JUSTICE IN ETHIOPIA

THE HORROR BY WHICH AN ASSASSIN WAS TRACKED.

The French Consul at Addis Ababa, the Abyssinian Consulate-General, has been the recipient of a letter from a young boy, whom he put into a certain condition of commiseration.

The boy, who is named Menelek, is the son of a man who was killed by the assassin of the French Consul. Menelek was found by the French Consul and taken to the consulate. He was found in a state of great distress and was unable to speak.

Menelek was taken to the consulate and was found in a state of great distress. He was unable to speak and was found in a state of great distress. He was unable to speak and was found in a state of great distress.
