POLITICS CONTROL.

Governor Russell's Action Regarding N. C. Troops.

Accounts to be Paid. Wagon Spoken For Liverpool. Straight Out Populist Ticket. Receipts of New Cotton Light.

JOURNAL BUREAU, Raleigh, N. C., September 5. It seems strange that orders regarding the mustering out of the North Carolina troops should be changed so often. Now it seems the 2nd, Regiment is to be left in service, and the 1st, which is thoroughly equipped, and in much better training is ordered here to be done away with, and the 3rd, (negroes) are to go to Knoxville and remain in service for two months longer. All of this is political maneuvering, directed by Governor Russell and his counsellor J. C. L. Harris.

Spite against the 1st, regiment is said to prompt this action of Russell. He wanted to make some changes in the officers of the 1st, Regiment, and Colonel Armfield would not accept the proposition thus making an enemy of Russell. Of course the negroes will be at the post (the polls) on election day.

J. C. L. Harris is back from Washington. He says he succeeded in getting the North Carolina accounts against the government second on the lists. Ohio being first.

The Supreme Court meets the last Monday in September, when the examinations for license to practice law will be held. This is to prevent any more mistakes. It will be remembered that last term there were two applicants with names very similar and in issuing the license, one was made out in the name of the one who failed, and the other man who was really entitled to it was turned down. When the attention of the bench was called to this error, it was admitted, but the judges refused to correct.

Mr. Midgeley, an Englishman will be here this week to arrange for a large shipment of wagon spokes to be sent from the factory here to Liverpool.

The straight out Populists of Wake county met here on Saturday, and called a general convention to be held on the 29th. These Populists are bitter against fusion, and at their convention will nominate a full county ticket of straight out Populists.

Contributions for a monument to Lieutenant Shipp are coming in very freely. The movement is in the hands of the Charlotte Observer. The Bagley monument fund seems to be at a standstill.

The new United States National Bank examiner Walter R. Henry of Charlotte is here, and tomorrow begins the examination of the National Bank here.

"Labor Day" was observed here today only by the formal closing of the federal building and the capital. Work went on as usual in both.

The receipts of new cotton are very light. It needs sunshine to open it. The heavy rains of Saturday night and yesterday of course were bad for it.

THE PRIZE MONEY.

One Million Dollars to be Distributed Among the Nations.

New York, September 4.—At least $1,000,000 prize money will be distributed among American sailors as a result of the war with Spain. More than half of this sum will be paid in accordance with the law providing for the payment of a bounty for persons on board vessels of war sunk in action. The remainder will be turned into the treasury for distribution by the courts, which will pass upon vessels of the enemy captured by American men of war.

It is estimated that the aggregate amount due the Asiatic fleet as a result of the destruction of the Spanish force amounts to $187,000, which Congress will be asked to appropriate during the coming session. One twentieth of this sum belongs to Rear-Admiral Dewey as commander-in-chief, and he will, therefore, be $9,375 richer than he was before the war.

Admiral Sampson and his men get $249,300. Sampson personally gets about $40,000.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY. Take Laxative Bromo, Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 50c. The genuine has L. B. Q. on each tablet.

WANTS TO BE ANNOUNCED.

MARILA, September 4.—A deputation from the Southern Philippine Islands, consisting of some of the richest natives of Pansay, Misoro, Cebu and Mindanao, visited United States Consul Williams here yesterday evening and urged that every possible effort be made for the annexation of the whole of the Philippine Islands.

The deputation stated that all classes, the wealthy mountaineers as well those engaged in mercantile pursuits, would welcome the annexation of the islands, and had resolved never to submit to Spanish or Tagalog rule. They also said that there were near thirty thousand men, many of them armed with rifles, ready to support the Americans. They refuse to join in the clamor for independence, which they consider a mistake. They wish annexation to the United States.

Torpedo Accident.

New Orleans, September 4.—The government boat John B. Meigs was destroyed by an explosion at Fort St. Phillip yesterday. She had aboard Lieutenant Jervey and a party of men engaged in removing the torpedoes laid in the Mississippi river at the beginning of the war. Lieutenant Jervey had a narrow escape. The killed number four, including the captain.

Camp Disappearing.

Camp Wikoff, Montank Point, L. I., Sept. 4.—This great camp will dissolve during the three coming weeks, and by October 1 it will have shrunk to slender proportions. The well men, according to the War Department's present designs, will leave the camp as fast as the transportation can be conveniently provided, probably at the rate of 3,000 or 4,000 a week.

The President, Secretary Alger and General Wheeler had a talk about this yesterday, and although General Wheeler thought the men would do well in camp until October 1, it was determined to continue sending them away. This was a result of the President's visit. The regulars taken from posts east of the Mississippi will, according to the President's directions, be sent where they were before the war.

ENGLAND REGAINS THE SOUDAN

Winning Back the Territory Lost When Gordon Died at Khartoum. A Great Victory.

OMDURMAN, ON THE NILE, September 2.—Gen. Sir Herbert Kitchener, with the Khalifa Abdallah's black standard, captured in battle, entered Omdurman, the capital of Mahdism, at 4 o'clock this afternoon, at the head of his Anglo-Egyptian army, after routing the Dervishes and dealing a death-blow to Mahdism.

Roughly, the Anglo-Egyptian losses were 200. Thousands of the Dervishes were killed or wounded.

At dawn today the Anglo-Egyptian cavalry, patrolling toward Omdurman, discovered the Dervishes advancing to the attack in battle array, chanting war songs. Their front consisted of infantry and cavalry, stretched out three or four miles. Countless banners fluttered over their masses and copper and brass drums resounded through the serried ranks of the savage warriors, who advanced unwaveringly, with all their old-time ardor.

At 7.30 a. m. the enemy crowded the ridges above the Anglo-Egyptian camp and advanced steadily in enveloping formation. General Kitchener's artillery opened fire at 7.40, which was answered by the Dervish riflemen.

Their attack developed on General Kitchener's left, and in accordance with their traditional tactics, they swept down the hillside with the design of rushing the flank. But the withering fire maintained for fifteen minutes by all the Anglo-Egyptian line frustrated the attempt.

The bravery of the Dervishes can hardly be overstated. Those who carried the flag struggled to within a few hundred yards of General Kitchener's fighting line, while the mounted Emirs absolutely threw their lives away in bold charges.

The Dervishes withdrew behind the ridge in front of their camp, and the whole Anglo-Egyptian force began to march toward Omdurman. As the troops surmounted the crest adjoining the Nile the Sudanese on the right came into contact with the enemy, who had reformed under cover of a rocky eminence and had massed beneath the black standard of the Khalifa in order to make a supreme effort to retrieve the fortunes of the day. A mass, 15,000 strong, bore down on the Sudanese.

General Kitchener swung round the centre and left of the Sudanese and seized the rocky eminence. The Egyptians, hitherto in reserve, joined the firing line in ten minutes, and before the Dervishes could make their attack effective.

The flower of the Khalifa's army was caught in a depression and within a zone of withering cross fire from three brigades, with artillery. The devoted Mahdists strove heroically to make headway, but every rush was stopped, while their main body was literally mowed down by a sustained, deadly cross fire.

Defiantly the Dervishes planted their standards and died beside them. Their dense masses gradually melted to companies and the companies to dribbles beneath the leaden ball. Finally they broke and fled, leaving the field covered with white clad corpses, like a snow drift dotted meadow.

At 11.15 a. m. General Kitchener ordered an advance and his whole force in line drove the scattered remnants of the foe into the desert, his cavalry cutting off their retreat to Omdurman.

Dewey's Chinaman.

Said the Chinese to Dewey, "What shall I do?" "Keep your shirt on," says Dewey, "And wait for your cue."

Necessities First.

"Was that the landlord again after the rent?" "Yes, and I told him that we hadn't paid for our whole yet."
