

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinal laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from aenna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only.

A Treat Promised.

O. W. Heywood, the advance manager of the Prince of Comedians Alha Heywood and his peerless company in of the city trying to place his attraction for one night, April 11th.

If arrangements are made it will be the event of the season as the company will be the strongest by far that has appeared here this season. Mr. Alha Heywood is on the order of Sol Smith Russ self having appeared in Mr. Russell's famous play "Edgewood Folks" with great success and he took Mr. Russell's place with the famous "Berger Family" which Mr. Russell used to travel with. There are other very noted people in the company.

There will be an effort among the leading citizens Monday to secure this company by getting up a subscription for enough seats to secure them.

A Social Entertainment.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Pelletier entertained at their home Miss Margaret D. Smith of Wilmington, N. C., Miss Carmalt, of New York, and Misses Lullie Ives, Stella Roberts, Louise Denison, Helen and Besale Leyborn, Mr. and Mrs. Franc H. Jones, and Messrs. Jones, D P Foy, T C Daniels, H Marks, S H Eaton, S M Binson, P S Cox and R A Nunn.

The evening was pleasantly spent in playing games, singing and listening to instrumental music after which refreshments were served. Miss Carmalt sang a group of catchy songs playing her own accompaniment. Miss Roberts also sang two or three songs which were very much enjoyed. Miss Helen Leyborn played one or two selections upon the piano. The occasion was one of the most enjoyable entertainments of the season.

THE NEW BERN MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY OF THIS CITY IS A STRICTLY HOME ENTERPRISE.

The New Bern Mutual Fire Insurance Company of this city is a strictly home enterprise.

Its officers, directors, stockholders and management are home people.

When this enterprise, a Home Fire Insurance company was proposed, when it was shown that many thousands of dollars were being annually sent away from New Bern, which ought to be kept here, and that this city ought to liberally support such a local company, there were many feared who its success led there were those who had confidence and money to go into it, and the company was organized upon a strictly home enterprise basis, less than two years ago.

At the annual meeting of the directors of the company on January 18th, 1899, a 20 per cent. cash dividend was declared payable to policy holders on all policies which matured prior to January 1st, 1898.

And on all policies maturing between January 1st, 1899 and July 1st, 1899, a scrip dividend of 20 per cent. was issued, this scrip being receivable in payment of renewals of premiums, or in cash at expiration of such policies.

That the New Bern Mutual Company has made such a notable exhibit, is a matter of congratulation to its management, and further it goes to prove the benefits accruing from well conducted home enterprises and their value to the community in which they are established.

If you have a cough, throat irritation, weak lungs, pain in the chest, difficult breathing, croup or hoarseness, let us suggest One Minute Cough Cure. Always reliable and safe. F S Duffy.

Personal of Capt. Phillips.

The following obituary regarding Capt. M. L. Phillips, late of the Outer Bowtell, who died in this city, is from the New York Herald and will be of interest to those who knew the Captain:

"Jefferson M. Levy, Representative in Congress and owner of Jefferson's Home, Monticello, received a telegram, yesterday telling of the death in the morning of his only cousin, Captain Morton Levy Phillips, of the United States revenue marine service. Captain Phillips died on board the revenue cutter Bowtell, of which he was commander. His death was caused by the grip, which he contracted while on a visit to Representatives Levy in this city during a brief sojourn here."

Captain Phillips came from an old colonial family which settled in New York in 1650. His great-grandfather was Benjamin Levy, a signer of the Non Importation act. His grandfather was with Colonel Linton's Pennsylvania troops in the Revolution. Captain Phillips was a son of Morton Phillips Levy, one of eleven brothers, all of whom served in the United States army, or navy from 1812 on. One of these brothers, Commodore Ulrich P. Levy, abolished whipping in the navy.

Captain Phillips was born in New Orleans in 1838. When a lad he ran away from home, and secretly joined one of the ships under command of his uncle, Commodore Levy. To conceal his identity he took the name Phillips. When his uncle discovered him he had him appointed to the revenue marine service, and as the navy rolls had his name Phillips he found it necessary to retain it.

He served with distinction during the civil war in the patrol of the Potomac River, when revenue cutters acted as gunboats. More recently he commanded the Dexter, at Newport, for three years, then was assigned to the North Pacific, watching sealers. He leaves a widow, two daughters and a son. His family lives in Portland, Me.

PHILLIPS—March 12, 1899, at New Bern, N. C., Captain Morton Levy Phillips, United States Revenue Marine service, interment at Woodlawn Cemetery, Wednesday morning, March 15th. Funeral train on Harlem Railroad from 4th st. at 9:30 a m. Relatives and friends and United States Revenue Marine and Naval Service are invited to attend.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

Worthy of His Hire.

ED. JOURNAL— I am not desirous of "rushing into print" but it seems to me that a few words on the question of this street labor would be timely.

It is assumed that the city administration has the right to employ white labor on the streets, certainly that is one of the issues that they went in on, and if any one has forgotten the speeches and the resolutions adopted during the late campaign, they can be referred to the files of our daily paper, as I know they were printed at the time and the employment of white labor where possible was demanded by the unanimous voice of the tax paying part of this community.

The question then only remains, since white labor is being employed, whether such labor shall be paid living wages. To employ white labor and then pay such labor on the basis of negro labor would be the action of infamous men and the administration would be entitled to no respect, and certainly would not get it from the laboring class of the city. It is a fact that cannot be denied that 60 cents to a negro goes as far towards supplying his needs as $1.00 to a white man. He eats and requires different food and lives in a cheaper dwelling. The negro usually does or can wear clothes that are given to him or purchased second hand at a very low price.

For my part I want to see the white laborer preserve his manhood and if necessary I will be taxed to help pay him. If he has children he must be able to clothe them sufficiently to send them to Sunday school and they will not go in rags. They must have sufficient plain and nourishing food. And when the father buys a new coat, I want to see him go to Mr. Duffy's or Mr. Baxter's store or some other, and buy a coat that no one has worn before him. If he can do this on even one dollar a day he will have to figure well, and to pay him less will be to reduce his white manhood and starve his children.

If there is any one who wishes to take back what was said to the resolutions adopted at the court house last November, I want to hear from him, and if he does not go back on that declaration and wants white labor employed on the basis of the negro labor, I would like to hear from him also, and would like to see him for some office in order to be able to show how much we don't love him. INCURABLE DISEASES.

Many diseases considered incurable are curable under other names. Simple catarrh in the head is called hemorrhoids. Consumption is merely a search of the lungs, and the victim is, no doubt, past help in the more advanced stages; but great numbers of people die of consumption needlessly. It is certain that every phase of catarrh, including many cases of consumption, are cured by the right treatment. Pe-ru-na, Dr. Hartman's great prescription, attacks catarrhal diseases scientifically and fully in his books which are mailed on application. There is a letter from Mrs. Harmsening, Miss Manly, Wis., who is one of many cured of consumption by Pe-ru-na, she says:

Pe-ru-na Medicine Co., Columbus, O. Dear Sirs:— I cannot praise your remedy too highly. Last winter I had a gripe and hemorrhage of the lungs followed. All the doctors around here told me I had to die of consumption. Then I thought I would ask Dr. Hartman for advice, which I did. He prescribed Pe-ru-na for me, and I took it according to his directions and was cured. I advise everybody that is troubled with lung disease to take Dr. Hartman's treatment. I am sure they will not regret it if they do. I am now enjoying good health, and can thank Pe-ru-na for it."
