CAN THOSTS DE RESTRAÍNEDE

The constant newspaper war on the subject of Trusts, and Combines of manufacturers, which has been and is being waged, seems to be unavailing, and this is not surprising when there are so many defects in the laws, which permit these organizations to come into exist-known article of manufacture, keep King's New Discovery for Consus coming into existence, very many of had completely cured her of a backing them in direct evasion of State and cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doc national statues, and as yet legislative and press thun ler and invective do not of this Royal Cure-"It soon removed

Price 50c and order to stop the vast accomulated wealth $1 00. Trial bottles free at F S Duffy's real and fictitious, which goes tuto eac :

Shall there be an open door policy adopted by this country, the doing away with tariff for protection, and a cessation of the protection which the tariff bas given to the infant and all industries in the United States?

Or shall the restraint of Trusts be found in a better method of taxation?

It is an old story, the shirking of taxes by corporations or individuals, who havaccumulated wealth. There is a widespread demand that inheritances, corporations and franchises which represent wealth be taxed in proportion to the amount of their accumulations, for it is a well known fact that these do not at present furnish their proper share of the Trusts can be met, and if not actually restrained and successfully combatted, yet be made to pay taxes which shall not only keep them within reasonable bounds but also farnish relief to the tax payers who are now-compelled to pay the full amount upon what they possens, taxes vastly out of proportion in comparison to the amounts paid in taxes by those who possess accumulated wealth.

If the Trusts can be made to pay their just taxes, there will be less desire for their formation, and most important there will be an increase in the revenues State and National, which will make the burden much less severe upon those in moderate circumstances and who today pay the greatest part, proportionately, of the taxes that are collected each year.

Rabbed the Grave.

A Starting incident of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is navrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost gellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—granually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians weaker day by day. Three physicians and given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement, I continued their use for three weeks, and am first time with two columns blank, the now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cts. per bottle at F. S. Duffy's Drug Store.

A Queer Examination.
Difficulties of the civil service exami nations are multiplied tenfold in the requirements set down by law of appli-cants for positions in the mail service in the first place an applicant most have strength and courage. To acquire these he goes through a very queer method of training. He wanders through montains and valleys forests and cares. The exact time to be excupied in a trip is fixed by law, and a heavy fine a trip is fixed by law, and a heavy the imposed for unnecessary delay. He must repeat these trips at night, and if he listens to the bad spirits and there-by fails to appear at the required time at a certain place he is sure to lose his rights to a position.

This is not all He is obliged to carry an enormous weight for many miles and return with it within a given time No allowance is made for his hability to defend himself against thieves and highwaymen, his road assally leading through a district thick with bandits in training the candidate eats very little—though he is used to this—and he tries every straining exercise. Then comes his real examination under the direction of government officials. He is taken into a long room, where, suspended from a high beam with strong opes, are very benyy sacks filled with

The candidate must give a swinging motion to all these sacks and then run to and fro between them, carefully guarding against a blow by one of the Still more curious was the announcement of a paper which came out for the first time with two columns blank, the editor making the bold announcement that "a large quantity of exceedingly interesting matter has been left out for want of space.

When the native editor wants a holiday, he suspends publication until it is convenient to resume, and taking his readers into his confidence informs them plainly why the paper was not is sued on the expected dates.
