Commissioner Smith Still Holds Office. Burgwynne Favored For Brigadier General. Bagley Monument Fund. Cool and Rainy Weather.

JOURNAL BUREAU, RALEIGH, N. C., June 17. E. D. Carter of Asheville is expected to succeed Judge Norwood as Superior Court Judge. V. S. Leak of Asheville is said to have considered that slice of pie not large enough for himself.

Statesville denies the assertion that smallpox is epidemic there.

An effort was made to make Commissioner of Agriculture John R. Smith resign his position. The resolution to this effect was introduced by J. W. Bailey, but it failed entirely, 9 voting against it and 1 for it. Three of the board, Graham, King and Lineberry failed to vote either way.

The Bagley monument fund has reached $1,784.73. Yesterday some unknown friend in New York, sent $250.

Collector Duncan has asked for 5 more division deputies for his district—also a few more special deputies to enforce new law for tobacco cigars etc.

The list of names for brigadier general from North Carolina grows. General Cowles, General Roberts, Colonel Lusk, Colonel Armfield, and Colonel Burgwynne are now before the public for appointment.

Adjutant General Cowles commissioned the officers of the Lee Rifles yesterday as follows: James R. Anderson, Captain; Ford L. Clifton, 1st Lieutenant; Henry E. Reid, 2nd Lieutenant. This is a home guard company formed to take the place of the company that has gone to the front.

The uniforms for the colored battalion at Fort Macon have been received.

Out at Camp Russell an officer from each company is detailed to drill the raw recruits. They are drilled in squads. Many come in daily.

Greatly, chief signal corps man telegraphs the Adjutant General that 10 men for his department are wanted from North Carolina at $20 per month for private; Corporals $24; Sergeants $41.00; first class Sergeants $54 with rations etc. All applicants enlist as 1st class must be private.

It is said that Adjutant General Cowles has retired from the race for the brigadier generalship in favor of Colonel Burgwynne. General Cowles so telegraphed to Senator Pritchard who is pushing the claims of General Cowles.

The Adjutant General has received a very handsome flag from the ladies of Greenville to be presented to the Greenville company in camp here at Camp Russell.

General Cowles is today sitting up in a chair for the first time since his leg was broken.

An exceptionally cool and rainy spell is on just now. It is a twin to the "cool spell in May," and after the intense heat of last week, while refreshing will undoubtedly produce much sickness.

Still Wants War.

MADRID, June 16.—Comment tonight on the question of peace, which is discussed by all the papers is something like this: "Will there be peace? General Primo de Rivera thinks so; Moret thinks so; the government thinks exactly the contrary."

The truth is public opinion in Spain is that the country cannot make peace if she loses her colonies, and that now is the very moment when she can make Americans suffer keenly. It looks as if public opinion will make the war long.

El Liberal accurately echoes the sentiment of the ministry at present when it says the government favors peace and wishes to sound the country on the subject, concluding by declaring that today all except the Don Quixotes, which is the Spanish name for jingoes, favor peace, but none dare raise the cry, which would be welcome, from vague fears of international troubles.

The public mind accepts the loss of the Philippines with deep regret, yet philosophically. There is a keen struggle going on between those who say Spain must avenge her loss and those who counsel peace on the best terms obtainable.

To Crush Marines.

OFF GUANTANAMO, CUBA, June 16.—It is evident that the Spaniards do not intend quietly to abandon the position they took when the American marines were landed on Cuban soil, six days ago. They have been driven inland day after day, but are assembling large additional forces every hour and are preparing to make a fresh assault upon the American defenses.

The Spanish gunboats in the inner harbor have been hard at work carrying troops across the bay to surround the marines. This work was watched from Camp McCalla by the American officers. It continued all day.

Soon as the Spanish soldiers were landed on the eastern shore of the bay they vanished in the woods. There is little doubt that these troops are being sent to a common rendezvous for a concerted attack against the marines either in mass or by night surprises.

War Raging All Around Manila. Thousands of Spaniards Captured. Flames and Famine Prevail. American Troops Looked for Hourly.

Whither Bound? Special to Journal.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The State Department has its agents at Gibraltar and dispatch was received tonight in regard to the movement of the Spanish fleet that has been lying at Cadiz.

The dispatch gives the names of eleven of the Spanish warships and says that they passed the rock of Gibraltar bound from Cadiz to Carthage, the Spanish port in the Mediterranean.

Among the vessels named in the dispatch are the Carlos V., Pelayo, Giralda, Colon, the latter with the minister on board. The eleven war vessels passed the straits for Carthage, to receive orders at that port.

Besides the war vessels, three troops ships, the Antonio Lopez, Isla de Panos and Buenos Ayres left Cadiz yesterday. They were loaded with troops.

These transports are under Admiral Camara and part of the Cadiz fleet and seemed to be bound when sighted, for the African shore.

Is It Manila.

The belief in Washington since the receipt of this dispatch is that the Spanish fleet is bound for Manila to attempt to hold the Philippines in the Spanish power. The direction that the fleet will take is believed to be through the Suez canal.

A report of the sailing of Camara's fleet was received from Madrid. According to this account Camara put to sea where the fleet was divided and each division proceeded in a different direction, one squadron, according to the Madrid authority, going to attack the New England coast of the United States.

Blanco's Game.

The Spanish torpedo boat Vincent Yenz Pinzyou left Havana this morning under a flag of truce to communicate to the American fleet that Spain refused to exchange Hobson and his comrades of the Merrimac now confined in Morro fort at Santiago.

General Blanco intends to use Hobson and his brave men as a protection to Morro so that the American gunners will not train their cannon against Morro while the men are confined there. During all the bombardment at Santiago the reducing of Morro has been avoided.

Loosing Manila.

According to dispatches from Hong Kong, fierce fighting at Manila continues between the Spanish and insurgent forces. The insurgents nearly succeeded in forcing an entrance into the city. They have surrounded the city and the foreign residents are fleeing to the ships lying in the harbor.

The insurgents took three thousand prisoners, among them Gens. Garcia and Codaba and also the Governor of Cavite. The old garrison at Cavite surrendered with Gen. Sena and one thousand soldiers and Santa Cruz surrendered and two million rounds of cartridges were seized.

A great fire is raging north of Manila. The insurgents have captured the water works shutting off the supply to the inhabitants.

Three great German warships have arrived at Manila. Their arrival causes much comment.

The arrival of the American troops is expected hourly at Manila. Upon their arrival it is considered certain that Manila can be taken within twenty-four hours by the joint action of the land and naval forces. There is now a food famine prevailing in Manila.

Two attempts have been made to assassinate General Aguinaldo commanding the insurgent army. One of the conspirators was shot.

Getting Hawaii.

The Hawaii annexation bill, after passing the House, went to the Senate, where it went to the Senate Committee. The committee reports favorably on the bill.

Waiting the Ferry.

Admiral Sampson has notified the Secretary of the navy that his marines ashore had been reinforced by the insurgents and were in no danger of being overwhelmed by the superior force of the enemy. This was really most agreeable news as the latest news of those marines previous to Admiral Sampson's dispatch had caused many to fear that the entire force might be massacred before the army could reach them.

That the men of the landing party were in greater danger than had been expected when orders came for them to disembark from the Panther is admitted by the officials, who have been perceptibly nervous over the situation. Criticism has been liberally heaped on the naval officers for ordering the landing of so small a body of men at a place where it was known an overwhelming force of Spanish were located.

But assertions that the little band under Colonel Huntington would show it was more than equal to holding its own seem to have been justified by recent events, although only meagre official accounts of the recent campaign have so far been received here.

The strategic value of the ground upon which Camp McCalla is situated is believed to have been the reason that impelled Admiral Sampson to order the marines ashore to clear the surrounding country of bushwhacking parties of Spaniards and to protect the troops as they landed from the transports.

Keeping France Quiet?

In transmitting a report made by T. W. Cridler, Third Assistant Secretary of State, who was sent to Paris to continue the work of the special Commissioner to the Paris Exposition started by the late M. P. Handy, to Congress, President McKinley put in another bid for a continuance of the friendship of France towards the U. S. by saying: "I cordially renew my recommendation that a liberal appropriation be immediately granted."

President Firm on Hawaii.

Those Democrats who had a party caucus of members of the House called for the purpose of making opposition to the annexation of Hawaii a party question were speedily convinced that such action would not do; so they compromised by the adoption of a resolution declaring annexation to be dangerous and unwise by a vote of 59 to 17. Had all the members of the party absent from the caucus been present and voted against the resolution it could have been defeated. The House adopted the joint resolution providing for the annexation of Hawaii by a vote of 210 to 92, and President McKinley is quoted as saying that the Senate must do likewise before he will give his consent to the adjournment of Congress. 56 Senators are committed to annexation.

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

Judge Norwood no Longer Superior Court Judge. No Successor Appointed.

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL. RALEIGH, June 17.—This afternoon your correspondent was told by private Secretary to the Governor, Haynes Cade.

Judge Norwood's resignation was received and accepted by Governor Russell on June 13th. No successor has been appointed.

The Way.

There are two ways of running a Fountain—one makes money, the other friends. We practice the latter method, believing that in the end it pays best. This is why we serve crushed fruits with Ice Cream Soda at 5 cents, when it costs 10 cents elsewhere.

Soda Water is a small part of our business, but it brings lots of people to see us, and they can judge the Store by what they find at the Fountain.

We strive to have the best Soda, just as we strive to have the best store, aiming to make each department of our business help the other departments.

Supplies For Dewey

New York, June 16.—A Washington dispatch to the Herald says: Fresh mutton, beef and vegetables, in ample quantities will reach Admiral Dewey within a few days. It was learned today that Secretary Long recently negotiated through the State Department and Consul-General Bray, at Melbourne, Australia, for the purchase of a large supply ship named the Colgoa. Under instructions from Washington this vessel was loaded with 200,000 pounds of mutton, 400,000 pounds of beef and 600,000 pounds of vegetables, which were put in cold storage departments and the ship then sailed for Manila.
