GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

Discusses the Wilson's Hertford County Bill Passed.

To Make Lawyers Honest. Craven County Bills in the House. Smith Votes With the Democrats and Introduces a Resolution For Congress.

JOURNAL MESSAGE. Raleigh, N. C., January 18.—Instead of the message from the Governor in regard to the Wilson's Railroad Commissioners case being an chief interest yesterday, the Legislature, it turned out to be the other way.

The bill was upon its final passage in the House and caused much debate. It was looked upon as a precedent that might be followed by the other eastern counties. The added commissioners would be in a majority to pass upon the bonds of county officers. Nearly all the Republicans explained their votes and after the bill was put to a vote and passed, they signed a written protest which they asked to have spread on the minutes. It was referred to committee on rules. One Democrat, McNeill of Brunswick voted against the bill and asked leave to explain, which he did on the ground of economy. Brunswick is now under fusion rule. Isaac Smith of Craven voted with the Democrats and gave his reasons in a speech which as usual diverted the House. He took the opportunity of again stirring up some of the Republicans who put him out of their caucus.

The Governor sent in his Wilson message early and it was read in the Senate. Only one copy was sent of the message and the Governor's secretary waited in the Senate until it was read and then by permission carried it to the House. The message was considered a repetition of what Russell had already said in the case, but it was good reading never-the-less and the account of the running of the Round Knob eating house by the Wilson's was amusing. S. Otho Wilson came into the House and heard the message read.

Craig introduced a resolution raising a joint committee of 5 to take into consideration the message of the Governor as to the Wilsons (railway commission), investigate it thoroughly and have power to send for persons and papers. The resolution was adopted.

A bill introduced in the Senate by Lowe is entitled a bill "to prevent injustice and imposition on clients by attorneys." It should be called "a bill to make all lawyers honest." It is a ridiculous example of what some people expect to do by law. An examination of its first section shows the nature of the bill.

1. That it shall be unlawful for any attorney at law, who has been employed by anyone as counsel and received a fee or compensation as such to conspire with any attorney employed by the opposing party or any suit at law in the courts of this State to misuse his fee or compensation or that of said opposing counsel and thereby damage the interest of his client.

The four bills relating to Craven county which were introduced in the Senate by Senator Bryan, reached the House yesterday and will be put upon their passage in their regular order.

Smith, of Craven, introduced a resolution asking Congress to repay to the negro depositors of the Freedman's Savings Bank, an institution chartered by Congress, the money of which they were robbed by its collapse.

Some forty new bills were introduced in the House yesterday. Among these were, to amend the Insurance law and enable North Carolina manufacturers to obtain a minimum rate of insurance, to change the time of holding certain courts in Greens county, to regulate the working of counties and establish county farms, to establish a State text book commission, in relation to the monument to General Francis Nash and General Davidson, to abolish all exemptions from jury service, to incorporate the Citizens Bank of Elizabeth City, to regulate the appointment of school funds.

The expense bill to the State growing out of the troubles at Wilmington are about all in and foot up $2,100.

The joint caucus held last night decided that there will be no new Superior Court districts created and the two original court districts will be reorganized. Judge Connor spoke against the proposed increase. The final decision was to refer the question back to the committee, but it is understood that this virtually instructs the committee what to do.

The funeral of William R. Tucker takes place from Christ Church this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The loss to the city by his death is great and he is sincerely mourned. He was a director in three railroads, and in a number of institutions of various kinds. The services will be conducted by Rev. M. M. Marshall, pastor of Christ Church.

A FAILURE FOR QUAY.

He Lacks 16 Votes On The First Ballot In The Senatorial Contest. Election In Several States.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 17.—The end of the first day's fight here in the battle for United States Senator leaves the result greatly in doubt.

It is Senator Quay against the field, and the indications are that there will be a deadlock lasting some days at least. The republicans are divided between Mr. Quay and eight "favorite sons" and the democrats are nearly all united on Geo. A. Jenks.

Senator Quay's total strength in both houses was 112 votes, sixteen less than the number necessary to elect on joint ballot, assuming that the full membership of 254 is present, a condition that does not seem possible, as there are several on the sick list now.

The result of the ballot in the Senate was: M. S. Quay, 37; George A. Jenks, 18; John Dalsell, 3; E. A. Irwin, 1; George A. Huff, 1; Charles E. Smith, 1; C. W. Stone, 1.

In the House the result was as follows: M. S. Quay, 55; George A. Jenks, 70; C. W. Stone, 9; John Dalsell, 13; scattering, 23.

DOVER DEL., Jan. —The senatorial fight in this State was officially opened today by both houses of the General Assembly taking one ballot, which resulted in no election and created a deadlock.

The result was as follows: In the House Senator George Gray received 8 votes; J. Edward Addicks, 11; Col. Henry A. Dupont, 9; John G. Gray and Congressman L. Irving Handy, each 2.

The Senate vote was: Senator Gray, 7; Addicks, 4; Dupont, 1; W. S. Hiles, 2, and John G. Gray and Congressman Handy, 1 each.
