HOW LONG, CH. HOW LONG!

There is a certain political faction in New Berne and Craven County, long time opposed to Democratic rule, and lately opponents to the white supremacy movement, whom nothing seems to affect, and who continue to pursue a course which means their ultimate destruction.

On November 4th, the citizens of New Berne, in mass moothing, assembled, passed certain resolutions. Ou November Sth, the white peo ple carried North Carolina, and the movement had such impetus that while Craven County did not go Democratic, yet every opposent to white supremacy stood shaking, not knowing whether the lightning would strike this city as it had strock Wilmington. The lapse of thirty days seems to have changed the spirits of these people who quaked before the reso-Intune of November 4th and the vote of November 8th.

Where Masing Laundry Goes.

"Dishonest household servants cause the laundries no end of trouble," remarked an employee of a down town concern. "It's a common thirg for them to annex a few shirts or collars, and now and then a stray handkerebief from the supply of their employer, and when the sho discovered it is generally charged to the inundry. Lots of times we know perfectly well that the things claimed were new sent in but pay for them rather than have a row and lose a good customer. "A lady of this city lost soveral five lace handkerchiefs about a year ago and insisted that they were sent to the shop, but never returned. She was perfectly sincere, and the bill was paid. Last week the handkerchiefs turned up. They were sent in with a bundle of things from another part of the town, and when we came to race them we found they had passed brough four different bands. The original thief was a mulatto maidservant who had

The manager was about to hand over the value of the linen, when he happened to notice that the darky was wearing a very hand-some collar and told him to take it off. He protested vigorously, but it was socured and proved to be one of the lot. The rest were found in his trunk. "-New Orleans Times-Democrat.

It was a sample of innate politeness that tickled a crowded street car load of pas-and the fire of the highlanders rang out sudden, and sharp. A few horses and men came tumbling down, and the Russian cavalry wheeled instantly to the left, threatening the right flank of the highlanders. Campbell, a cool and keen soldier, saw the skill of this movement. "Shadwell," he said, turning to his aid-de-camp, "that man understands his business." So, too, did Campbell, who instantly deflected his line so as to protect his right, and met the advance with a destructive volley, before which the Russian borsemen at once fell back -- Obrubill Magazine

Rained by Mules.

M. P. Le Grand, an Alabama farmer. says that many negroes in the south are ruined by mules, and he thinks he has proved it. He owns a great deal of farm land, which he rents to negroes on condition that they shall do their work with an ox instead of a mule As a result, all his tenants are prosperous and pay their rent promptly. The ox he er plains, is entirely capable in all the requirements of the cotton patch, but he has his limitations, and his colored master does not think of mounting him and riding off on useless errauds or pleasure trips.
