MILES MAY BE RELIEVED.

The Controversy Becoming Serious. He Confronts His Critics.

New York, September 7.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: When I handed to Secretary Alger the statements of General Miles as to the parade of his troops in New York, the Secretary read it and replied:

"Do not ask me about that. I have nothing to say."

The Secretary seemed vexed at the very subject of the Miles controversy when it was mentioned to him. I am informed that it is the program of the administration to let General Miles do all the talking. And yet it is stated in the War Department circles that there is a limit beyond which General Miles will not be allowed to go.

While no action is expected to be taken upon the statements already attributed to General Miles, yet there is strong reason for saying that the displacement of the commanding general of the army is not among the improbabilities of the near future. The case of Gen. Winfield Scott is recalled, when as commanding general he was relieved and assigned to the superintendency of West Point.

There is no doubt of the authority of the President to relieve the commanding general whenever he sees fit. It is also within his province to order a court-martial for the trial of General Miles, but this he has no thought of doing. The extreme measures he would be likely to take would be as above indicated, and whether or not this will be done will depend largely upon the future conduct of General Miles.

Although Secretary Alger said some days ago that he did not believe General Miles could have made the statements attributed to him, the authorities here have never seriously questioned the accuracy of the Miles interviews. They have questioned the propriety of his conduct in criticising his superior officers, but have not decided to take official notice of it until something more develops.

The interview just given out by General Miles is not calculated to improve the situation. Indeed, it may bring matters to a head. Among the subordinate officials of the War Department the feeling is general that either General Miles or Secretary Alger must go.

WHOLESOME ADVICE.

For People Whose Stomachs are Weak and Digestion Poor.

Dr. Harlandson, whose opinion in diseases is worthy of attention, says when a man or woman comes to me complaining of indigestion, loss of appetite, sour stomach, belching, sour watery risings, headaches, sleeplessness, lack of ambition and a general run down nervous condition I advise them to take after each meal one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, allowing the tablet to dissolve in the mouth, and thus mingle with the food eaten. The result is that the food is speedily digested before it has time to sour and ferment. The tablets will digest food any way whether the stomach wants to or not, because they contain harmless digestive principles, vegetable essences, pepsin and Golden Seal which supply just what the weak stomach lacks.

I have advised the tablets with great success, both in curing indigestion and to build up the tissues, increase flesh in thin nervous patients, whose real trouble was dyspepsia and as soon as the stomach was put to rights they did not know what sickness was.

A fifty cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be bought at any drug store, and as they are not a secret patent medicine, they can be used as often as desired with full assurance that they contain nothing harmful in the slightest degree; on the contrary, anyone whose stomach is at all deranged will find great benefit from the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. They will cure any form of stomach weakness or disease except cancer of the stomach. Full size package at druggists 60c or $1.00 or by mail from Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

Do not be misled by cheap imitations. The name "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets" is prominent on the wrapper.

Dossey Battle Reminiscences.

FAYETTEVILLE, September 7.—The Democratic convention of the eastern criminal district met in the court house at 3 o'clock this evening. H. McP. Robinson presiding, Dossey Battle was nominated by acclamation. The convention was harmonious and enthusiastic.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c. The genuine has L. B. Q. on each tablet.

Li Hung Chang Dismissed.

Peking, September 7.—Li Hung Chang has been dismissed from power. It is presumed that this was done in accordance with the demand which it was rumored the British Minister here, Sir Claude M. MacDonald, was instructed to make on account of the alleged general partiality of the great Chineseman to Russia, culminating in Great Britain being deprived of the contract for the Peking-Hankow railroad by giving the Russo-Chinese Bank financial control of the road.

We offer this week Black Imported Butter, 20 lbs. for $1.25, worth $1.50 at the regular price. This is our special offer.

THE STATE CAPITAL.

Illegal Appointments of Registrars. Aid For Soldiers. Increase of Voting Precincts. Populists to Name Fusion Judge in 5th District.

JOURNAL BUREAU, RALEIGH, N. C., September 8.

The county commissioners have at their meeting this week made some illegal appointments in naming poll holders and registrars for the county. They so far disregarded law as to appoint non-residents registrars. These men are office holders here from other counties under Republican rule. The majority of the registrars are office holders.

The sheriff has the tax books ready to receive taxes. They show a taxable list of $118,589.60. White polls, 4,770; colored polls 2,894. This is for the county, part of it being the amount of railroad property listed for taxation by the Railroad Commission. Raleigh township pays nearly two thirds of the tax of the whole county. In this township there are 1890 white polls and 138 negro polls.

Mrs. Joseph B. Batchelor of Raleigh, President of the Board of Lady Managers of the Soldiers Home here, makes a call to all the ladies in the different counties to come to the aid of the Home, and raise some money to buy fuel for these old Confederate veterans. As stated yesterday the annual appropriation will not be due until December and the funds are out. No one should let this appeal go by unnoticed.

Judge Parnell has issued 10 long orders to Referees and Court Clerks regarding the Bankruptcy business.

During the last four years there has been an increase of some 400 voting precincts in the State, making the number now 1,569.

There were many delegates to the Populist Congressional convention that met here for the 4th district today. Although Congressman Stroud is one of Butler's backers or rather Butler is backing Stroud, the outlook now is that before the convention adjourns Stroud will be re-nominated. This will be shown that all of Butler's power is not gone. It is said that in only six counties in the State is there complete fusion.

The fusionist organ "Home Rule" will issue 50,000 copies containing attacks on Democrats.

The Populists are to name the fusion nominee for Judge in the 5th district as a successor of S. B. Adams fusion nominee for Congress.

A remarkable cool wave is on here doing much damage to the unfortunate cotton crop.

Capt. Jeffreys of the 2nd, Regiment resigned a few days ago, but no successor will be appointed as the regiment is so soon to be mustered out of service.

It seems the Railroad Commission signed an agreement releasing Raleigh and Gaston railroad stock from taxes, so Treasurer Worth will not be able to increase the amount of his State taxes as he hoped. He will probably test the commissioners right to sign any such contract. Dr. Abbott did not sign.

GEN. WHEELER'S LOSS.

His Son Drowned at Montank Point While Bathing.

CAMP WICKOFF, Montank Point, L. I., September 7.—Thomas A. Wheeler, son of General Joseph Wheeler, and Second Lieutenant Newton D. Kirkpatrick, First Cavalry, were probably drowned while bathing here this afternoon.

Young Wheeler was a naval cadet in his second year. He had been acting on his father's staff for some time past. He was seventeen years of age, was a fine young fellow, and had made a host of friends among the older officers. Together with Lieutenant Kirkpatrick he went to the beach this afternoon to enjoy the surf bathing. The surf ran high and the undertow was very strong. Apparently no one saw the young men drown and it was not until about 6 o'clock that they were missed. Their clothes were found a short distance from General Wheeler's tent, close to the water and it is believed that the young officers were swept away by the strong sea.

Tonight a detail of sixty men from the First Cavalry is stationed along the coast to watch for the bodies that may be thrown upon shore.

PURSING THE KHALIFA.

Great Slaughter of the Dervishes in the Recent Battle.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The British War Office has received a dispatch from General Sir Herbert Kitchener, the commander of the Anglo-Egyptian forces, dated from Omdurman on Monday last, saying that over 500 Arabs mounted on camels, were dispatched after the fugitive Khalifa Abdullah that morning. The General added that the Dervish leader was reported to be moving with such speed that some of his wives had been dropped along the road followed by him.

The Sirdar says also: "Officers have been counting the Dervish bodies on the field and report the total number of dead found as about 10,800. From the number of wounded who have crawled to the river and town, it is estimated that 16,000 were wounded. Beside the above between 300 and 400 Dervishes were killed in Omdurman, when the town was taken.

"I have as prisoners between three and four thousand fighting men."
