POPULISTS HAVE NO LEADER.

If the real Populists of North Carolina, those who are Populiata because they believe in the principles of Populism, who have no po-Ltical office, nor are seekers of offices, if these kind of Populists would stop and consider their present situation, they would discover that they have no real leader of their political faith in this State.

Some Populists might say to this, why Marion Butler, Dr. Thompson or Harry Skinner are our leaders.

But are any of these men really and in fact leaders of Populism. practicing what they preach, and living to the party faith, blameless and worthy disciples of the true principles of Populism?

A little investigation as to the standing of these leaders will be instructive and profitable, and may show to sincere Populats that they are moving along, blinded as to their true political status, as represented by these leaders.

Marion Butler liss stood for Populism, received as an honest leader, but today his various political dickers are so well known, his fusion with Russell and his efforts to get og-operation with Democrats, these actions really discredit Marion Butler with every Populist.

Dr. Cyrus Thompson, while he has not been so free in his overtures to every one, as his friend Marion Butler, yet Dr. Thompson holds office not by Populist votes, but by negro votes and he is an advocate and supporter of Russellism.

Populism has no clause in its articles of faith, which declares for Russellism, nor seeks its own advancement by negro supremacy. To say that Harry Skinner is a sincere leader of Populism, a professor of its tenets, would border on the ridiculous, for while he may control the political machinery of party, he is very

TWO HUMOROUS BROTHERS.

They Won Wagers on the Strength of Their Own Homeliness

Many years ago there were two broth-ers, named Joel and Jonathan, who were famous throughout Wayne county, Ind., because they were both such frights One day they were on their way to Cincinnati by wagon in the days of the old canal. The wagon was of the covered variety, and only Joel was visible to the natural eye as the vehicle planged into and out of the vehicle plunged into and out of the chuck holes that infested the way. Joel was said to be the next to the ugliest man in all the country round, and his brother took precedence. The two brothers met a stranger, who, attracted by the supremely homely face of Joel, stopped his horse and said: "Excuse me, my friend, but would ou mind tellin me your name?"

In a sepulchral tone that fitted well the hideous face Joel replied: "Well, I guess I hain't never done nothin that would make me ashamed to tell my name. My name is Joel"-"Where do you live, if it is a fair uestion?"

'I live in Wayne county, Indianay." "Well, stranger, I've seen much of Indianny, but I'll bet you $10 that you're the ugliest man in the state.' "Well, I hain't no gamblin man," replied Joel, "but I hain't never seen nothin in the Scriptar' ag'in bettin on a sure thing, an I'll jest take that bet."

Turning to the wagon cover and peer-ing into its depths he called : "Jonathan, stick your head out hyer." Jonathan did as he was requested.

The stranger paid the money without word of complaint.-New York Mail and Express.

He Got His Leave.

"I have a favor to ask, colonel, and go a little carlier and remain a little later." "For what roasons?" demanded the colonel. The or-derly produced a letter and said, "Sir, I have received this from the president, and he invites me to dine at the White House.

When you have examined the con titution of the Gorman onisine, you titution of the German onlains, you are tempted to grow logunoions. You are conscious of having discovered that the psychology of a nation cannot be constructed upon a mere analysis of its made dishes. Your estimate of Brillat-Savarin sinks. He could not tell you what you are, even from all the means of your lifetime. Freiligrath's philo-sophic conclusion that "man is what he cats" you straightway qualify as true only when reterring to cannitat-ism. And you will aver that only in the case of palecithic man can you construct a man from the crumbs that fall from his dinner table. And this you will want to prove, and conse-quently will grow talkative with pre-senting of much evidence. Joseph Jefferson, it is said, was once in urgent need of ready money to hire a wagon while on a hunting and fishing trip in New Hampshire; but, having none, he made out a check for $2 on a plece of white birch bark. Three hours later coffee is taken, served with a piece of cake or thick served with a piece of cake or thick bread and butter. This is the hour pre-cious to the gossip and the busybody, the time for spreading scandal. Toward 8 o'clock the appetite again asserts itself. The hour of the ubiquitous sau-sages has arrived. Their name is legion, and they share the honors with slices of ham, smoked goose breast, pieces of raw pickled horring, and in summer hard boiled eggs and potato saind. Such is the German method of spread-ing the meals over the day. Of course there are oxceptions. Many families have two ample menis a day, but the bulk of the population cats mostly but-bulk of the population cats mostly but-tered bread and snacks. In justice to Germany one must say that the fare in many a home will compare favorably with that of many an American family. In the German restaurant the enisitie is on the whole monotonous and the food singularly insipid. All meats seem to have the same flavor, all are served with the same heavy, viscous sauces, and invariably escorted with the same soaplike potatoes. Stodginess and heavi ness are the great blots on the German fare. The element of variety, too, seems considered superfluous.

In the concrete the subject is almost too painful to face, the difficulty being to steer clear of exclamations denoting positive offensiveness. Some of the kickshaws which figure regularly upon the German table are reputed to be most sustaining. They certainly are intense

the Day. P. E. BUTLER, of pack-train No. 8, writing from Santiago de Cuba, on July 28rd, says: "We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Dianrhoes Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, 1 sln-cerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life." The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Harry Skiuper is in close political affinity with Senator Pritchard, a stalwart Republican, and it needs no argument to prove that Populism and Republicaniam have nothing in common.

It can thus be seen the Populists of North Carolina are being led by Harry Skinner, who controls their political machinery, and who uses their votes to advance Republican in the world. interests, at the same time keeping himself in office.

Are Populists going to be led in this way, to give their support to a party strictly inimical to Populium?

The Populists of North Carolina, today, are without a leader, and to follow the instructions of Harry Skinner, means for them to act and live contrary to their every belief and paretice, against their home interests, besides building up a party which strengthens itself at the expense of the Populists.

EILGO-CLARE MATTER.

This action of the Trustees ends the whole matter. It should not be again brought up. To bring it up again calls in question the fitness and competency of the Trustees, and raises a question of their moral character. Of their competence to determine simple questions of fact and their readiness to do right there can be no sane doubt. And to say that they have not acted justly is to charge them with a mental blindness and a moral obtuseness of which only the ignorant and vicious are

Santiago's Distinction.

Santiago de Cuba bas an ecclesias-tical distinction, and that is that it is the oldest bishopric in the western world. When all Pennsylvania was a traceless weste, an architakop roled a see of no mean proportions from that city and under that title. From the city of Bantingo also went out the two orrest missioneries to the Indiana and great missionaries to the Indians and negrose, the first, Las Casus, who evangelized nearly all Central America, and the second, St. Peter Claver, who worked among the negroes of Brazil.— Philadelphis Call.

The Cool Bismarck

Bismarck was one day in a company where smong other things the subject of how much it cost to gain experience in life cropped up. He kept silent for a time, but presently joined in the conversation and said: "Fools pretend that you can only gain experience at your own expense, but I have always managed to learn at the expense of others."
