COMES TO TERM.
Spain Yields to all Demands. Some Details Yet. The Issue in the Senate.
WASHINGTON, November 28.—It is all over now, except the Spanish weeping and wailing. That ultimatum, with a time limit attached, did the business. Spain has accepted our terms of peace and agreed to give up the Philippines and accept the money offered as a salve to its wounded honor. There are a number of details such as providing for a restoration of commercial relations between the United States and Spain, which will delay for a few days the completion and signing of the treaty, but the principal work of the Peace Commission has been accomplished, and Spain and the rest of the world, has been shown that when the United States adopts a position, it maintains it, regardless of semi-hostile attitudes taken by other nations. Neither American diplomacy nor American fighting are likely to be sneered at in any section of the world for many years to come. The United States has acquired a prestige among the great nations of the world that will make unborn generations of Americans proud to belong to the nation that has proved its right to be counted among the leaders, both in the accomplishments of peace and of war.
Many of the most careful observers of Senatorial sentiment are predicting that the anti-expansionists will be strong enough in talk, if not in votes, to prevent the ratification of the treaty of peace at the coming session of the Senate. While more than one third of the Senate would have to vote against the treaty to reject it, ten or twelve Senators can, if so minded, prevent a vote being taken on it, before the short session of Congress expires. It is to justify this sort of thing that the anti-expansionists are trying so hard just now to work up a public sentiment against the acquisition of the Philippines by the United States. It will be time wasted, even if the anti-expansionists succeed in preventing a vote at the short session. The Senate can be called in extra session, immediately after the expiration of this Congress, with the certainty that the treaty will be ratified.

RUSSELL'S FEARS.
Question Of Impeachment Being Discussed.
Causes for Impeaching a Governor. Criminal Statistics. Tax on Railroad Bond. Fine Specimen for Museum.
JOHN R. BERNARD.
Raleigh, N. C., November 28. }
A summary of the criminal statistics for the year ending June 30th has been made out by the Attorney General of North Carolina and is as follows: There were 9,739 actions, of which 5,015 against whites, 4,672 against negroes, and 49 against Indians, 9,011 were against males and 719 against females. There were 6,238 convictions, 1,595 acquittals and 1,794 cases were not pros. The percentage of white crime was not quite 92 per cent, that of negro crime a trifle over 48 per cent.
Impeachment is a word that just now is floating through the air with an interrogation point after it. "To be or not to be" impeached is a question that haunts Governor Russell waking and sleeping possibly. There are six causes in the Code for which a public officer may be impeached and they are as follows: 1st, Corruption or other misconduct in his official capacity. 2nd, Habitual drunkenness. 3rd, Intoxication while engaged in the exercise of his office. 4th, Drunkenness in any public place. 5th, Mental or physical incompetence. 6th, Any criminal conviction whereof would tend to bring his office into public contempt. It has generally been understood that only high crimes and misdemeanors of an officer made him liable to impeachment. Only once in the history of the State has the trial for impeachment been held. That was in the winter of 1870-71, when W. W. Holden, governor was impeached, removed from office and disqualified. The Senate is the impeachment court, with the Chief Justice of the State presiding over that body. The House of Representatives brings the charges for impeaching before the Senate. A committee is appointed from the House to conduct the matter before the Senate, and no other member of the House is present during the trial until the final vote is taken. The president of the Senate who is of course the Lieutenant Governor, does not preside, because he will become governor if the governor is impeached, and is therefore an interested party in the case.
The county commissioners have never come to any decision regarding the taxing of the bonds held by the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, but it will be decided at a called meeting to be held this week.
Governor Russell has asked that Captain Joseph B. Bachelor, Jr. be assigned to duty here. The War Department has given Captain Bachelor three months sick leave from active duty.
Colonel Carl A. Woodruff, U. S. A. who married Miss Effie Haywood of this city, has been sent to Cuba. Lieutenant Edward E. Gayle of Raleigh is also in Cuba. The wives of both of these officers will spend the winter here. Mrs. Gayle is a daughter of General Remy B. Ayers.
A fine specimen of Devil Fish has been received at the State Museum from Beaufort.

FUN MADE OF WILLIAM.
Paris Paper Suppressed Out of Respect to the Modern Crusader.
PARIS, November 27.—His German Majesty's crusade, personally conducted by Cook, has furnished the Petit Journal Pour Hite with a topic for its current edition.
The devoted William's tour is discussed so sanely that the German ambassador protested, and it is reported that the edition of the paper has been suppressed. This confiscation has created a hubbub in the press. The Libre Parole says it is disgusting to see the government trembling before the injunctions of the German ambassador, when the German newspapers do not miss an opportunity of insulting France and the army in caricatures, which are reproduced in the Dreyfus journals. One cannot get a copy of the Journal for love or money.
All the incidents of the Kaiser's journey are travestied with decided talent. An alleged allegorical picture of "Lohenrin Going to Receive the Kiss of Mahomet" is also included.
The last picture in the lot is "The Man and the Orchestra of the European Concert." It shows the Emperor drawing a sketch with his toes, while a sheet of hands radiating from him are playing a lyre, holding a speaking trumpet, gesticulating in oratory, flourishing a Bible, a sword, a cross, a pistol, a holy water sprinkler, a whip, the scales of justice and a frying pan. All the time a regiment in the background is doing a goose step. In other words, he does it all.

THE CITY CHARTER.
Considerable interest is felt in the probable action of the Legislature which convenes in January as to the charter of the city of Wilmington. In fact there is considerable talk of having a citizens' meeting to agree on what manner of charter is really wanted for the government of the city.
The general sentiment favors the charter in force under the Democratic regime, but it may be even desirable to have some slight changes in it, so a meeting to discuss this matter would be timely as well as a matter of good policy.
Whatever is done, the people of Wilmington demand the right to elect the members of the board of aldermen. Under the city charter imposed on us by the fusion legislature, the governor was given the right to appoint five aldermen, which practically disfranchised the voters of the city that it took away from them the right of electing their city government. No more of this kind of business will be tolerated.
Some citizens favor a provision in the charter making a number of the board ineligible to the mayoralty. This may or may not be desirable. It would take away the right of ten citizens to hold that office, but if the citizens of the city desire that, they should decide the matter for themselves.
In order that a charter satisfactory to our people shall be granted to our city, the idea that a meeting of the citizens to decide about what they want is a good one.—Wilmington Messenger, 27th.

The Norman Congressman.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—The fight against Representative-elect Roberts of Utah, is getting warm, and if it keeps up will almost certainly result in his losing his seat in the next House almost as soon as he takes it. Mr. Roberts is a polygamist, having some say one and some four wives, and those who are making the fight against him say that his election was put out as a feeler by the Normans, and that if he is allowed to retain his seat in Congress, the open practice of polygamy will again be common among the Normans. Senator Cannon, who is a Mormon, but who had but one wife, says polygamy had nothing whatever to do with the election of Roberts.

A STRANGE SALUTE.
Exchanged When Blanco Left Havana For Spain. The New Camp.
HAVANA, Cuba, Nov. 27.—General Blanco, who yesterday resigned his office to Gen. Jimenez Castellanos, left Havana for Spain, tonight on the transport Villaverde with his staff. Quarters in keeping with his dignity had been fitted up on the Villaverde for General Blanco. He left Havana in a quiet manner and assured his friends he would accept no demonstration upon his arrival in Spain. The Villaverde will make the voyage with the Montevidelo, which carries 2, 245 returning troops. Of these 600 are civil guards and 450 invalids.
General Wade, Admiral Sampson and General Greece, with their aides, paid an official call on General Blanco at the palace this morning, expressing their thanks to the late captain-general for the courtesies extended to them since their arrival.
Upon the arrival of the Topoka this morning the Scorpion proceeded to New York. The Topoka fired the national salute of twenty-one guns as soon as she passed Morro, which was answered from Cabanas.
A salute was then fired to Admiral Manterola's flag, which was answered. This has caused much comment. An American naval officer pointed out that Spain and United States were not yet at peace and that a salute under the circumstances was remarkable. Moreover, it is against the regulations to salute on Sunday.
The site proposed for the general camp of the United States troops, as approved by General Greene, extends from the road leading from Playa to Marianao, along the crest of the hill to the eastward. It is swept by sea breezes and is fully four miles from malarial swamps.
The hill is a limestone ridge, with natural drainage on either side. A huge encampment capable of accommodating 15,000 soldiers will be erected, with permanent barracks. The four companies of engineers which landed Friday will probably commence work Monday. The work of preparing the camp cannot be completed before January 1.
The Spanish evacuation commission expects that the evacuation of Havana will be accomplished by December 10, but this is generally believed to be impossible.

Another Tobacco Warehouse.
Such we hear whispered on the street, the movement is backed by two of our most enterprising, go ahead citizens, and when they so decide it will be built. One of the most eligible sites in town has been selected.
We understand further that Captain Ed. Pace will be connected with it, this will be gratifying news to the great army of tobacco raisers in Eastern Carolina. Captain Pace started this market and by his untiring energy and full knowledge of the weed, from the plant he be made it a success from the start. He is a fine judge of tobacco and is a hustler on the warehouse floor.—Wilson News, 27th.
