NO YELLOW FEVER ALARM

deneral Shafter Will Return to United States. Santiago an Open Port. Thirty Thousand Troops to Leave For Porto Rico.

No Alarm Over Yellow Fever. pecial to Journal.

WASHISOTON, D. C. July 18,-The breaking out of the yellow fever in our army at Santiago has made it certain that no summer campaign against Havana will be undertaken. The adminstration is unwilling to send our sot liers where that disease can hardly be scaped during the next three months, When the news first reached Washingon that there were several hundred ases of yellow fever in our army at Santiago, it came very near to creating a panic. Every possible precaution is being sken to prevent the fever becoming epilemic and, although, news of the progress of the fever is very meagre, owing to rigid censorship at Santiago, there s now a little better feeling. Latest reports from Santiago say that there are four hundred cases of yellow fever among the Americans, General Duffield being among the number. There is no plarm felt as the cases are all of a

Now an Open Port.

After the United States flag was raised ver the Governor's palace in the city of Santiago, an i at the Morro forts, and the six Spanish ships in the harbor became American prizes, Lieut, Hobson at the head of an expedition entered the approaches to the harbor and going to the regular firing station, exploded all tie

Boes Not Want Position.

General Shafter has declined the position of Military Governor of Santiago, and will return to this country.

In General Shafter's place, General McKibbin has been appointed military governor of Santiago and he at once assumed charge of the city. He was a sut-ler during the Civil War and was appointed to the regular army for showing bravery in an engagement. Until he was make a brigadier-general one week ago he was lieutenant-colonel of the Twentyfourth Infantry. Yielded the Point

The demand of the Spanish soldiers, namely, of taking their arms with them back to Spain, was reluctantly yielded, but now all their gues are stacked up in the armories at Santiago, under the charge of American troops. Porto Rico Next. There was a rumor here today that-

General Miles with four batteries of attillery had already left Siboney and tarted on the Yale for Porto Rico. This eport was denied afterwards

But within a few days thirty thousand roops will start from Tampa, Fla., harleston. S. C., and Chickamsuga, and will soon be placed at Porto Rico.

The monitors Puritan, Amphitrite an Miantanomah are due to arrive off San Juan, Porto Rico, today, which place they will blockade.

For the Spanish Const. Orders are given to hasten the departure of Commodore Watson's fleet sgainst the Spanish coast cities, and it is expected that this fleet will be ready to sail this

In some quarters there are reports that modore Watson will sail without his eaving time being made public, so that he first report of this action will be rom the Spaulah seaboard, where his est will make its appearance.

There is still wounds, and but two cases of gangrene much dissatisfaction that the regiment should have been split, and still more fatally. dissatisfaction that the negro regiment should have gotten the assignment for the Philippines, which was so much vanted by this Second Regiment.

There were 11 more patients admitted o the hospital at camp yesterday. Several of them have measles.

Col. Burgwyne himself attended to the embarkation of the six companies when they left here on Sunday, Major Wilder was in charge of one train of 13 cars and Major Cotton of the other train of 13

Senator Butler is booked to come here onight to have a conference with Govrnor Russell. This is in reference to the Republican convention which meets here on Wednesday the 20th.

The remaining six companies of the Second Regiment will on Wednesday march out six miles from here and pitch tents and stay there for a few days, then they will return here and pitch their tents where the First Regiment was in camp at Camp Grimes. There the drainage is much better and the tents can be placed in better order.

The board of trustees of Trinity college is to meet this week, and it is reported that the board has called on Judge Walter Clark to appear before it, and prove his charges against President J. C. Kilgo of the college.
