VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

Mark The Man!

ED. JOURNAL.—White men, remember the name John L. Currie, member of the legislature from Moore county, in this the Third Congressional District who so far forgot his white manhood as to vote against the suffrage amendment, which was passed by the patriotic white men in the General Assembly who were true to the trust reposed in them by the white manhood and womanhood of North Carolina. Tabulate the name of John L. Currie, of Moore county on your memories and teach it to your children.

PECULIAR POISONS.

GENERATED IN THE HUMAN BODY.

The Result of Imperfect Digestion of Food.

Every living thing, plant or animal, contains within itself the germs of certain decay and death.

In the human body these germs of death (called by scientists Putrefaction) are usually the result of imperfect digestion of food; the result of indigestion or dyspepsia.

The stomach, from abuse, weakens, does not promptly and thoroughly digest the food. The result is a heavy, sodden mass which ferments (the first process of decay) poisoning the blood, making it thin, weak and lacking in red corpuscles; poisoning the brain causing headaches, pain in the eyes.

Bad digestion weakens the heart, causing palpitation and bringing on disease of this very important organ.

Poor digestion poisons the kidneys, causing bright's disease and diabetes.

And this is so because every organ, every nerve depends upon the stomach alone for nourishment and renewal, and weak digestion shows itself not only in loss of appetite and flesh, but in weak nerves and muddy complexion.

The great English scientist, Huxley, said the best start in life is a sound stomach. Weak stomachs fail to digest food properly, because they lack the proper quantity of digestive acids (lactic and hydrochloric) and pepticogen (products) the most sensible remedy in all cases of indigestion, is to take after each meal one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because they supply in a pleasant, harmless form all the elements that weak stomachs lack.

The regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

They increase flesh, insure pure blood, strengthen nerves, brighten eyes and clear complexion, because all these result only from wholesome food well digested.

Nearly all druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50 cents full sized packages or by enclosing price to Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., but ask your druggist first. A little book on stomach diseases mailed free. Address Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

A CAMPAIGN ECHO

When the Suffrage Bill Passed the House.

A Scene of Excitement. New Bills Introduced. Norwood and Day Out. New Bern Charter. Personal.

JOURNAL BUREAU, RALEIGH, N. C., February 19.

It was like an echo of the last campaign in the House yesterday. The constitutional amendment was voted on and passed by the two fifths vote and if it passed the Senate the people will vote on the question in 1900.

A change in the organic law of the State is certainly the most important question to be considered by a legislature. The deepest interest was manifested in the occasion. The House floor was filled with Senators and prominent men, Chairman Simmons was an interested listener. The galleries were filled, more than sixty ladies among the number. The part reserved for negroes was filled with the colored race.

Rosentre of Wilmington explained the bill at great length and presented the views of the committee. He quoted opinions from the United States Supreme court on the Mississippi law and from the Supreme Court of Massachusetts and in conclusion declared that the amendment was entirely compatible with the Federal constitution. In conclusion he was liberally applauded.

Three of the colored members spoke against the bill. Smith of Craven spoke at considerable length but received attention which was at least part due to the laughable character of his remarks. He worked in some history about Parris and quoted some poetry to embellish his conclusion. Several white Republicans also spoke against the amendment.

Winston of Bertie closed the remarks and called the previous question which brought the matter to vote. He said that he understood that there were white men here representing white people who hesitated to vote for this bill. He declared it was a time to sink the conscience in the public good. He made a powerful appeal in support of the ancestral feature of the bill. He said that in future years men in North Carolina would be proud that they were the descendants of the men who in this legislature had dared to vote for this bill. He said in the name of the women of North Carolina (tremendous applause) he bade these doubting white men rise to the height of their own manhood.

Then the voting began on the second reading of the bill. Many members in addition to the clerks were keeping score. It was an anxious time, for although the party managers felt sure of where they stood, something might happen, and as the doubtful ones voted "aye" applause rang through the hall, not until "W" was reached was there a two fifths majority and then there was great applause and when the final vote of 79 to 29 was announced, a great shout went up, and for a moment the House resembled a political convention.

As the vote proceeded many members voting "no" gave their reasons, most of them declared that they had "no apology to offer" and their explanations were various, chiefly of the Democrats that they had pledged themselves on the campaign not to vote for a limitation of the suffrage. The Democrats voting no, were Barnhill, Currie, Curtis, McNeill and Reinhardt. The Fusionists voting with the Democrats were Crumpler, Johnson, McIntosh, and Tarleton. Twelve members were absent or refused to vote.

The amendment bill will now go to the Senate. It will have another vote there than in the House. It is even predicted that not over four votes will be cast against it. The vote will probably take place by Monday or Tuesday.

Some new bills were introduced yesterday, to give livery men a lien on horses and mules, to make it a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $50 to work on Sunday, to regulate accident insurance companies, to appoint Justices of the Peace for Wilmington. The bill regarding the fishing in the Neuse river with Dutch nets was recalled before being ratified, to be reconsidered.

A special bill was pushed through to allow the sheriff to serve summons in quo warranto by leaving it at the residence or place of business in the absence of the defendant. This was to get at Capt. Day as it was the last day on which summons could be served on him. He was out of the city, why no one was sure, perhaps to avoid this very thing. At any rate the bill went rattling through and was made a law. However, Capt. Day turned up smiling in the afternoon and all the labor might have been saved. Afterwards there were some hot words exchanged and Day ceased to smile. He is a man who can talk sharply and say bitter things, but he has a match in the legislature and will soon cease to count as anybody in legislative matters. He has signed a formal agreement to turn over the penitentiary next Monday.

The committee on education made their report nominating the trustees of the University. The election will be held next Tuesday.

Considerable opposition to the anti-trust bill has developed in the Senate. It may get a knock out blow there, since

SUFFRAGE BILL PASSED

Senate By Vote of 43 to 6. Great Enthusiasm. Senator Bryan Able to Go Out.

Special to Journal. RALEIGH, February 19.—The amendment to the Suffrage bill passed the Senate, today, by a vote of 43 to 6, amid great enthusiasm.

Glenn and others made eloquent speeches. Senator James A. Bryan was able to be in his seat and vote. The opponents of the bill all made speeches. There was a great crowd present applauding and cheering as the vote was being cast, over one hundred ladies being in the gallery.

The Separate Cars bill (Jim Crow) is set for Tuesday, and State Guard bill, for Wednesday. It is decided to give the State Public Printing to the lowest bidder in the State. The Charlotte Dispensary bill passed the House.
