be the Governor's Guard, then the Greenville, Charlotte and Shelby companies. These are from the first regiment. The second regiment will not go into camp, until 500 more tents for which, requisition has been made by the Quartermaster General, are sent here.

A large military company has been formed at Durham. This takes the place of the company that was there, but which has volunteered for war. Here in Raleigh, and elsewhere the same thing will be done. They will only be an organization until the return of the volunteers, for the number of companies in the State Guard are limited.

PERSONAL.

Hon. Chas. B. Aycock returned to Goldsboro yesterday.

Mr. Jim Simons is spending a few days in the city.

Mrs. Amy Dall returned home last night from Raleigh, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Roscoe Nunn.

Messrs. J. T. Davenport, Joseph Spruill and Cliff Karoon, of Stonewall, were in the city, yesterday.

Mr. C. C. Canaly of Jacksonville, is in the city.

Mr. W. F. Aberly left yesterday morning for Burlington, to attend the meeting of the Synod of the Lutheran church.

Judge Thos. R. Parnell, United States Marshall H. C. Dockery, and Assistant United States district attorney, Oscar J. Spears, left yesterday morning.
