THE SHAM OF IT ALL.

Nothing is more farcical and absurd than the public applause and newspaper approbation of the utter ances of Republican and Populist State speakers in this campaign.

When an aggregation such as Governor Russell, Senators Pritchard and Butler, Congressman Skinner and Dr. Cy Thompson, get tegether under one political banner. and with one accord exclaim, "We be brethren." surely it must be the simple of mind who will not see through the sham of it all, and be glad to leave alone such liars.

Of the above outfit, it must be acknowledged that the Gentle Governor receives very little applause, for those who might applaud his otterances are usually unable to understand them.

Senator Pritchard may be held as a little wabbly on his money views. yet Republicans might app'and him with comparative safety.

Senator Butler must now go out of North Carolina in order to receive any applause, for his unfaithfulness to friends and his inability to secure "pie" for his followers, makes him seek the society of Governor Russell to secure any attention.

Congressman Skinner with one hand in Senator Pritchard's gift bag of offices, naturally is "hail fellow" with every one, b.t for the honest voter, be he Republican or Populist, how can either such a one, sincerely accept Harry Skinner for a leader? The office seeker of course can, for any office seeker will swear or vote by anything. And the good Doctor Cy Thompson, with his prevarications on the stump, who puts the white and black Republicans in his Populist

ome so afflicted that treatment at the wylum were necessary. Would you like for him or her to be taken to the natitution by a negro! Answer this mention for yourselves honestly, before your Maker. If not, then in the name of that Maker and those you hold dear, vote to relieve those of your own race, and fiesh and blood in sastern Carolina who are thus subject to such outrages, and whose only relief must come from you,-Raleigh Post.

VISITING A SHRINE.

stinson's Daring Entry Into ered City of Kum.

the Secred City of Kum. Kum, a walled city of Persia, ranks second to Meshed in sanctity, on ac-count of the famous shrine of Masmus Fatima, sister of the Imam Riza, a fa-mous saint of the Mohammedans. While Lieutenant Rawlinson was on his way to Teheran he heard much of this secred city and the glories of the shrine, which, it was said, no Euro-pean had ever entered. Donth, so ramow whispered, would be the portion of the audacious infidel who should be discov-ered within its precindts.

ered within its precincts. To a young and ardent spirit a danger-ous adventure is an irresistible attraction. Young Rawlinson determined to visit the shrine. Disguised as a Persian pilgrim, thousands of whom annually journey to the sacred city, he joined the crowd of pilgrims. His knowledge of Persian and of the customs of the country enabled him to pass undetected through the temple gates and to make his way to the tomb of the saint. The guardian gave him the customary form of words and he repeated them. But his curiosity almost caused his detection. Attracted by magnificent suits of steel armor which hung on the walls, he was gazing at them, when suddenly he found that he had turned his back upon the sacred shrine wherein the saint was entombed.

A thrill of alarm startled him, but the discourtesy, impossible to a "true believer," had not been noticed. If it had been, there would probably have been no further career for the young lieutenant, who subsequently became the decipherer of Assyrian and Babylonian inscriptions and texts, and died the renowned orientalist, Sir Henry Raw-linson.-Youth's Companion.

MATES OF GREAT MEN.

The Wives of Both Disraell and Gindato

Were Brave. Once when Gladstone was making an outdoor speech it began to rain. Quietly Mrs. Gladstone, with her sweet, moth-erly face, and who always accompanied her husband, stood up, and, opening a domestic looking umbrells of the Gamp species, held it over him The spectacle which, the old couple presented there standing together was so touching and appealed so thoroughly to the good feelings of the crowd, because of the striking picture of Darby and Joan domesticity, that when a burly costermonger, who had been loudest in his catcalls and hooting of Mr. Gladstone up to that moment, suddenly shouted, "Three cheers for the grand old woman !" every one responded with a will. Lady Beaconsfield showed similar devotion to Gladstone's great rival on more than one occasion. She, too, was devoted to her husband, and many old parliamentarians recall the story of how after having had her hand terribly crushed in the carriage door while driving down to the house of parliament with Dismeli she refrained from uttering a cry or from saying a word about her injury lest his mind should be diverted from the great and important speech which he was to deliver that night. It was not until he reached home and found the doctor at her bedside that he was made aware that she had sus any hurt .- New York Herald.

Historic Desk.

The desk at which President McKinley has signed so many momentous dispatches during the past few months was a gift of Queen Victoria to a former occupant of the White House. It is made of tough British oak, taken from the remains of the ill fated ship Resolute, which went northward in 1852 in search of Sir John Franklin.

hat, and shakes them all up together a id swears they are the best people of the State, of course he is applauded.

But does the Populist of the black counties feel real comfortable when the funny Cyrns slaps him on the back, and tells him there is no such thing as "negro supremacy, it is a Democratic lie ?

Truly, what a sham it all is, and how can sensible white men be deceived by the political gyrations of such a set of leaders with the ungovernable Russell at their head ?

WILL WHITE MEN STAND THIS?

We ask the white people of the State, of westorn North Carolina specially, to think of the following, and say whether they will vote for a party who permits such an outrage. What we relate is a matter of record and can be easily verified.

The whole State is aware of the fact that Craven county has a so-called white man, a carpet-bagger, elected by the negrocs, as sheriff, named Joseph L. Hahn. Every deputy sheriff serving under him in the county is a burly negro. Every process or execution served from the sheriff's office is done by this sheriff or one of his negro deputies.

Some time ago it became necessary, under the laws of the State, to send a young white man, named R. L. Hanif, to the hospital in this city for the insanc. He is a young man of poor but very respectable family. Providence had afflicted him to that degree that the protection and care provided by the good people of the State were necessary in his behalf. He was ordered sent to the Raleigh asylum, and, was duly brought by A NEGRO DEPUTY, from New Berne to Raleigh, and delivered to Dr. Kirby. The name of the negro deputy is W. D. Pettifer, as appears upon the seconds of the saylum

This is a simple statement of the fact. It requires no embellishment. Now we ask every white voter this simple ques-tics have been described thus: "When there are a number of them they will start off in the morning and they win start of in the morning and after running a few hundred yards will stop, and with raised wings will whirl rapidly round till they are stapefied or perhaps break a leg. The males pose also before fighting and to make their court. They kneel on their ankies, coming their wings and below opening their wings and balancing themselves alternately forward and backward or to one side or the other, while the neck is stretched on a level with the back and the head strikes the ides, now on the right, now on the left, while the feathers are bristling. The bird appears at this time so absorbed in its occupation as to forget all that is going on around him and can be ap-proached and caught. The male alone utters a cry, which sounds much like an effort to speak with the mouth shut tight."

covery of the Rome of Buddha

Far away on the border of Nepal the home of Guatama Buddha has been discovered. Buddha lived about 500 B. C. and was the son of the rajah of Kapila-vastu. A pillar, inscribed by the Emperor Asoka in the third century B. C., arks the city's site. The ruins are all of brick and are covered with jungle and so extensive that their exploration will require years. The city was de-stroyed during Buddha's lifetime. It stroyed during boddna's frietime. It was a mass of ruins in A. D. 410, when the first Baddhist Chinese pilgrim made his way there. The buildings that are now being excavated are older than any-thing known in India beretofore.—Lon-don Letter.
