MEN'S High Grade Footwear!

AT DUFFY'S STORE.

STACY, ADAMS & CO. make shoes for men and men only, they don't attempt to make women or children's shoes. They have gotten the manufacture of men's footwear down pretty fine. When one is handed a shoe and correctly informed that its a "Stacy, Adams" you need not look for much higher grade goods. These shoes are good enough. Take up a pair and compare with the so-called, "just as good" at a dollar or two less; and one can readily tell the difference. This store sells Stacy, Adams & Co.'s shoes.

Two grades $5.00 and $4.00, mostly the $5.00 ones, the best. There is quite a range of styles, both nobby and staple. Here's eight lines to choose from. Have other styles too.

Camp Wikoff Being Redeed. Making of the Hospital Ship.

Special to Journal. NEW YORK, August 31.—At Camp Wikoff the number of patients has been greatly reduced by furloughs and by sending many of the sick to the New York hospitals.

At Fernandina, Fla., a singular accident happened to the hospital ship Olivette. The vessel suddenly sank while lying at the quarantine station this morning in 30 feet of water. The hospital corps of 35 and the crew of 45 men escaped uninjured, but with scanty attire. The cause of the accident is mysterious.

CERVERA TO LEAVE.

The Spanish Admiral and Naval Prisoners to Leave For Home.

Special to Journal. WASHINGTON, August 31.—Orders have been issued by the government for the release of the Spanish naval prisoners at Annapolis and Portsmouth.

They will leave for home in a short time. Admiral Cervera will engage the transportation.

What Alger Says.

NEW YORK, August 30.—A dispatch to the Herald from Washington says:

"When Secretary Alger's attention was called to the charges alleged to have been made by General Miles he said:

"General Miles perfectly understood when he left Washington that he was not to supersede General Shafter, and he so stated in an interview."

"Did General Miles know that a dispatch had been sent to General Shafter saying that Miles was not to supersede him?" was asked.

"He did not," the Secretary replied. "He had said, but he perfectly understood it. The cable sent to General Shafter was in every way fit. It was due to General Shafter that he, as well as General Miles, should have a full knowledge of the situation."

"I cannot conceive how General Miles could have made the statements imputed to him and have been sane at the same time."

"Will General Miles be court-martialed?" was asked again.

"If General Miles made these statements," answered the Secretary, "it was unwillful, and proper action will be taken. I do not, however, care to anticipate events until the facts are officially presented."

"They accuse me of politics in connection with the appointment of volunteers," said the Secretary. "I believe in the volunteers, but the commanders of the corps are West Point men, and nearly all the majors in the commissary and quartermaster departments are West Point men, so this accusation has no basis."

It is the confident opinion here that no offense will be charged against Gen. Miles, as that would leave him in a position under the articles of war, to call for a court of inquiry. On the other hand, he may be court-martialed for conduct prejudicial to good order and military discipline.

The Miles Alger Dispute.

WASHINGTON, August 30.—The breach between Secretary Alger and General Miles has been widened by the publication today of several of the official telegrams received by the commanding general, which he had referred to in his recent interview.

Indignation was exhibited by both Secretary Alger and General Corbin, who are accused by General Miles of having been guilty of duplicity and underhanded work in suppressing dispatches passing between the department and Shafter during the period preceding the surrender of Santiago, and while care was observed by all the officials not to discuss or comment on the latest phase, it was plainly evident that they regard the publication of orders that had been given to General Miles and other cablegrams as warranting the official attention of the department.

Paris Papers Question.

PARIS, August 30.—Temps again devotes its leader tonight to the Czar's peace project. Like all other papers in France, it greets the proposition with the respectful sympathy. Nevertheless like the generality of French journals it refers to the vagueness of the Czar's ideas. Temps examines the difficulties that such a proposition as general disarmament must surely encounter, and asks:

"Will each power have a sort of maximum strength fixed beyond means which cannot be extended?"

"Will the great powers ever consent to such diminution of their sovereignty?"

"Will an absolute limit be decided upon or will a sort of increase in defensive strength proportionate to augmentation of population of territory be determined?"

"Will the effective strength of colonial armies be regulated as well as the strength of continental military forces?"

As for the navy, will not only the number, but the type of vessels be considered?"

Once an agreement is reached upon these points, says Temps, who will see that the engagement entered into will be kept? To that tribunal will appeal be made in case of disputes?"

MUST PAY TAX.

Commission Decides Against Southern Express Company.

A. & M. College Opens. Russell's New Appointee. Railroad Bills for Transporting Soldiers. No Interchangeable Ticket.

JOURNAL BUREAU. RALEIGH, N. C., August 31.

The Railroad Commission on yesterday rendered a unanimous decision that the Southern Express Company must pay the one cent war tax. Mr. F. G. Dublin of Atlanta, general counsel for the Express Company made a strong argument that the company should not be required to pay the tax. He said if the company must pay the tax, it would ask that it be allowed to increase its rate one cent.

The Agricultural and Mechanical College opens for the Fall session tomorrow September 1st. The prospects are good. Everything has been overhauled, and many conveniences have been added—notably a bakery to the kitchen outfit.

The second new bale of cotton came in today, and brought five cents per pound. The present outlook is that the new crop will not sell for over five cents per pound.

Governor Russell has commissioned Adjutant David Clark of Raleigh, Capt. of Company M, Second Regiment, to succeed Capt. J. M. Cooper, against whom so many charges were made, and who then resigned. Captain Clark is now Adjutant of the Second Battalion of the regiment.

A Talcum Mining Company in Swin county was incorporated by the Secretary of the State this week.

The Kilgo-Clark matter is still being heard before the board of trustees of Trinity.

The different railroads are sending in their bills for transporting volunteers to the camps here, and at Fort Macon. The Southern Railroad bill is $5,800.

The Railroad Commission this morning reduced the rate of freight on cotton on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, so as to make it conform to that of the North Carolina road. Later the commission will reduce the "joint" freight rates on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, which are higher than on other roads.

John H. Small of Washington is Harry Skinner's Democratic opponent for Congress in the 1st District. Skinner is the fusion nominee.

Senator Butler is now in Montana. The Railroad Commission refuses to grant the 2,000 mile ticket for $10, interchangeable on different roads, asked for by the Wilmington Tariff Association.
