Fighting Now Going On. Decisive Work This Week. Various Reports Sent Out From Madrid. General Miles to Take Command.

Have They Really?

Special to Journal.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 23-A dispatch from Rome tonight says that the Spanish fleet under Admiral of Pantelaria, which lies midway betaeen Sicily and Africa and that the fleet take into view the temper of our people, is going towards the Suez canal.

The Republicans threaten a demonstration in the the chambers of deputies if the government closes the Cortes as is talked of. The ministry is attacked for sending the fleet under Admiral Cervera to Santiago to be held there by the American fleet.

On to Santingo. General Miles will go to Suntiago to take command in person of the move ment against the city.

General Miles says that the attack on ter's troops will be distributed in a semi circle before the city and gradually move up to the attack, while Admiral Sampson will support the movement with the guns of the fleet.

"News" From Madrid. Admiral Cervera is reported to have sent word to his government at Madrid that the situation at Santiago is very critical.

The Governor of Santiago admits that the Spaniards were obliged to retire before the American forces.

The Spanish minister of war has received a dispatch from Santiago announc ing that the first attack of the Americans on Puenta Cerraco was repulsed after a bloody engagement.

Further reports from Madrid announce the engagement of an American warship with the Spanish cruiser Isabella, a gunboat and the torpedo destroyer Terror off San Juan, Porto Rico. The account says that one Spaniard was killed and two wounded.

The destruction of a wooden fort near Clenfuegos by an American warship is also reported.

The Reinforcements.
