AUTUMN MERCHANDISE!

At Duffy's Store.

THERE'S A REASON

For our increased business, reason quite simple when you stop to think of it.

Always some kind of merchandise at a price lower than elsewhere. Many have discovered this.

We can no mores strongly emphasize this, than in saying, as a lot of merchandise comes to us at price lower than the market, so do we in turn, pass this merchandise to our trade. Price to the customer just in proportion as it was secured by us. Store now taking on Autumn appearance. New stuff daily.

Black Skirts.

A line of plain and figured Brilliant Skirts, plain and the new flounce effects, better made than usual, prices $2.00 to $4.75.

A special value in black brocade silk skirt, price $5.00.

Plaid Dress Goods.
A full line of bright plaids, in rich coloring, just the thing for waists and misses dresses, 28 inches, 12 1-2c.

Printed Flannelettes.
Three lines of these, every piece new and two of the kinds, slightly under the usual prices, 7c, 10c and 12 1-2c.

Made Sheets.

Sheets all ready for use, torn by hand and ironed, at the same price or less than the material by the yd.

JOHN DUNN,

33 POLLOCK STREET.

DEMOCRAT NOT NEEDED.

More Drunken Soldiers Trouble. Tax Returns. Convict Shirt Factory. Bagley Monument Fund.

JOURNAL BUREAU.
Raleigh, N. C., September 23.
Another provost-guard was drunk yesterday, and threatened to run the bayonet of his gun through some negroes if they did not get off the sidewalk. Mayor Russ had him up before the Mayor's court, and he sent to Colonel Burgwyne, and told him if he did not have the fellow court-martialed, he would put him on the roads for 30 days. The Colonel agreed to court-martial the man.

The executive committee of the penitentiary through recommendations of Superintendent Newborne discharged Mr. W. J. Bradshaw, the most competent official out there yesterday. He is a splendid railroad man, and has had charge of the convicts who worked on railroads. Mr. Bradshaw is a Democrat, so the executive committee decided not to have any more railroad work done, but to use the convicts on the farms. Then they dismissed the Democrat.

The Vanderbilt exhibit from Baltimore will again be an attraction at the State Fair.

In the tax returns which are coming in some interesting figures are shown as regards bicycles. Mecklenburg county leads with 6,061; Wayne next with 334; Cabarras, 208; Rowan, 143; Cumberland, 119; Randolph, 82; Duplin, 78; Caldwell, 59; Burke, 42; Davie, 33; Carteret, 29; Yadkin, 10; Cherokee, 2.

It has been decided by the penitentiary board of directors to establish a reformatory for youthful criminals. This reformatory will be established at the "Anson State Farm." Suitable buildings will be erected, for white and colored criminals, and the work for each regulated about the buildings and on the farm. This reformatory is for criminals under 16 years old. There are now about 50 of these young criminals.

There are now 68 convicts making shirts in the penitentiary shirt factory for a Northern firm. The monthly output is 2,400 dozen, which pays the State $100, or 35 cts. per dozen. Most of the shirt makers are federal prisoners.

The "Sons of the Revolution" will have a gavel made from a piece of the Spanish Cruiser "Maria Theresa." The wood came today.

The Bagley Monument Fund is now $2,588.20. Enthusiasm is dying out, and the fund will scarcely increase much more.

Emperor of China.

SHANGHAI, September 22.—A local rumor is current here to the effect that the Emperor of China is dead. No details are obtainable, but it is said the gates of Peking are closed.

PEKING, September 22.—An Imperial edict just issued definitely announces that the Emperor of China has resigned his power to the Empress (Dowager Empress) who has ordered the ministers to deliver to her in future their official reports.

It is difficult to obtain reliable information at the palace in regard to the proceeding, but the recent reformatory edicts probably caused the change.

While the Emperor was subservient and a mere figurehead, the Dowager Empress permitted him to remain in peace, but as soon as he attempted to act on his own initiative his practical deposition was the result. His principal adviser, Heng Yumoi, the Cantonese reformer, fled in spite of the vigorous attempts made to arrest him, and, it is said, is now on his way to Shanghai. The effect of the change must be great.

In all probability Li Hung Chang will be reinstated in power and Russian influence will increase. The hopes of reform so ardently cherished by the intelligent factions of the Chinese, are now impossible of fulfillment.

Matters at Havana.

HAVANA, September 22.—Relations between the American and Spanish evacuation commissioners, which were so strained recently that a break and an appeal to Washington seemed inevitable are much easier now, though still tense enough to be uncomfortable.

The relaxation is due in the first place to the receipt of the Spanish response to evacuation note. The American commission had determined to send a sharp second note on the next day if the response was still lacking.

The second thing lessening the strain was the receipt yesterday of a communication virtually granting the American demand for the landing of the relief supplies on the steamer Comal, though details of this are still to be arranged.

Spanish private soldiers, despairing of getting full pay here, are tired of Cuba and will be glad to return to their homes as soon as possible. Blanco himself is anxious to get back to Spain. He told a friend last week, that he "would like to get home this week, but I fear they will keep me here at least two months."

Change of Polling Places.

NORTH CAROLINA. Clerk's Office, GRAVEN COUNTY.
It is hereby ordered that the Polling place in Rocky Run Precinct be changed from Moses Bryan's farm to Smith's Academy, and that the Polling place at Loy's farm be changed from Melville's school house to the original Polling place known as Loy's Farm.

NO WHITEWASH.

The War Investigation Is To Be Very Thorough.

Distinction Between Needless and Necessary Suffering. The Cuba Occupation. Rough Riders Highly Praised. Civil Service Reformers Disgusted.

WASHINGTON, September 23.—If any person has an idea that the commission to investigate the conduct of the war, which will hold its first meeting tomorrow, is going to be a whitewashing affair, they would better get rid of it at once, if they wish to avoid disappointment. It is going to be a real investigation, and those who have anything to tell can do so with confidence that they will be protected from the wrath of officials against whom they testify by no less a person than the President of the United States. President McKinley is satisfied that there was mismanagement, perhaps worse, and he wishes it to be located and the guilty punished, regardless of their rank or personality. Every member of the commission has been personally informed of the President's wishes. There were doubtless occasions when the suffering of the soldiers was unavoidable a part of the unpreparedness of the country for war, but there were other occasions when there was suffering that could have been avoided had officials charged with certain duties properly performed them. The President wishes the line thoroughly drawn between the two classes of suffering. Mr. McKinley does not believe that Secretary Alger failed to perform his duty, or had knowledge of any wrong doing on the part of any of his subordinates.

The President and General Miles differ as to when our soldiers should be sent to Cuba. The President thinks they should start about the middle of October, while General Miles doesn't think it will be safe for the men's health to send them before December. The President's orders will, of course, be obeyed when it is issued. He is the Commander-in-Chief.

The civil service reformers are in a state of mind because Postmaster General Smith, and Assistant Secretary Webster Davis, of the Interior Department, have gone on the stump for their party. There is no law against a member of the Cabinet making stump speeches for his party, but during the two Cleveland administrations and that of Harrison it was not done, and the civil service reformers thought it would not again be done.

In view of the idea that the "Rough Riders" are tough, entertained in some quarters, the following from Rev. Henry A. Brown, who was their Chaplain, and who is to be appointed Chaplain in the regular army, is interesting: "They are diamonds in the rough. As brave as lions, fearless in the face of danger, but without gentlemen of the first water. They are not tough characters, as some people are led to believe, but on the contrary are constituted of the material from which honest, good-hearted men are made. As an evidence of their God-fearing disposition, I can say with pride that in Santiago I had larger congregations at my services than were at those held in any other regiment down there." Quite a number of the "Rough Riders" have been in Washington this week, and no soldiers have been made more of.

American Missionaries.

VANCOUVER, B. C. September 22.—Mail advices received here from the Orient state that British Consul Butler, at Klung Chow, has urged the American consul at Canton. Dr. Bellou, to ask the Viceroy to send soldiers to Nedla, near Holnow, to protect the lives and property of the American missionaries in that district.

Rev. Dr. P. W. McClintock and Rev. W. L. Lowerett, of the American Presbyterian Mission in the district of Hal-nan, were obliged to fly for their lives and seek the protection of the British consul at Holnow.

FRANCE IN DANGER.

Dreyfus Case May End in a Dictatorship.

PARIS, September 22.—The situation here is generally admitted to be grave by both press and people. The conflict between the civil and military authorities is becoming acute. The sudden and unexpected action of General Zurlinden, the military governor of Paris, in prosecuting Colonel Picquart on the charge of forgery and using forged documents—assumes a grave aspect on account of the circumstances attending this intervention of the military authorities in a civil court.

At the present moment when the political atmosphere is surcharged with dangerous electricity, generated by the Dreyfus affair, the general who has just quitted the cabinet in defiance of civil authority and without consulting his superior or the premier takes an important step.

In ordinary circumstances the military governor is empowered to act independently, but, now that the Dreyfus question has become a great national matter, every proceeding in the affair has state importance. General Zurlinden's ignoring of this obvious fact is very significant.

He comes forward as the defender of the army, the prosecutor of the supposed calumniators and the resolute opponent of a revision of the case.

From this to an appeal to the public in the line of the establishment of a dictatorship there is no wide step.
