EVERY MAN A BOND HOLDER.

If the political agitators, whose tenure of office is based upon the credulity of their constituents, the communists, whose cry and efforts are against law and good government, and every one who believes or imagines the Government to be a Thing, a Creature, a Palpable Being, which controls affairs of administration, and directs all matters pertaining to society or commerce, regard less of the wishes of the people, if any of these and all other disturbers of the public welfare should find that the next time they went upon the stump with their wild vagaries of speech and thought, that their hearers had become holders of United States Bonds, there would be a warm reception given them.

And yet it is possible for the majority of the families in this country to become holders of United States bonds.

The War Loan just authorized by Congress, of $200,000,000 of 3 per cent bonds is thrown wide open to the People of the United States, the People are invited to subscribe for these bonds, the People are given thirty days to subscribe for this bond issue, before capitalists, bankers, home and foreign money syndicates are to be given an opportunity to subscribe.

This in every sense the War Loan is a Popular one. It is in the hands of the People to take up. Syndicate offers are given no attention until the People subscribe to what they want, and at par value.

It is thus within the power and means of the People of this country to possess this entire issue of two hundred millions of dollars worth of United States bonds, and become dictators of the financial policy of the government so far as the bonds are concerned.

No need then for the communist leaders, the social agitators, the Marion Butlers, to attempt to harange the people against "money sharks, bond holders, or possessors of wealth," for there would be no hearers to give them ear, and their business as disturbers and agitators would be gone.

The people now have the opportunity to become the exclusive subscribers to the War Bond Issue, and by subscribing to show their faith and patriotism in their government, and to disprove any idea that this country is not one of the People, united in every way for good and honest government.

Mr. John Devis, editor of the Press, Anthon, Iowa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family for fifteen years, have recommended it to hundreds of others, and have never known it to fail in a single instance. For sale by F. S. Duffy."

Proper Allowances.

"Look here," said the young lieutenant of a great father, "this uniform you have made for me is entirely too large." "That's all right," exclaimed the tailor; "when you get it on you'll feel so big that it will be a perfect fit."

STATE OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, Lucas County, FRANK J. CHENEY makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of CATARRH that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE.

A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send or testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Cure Effected. The wise physician frequently finds it necessary to "minister to a mind diseased" rather than to the body that merely sympathizes with it. A young woman who had gone from her home in an inland village to visit friends in the great city for the first time in her life soon began to lose all appetite and grow thin and hollow eyed.

Her friends, fearing that she was going into a decline, called in a physician in spite of her protests and asked him to prescribe for her. He asked a few questions, noted her symptoms, gave her merely a scientific name and said as he handed her a bottle of pellets:

"It will be necessary, miss, first of all, for you to leave the crowded city. The air here is not good for you. Have you friends in the country?" "Why, I live in the country, doctor," she replied.

"Very good. Return, then, to your home, engage in light exercise, with frequent walks in the open air, and take five of these pellets every morning before breakfast."

She returned to her village home, observed the doctor's directions faithfully, paying particular attention to taking the medicine, and was well in less than a week.

Meeting the family physician one day, it occurred to her to tell him her experience. He listened to her, asked to see the pellets, tasted them, and finding them to be merely sugar unmedicated, said:

"What did your city doctor tell you was your ailment?" "He said it was nostalgia." "H'mph! Do you know what nostalgia means?" "No, sir."

"It means homesickness."—"Youth's Companion." A Lost Opportunity.

"Well, Uncle William," said the president of the emigration society, "I s'pose you hear de news?" "No. What's stirrin'?" "Wy, you ain't heard 'bout de treasurer?"

"Not a word. What he done now?" "Run off wid de funds—tuk ever' dollar wid him!"

"Lawd, Lawd! En how much wuz in de treasury?" "Fo' hundred dollars!" "En you say he gone wid it?" "Clean gone!"

The old man seemed wrapped in thought and had a faraway look in his eyes. "Fo' hundred dollars!" he repeated to himself. "Fo' hundred dollars! En des ter think er it! I wuz de treasurer of de society for two weeks en had ever' dollar er dat money in my power! My, my! Fo' hundred dollars—fo' hundred bright, silver dollars in a shinin' lump! Bre'r Johnson, will you please, sah, do me a favor?"

"Des name it, Uncle William." "Take des heah hick'ry stick, sah, en hit me 'cross de head en den kick me 'la'nt ez you kin, sah, out de do!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Pain and Payn.

Barry Pain relates that he once sent the late James Payn a series of parodies for Cornhill. Payn accepted them, but there was a difficulty. One of them was a parody of an author, X., who was a personal friend of Payn's and a very sensitive man, who would not take the slightest form of flattery in the spirit in which it was offered. Now, it happens that there is a considerable resemblance between the style of X. and that of another author of the same school, Y. Payn suggested that Pain should take out X.'s name from the title of the parody and substitute that of the school of fiction to which he belonged. "Then," he said, "X. will think that it's meant for Y."

"But," Pain asked, "what about Y?" "That's all right," he answered. "Y. will know that it's meant for X."

A Haunted Railroad Car.

Every one has heard of haunted houses, but the railroad men know there are haunted cars as well. For instance, on the L. and N. there is a caboose known as "1908" which carries on in the most supernatural manner. What do you say to a caboose that suddenly begins to shake and shiver like a man with the ague, and this, too, when it is standing alone on the track? My informant solemnly asserted also that "1908" is subject to attacks of hysteria. It jumps up and down without the slightest provocation. He says it did the most remarkable thing, however, one day near Richmond. It was standing on a siding with all brakes set. All at once it started and ran up grade, over an embankment into a field.—Paris (Ky.) Reporter.

Dr. Mary Walker Sits Like a Woman.

The ex-queen of Hawaii, surrounded by her court, was engaged in earnest conversation with Dr. Mary Walker. The little doctor was neat and quick and span from the collar of her Prince Albert coat to the soles of her little boots. She was dressed like a man. She wore no petticoats, but the serpent trail of the petticoats her foremothers wore is over her still, for all the evening she sat with her knees close together. She wears trousers, but the inherited restraint of the petticoats binds her knees. She may dress like a man, but she'll always sit as women sit.—Washington Post.

Benefits of a King's Favor.

Not long ago his majesty of Siam gave an Italian (for painting one of his wives from a photograph) "the grand cross of the Siamese crown." It is a rather large order. "This cross," said his majesty graciously, "will entitle you to marry 12 wives. It is a distinction I seldom confer, so I hope you will make good use of it."—Siam Observer.

What He Said.

Little Girl (to lady visitor)—Please, Miss Jawcwer, let me see your tongue. Miss J. (surprised)—Why, my dear? Little Girl—Why, ma said you'd no 'id of a tongue.—London Sketch.

LET YOUR TAXES AY ONCE AT THE COURT HOUSE.

Only One Doat in Class.

The French soldier is as easy to lead as a child. His cheerfulness and gay philosophy enable him to endure the greatest hardships without a murmur. All he wants is justice. When he has received his provisions, he straightway goes to weigh his meat, his bread, his coffee, his sugar, even his salt. All he wants is his due, and if he finds that he has not received short weight he is satisfied and cheerful. A kind word from an officer will make him happy, a cigarette offered to him if he is short of tobacco will make a hero of him.

I remember one day passing a young soldier who was being taken to the hospital. His right hand had been shot off clean. "Cheer up, my boy," I said to him, "no more fighting for you. They will nurse you and take care of you." "Ah, lieutenant," he replied with a look pitiful to contemplate, "how am I to roll my cigarettes now?" I put a small box of cigarettes in his breast pocket. I shall never forget the expression of gratitude on his face.

In another instance a devoted orderly was playing his captain whose leg had just been amputated. "Don't cry, old fool," said the captain to him. "I am going to keep you, and in the future you will have only one boot to clean every morning."—Max O'Roll in North American Review.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at F. S. Duffy's Drug Store, large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

Notice of Dissolution of Partnership.

The firm of Clark and Gulon, by limitation of time and by mutual consent, is this day dissolved.

All matters now in litigation will be prosecuted and defended to final judgment jointly by the individual members of the firm. Mr. Clark will retain his place of business at his office now occupied by the firm. Mr. Gulon will remove to the office on the North side of Broad street, immediately adjoining his residence, so soon as the same is prepared for occupancy, of which notice will be given. Until which time he may be found at his residence, or at the office of Mr. Clark.

This June 11th, 1898. Wm. W. CLARK, OWEN H. GULON.

SHEDSKIN 20 TIMES My little boy broke out with an itching rash. Tried three doctors and medical colleges but he kept getting worse. There was not one square inch of skin on his whole body unaffected. He was one mass of sores, and the stomach was frightful. In removing the bandages they would take the skin with them, and the poor child's screams were heart-breaking. After the second application of CUTICURA (ointment) I saw signs of improvement, and the sores to dry up. His skin peeled off twenty times, but now he is entirely cured.
