GERMANS AT MANILA

tilitude Assumed by The Naval Com mander There Causes Annoyance and Apprehension.

WASHINGTON, July 15 .- The attitude ssumed by the German naval comman der in the Philippines is without doubt a cause of annoyance and apprehension to our government. The spirit of quibbling, as between the insurgents and the American forces in the Philippines, attributed to the German government by its own papers, is far from satisfactory to a government like ours, accustomed to deal fairly, frankly and openly in international issues instead of adopting underhand courses.

This government, however is satisfied that its interests are safe in the hands of Admiral Dewey and is adhering to its original intention of allowing him a free hand to deal with the situation. Until he himself asks for action on the part of the government it is not the purpose to make any representations on the subject of the Philippines to the German Government.

London, July 15-The Times says: "It s not difficult to read between the lines in Admiral Dewey's studiously moderate dispatch that the German policy at Manila came rather perilously near producing complications of an exceedingly un toward kind. He certainly appears to deserve that thanks be tendered him by his government for the self-restraint which he exercised under circumstances which, at least, bore the appearance of

"It remains to be seen what view the German government will take of the action of the Irene. Though no diplomatic action may be taken at Washington, the American people will not be slow to draw the conclusions which are only too plainly suggested by the language of the German press. The German defense that the Irene acted in the cause of humanity may serve to gloss over a rather disagree able incident, yet the world cannot for get that Germany has not, on other occasions, shown herself to be power fully swayed by hamanitarian motives and that reasons of a very different kind were originally assigned for the presence of her ships at Manila."

JOURNAL BUREAU, Raleigh, N. C., July 16

It is a pity that the camp of the Second Regiment is not kept so clean and nest as that of the First Regiment. Visitors nearly all comment on the untidy appearance of the camp.
