TRENTON NEWS.

University Freshmen Engage Two of the Valued Prizes.

CHAPLAIN, N. C., April 17.—The annual debaters and declaimers' contest in the two literary societies at the University held Friday evening proved to be one of the most interesting events of the season in society life. The debaters' medal in the Phi Society was awarded to Mr. R. D. W. Connor, of Wilson, a member of the present senior class. The declaimers' medal in the Phi Society went to Mr. W. P. Jacobs, of Windsor, while in the Di Society Mr. R. R. Williams, of Newton, was awarded the decision of the committee. Both the last named gentlemen are members of the freshman class, which speaks well for the interest and zeal shown in literary society work by the new men. The contests in both societies were of a high order, as is evidenced by the large number of competitors in each contest.

News Notes.

Mr. Andrew Carnegie has donated $1,000 to the travelling library of the Seaboard Air Line.

The cruiser Raleigh will go to Wilmington, N. C., within a short time. From there she will go to Charleston, S. C.

If it is the purpose of naval officers, as intimated, to present the city of Raleigh with a captured Spanish cannon brought over by the cruiser Raleigh, it must be in the nature of a loan, as it would require congressional action to make a gift of the piece.

About twenty of Quay's supporters have deserted him and the prospects of electing a senator are bright.

The R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company has decided to build one or more large factories at Winston, N. C., and to increase the output of manufactured tobacco $25,000,000 annually.

The Trinity College baseball team has returned from a successful trip through Georgia. The team played six games at which they lost only one.

Clément Manly, referee in the North State Improvement case, has heard argument in the final hearing before him to the North State Improvement case. The object of the hearing is to decide upon a division of the funds received from the sale of the Cape Fear railroad and other property owned by the company. The referee's decision will be announced in a few weeks.

Improvements Owing On. The Journal Man, Ferrisburgh, Etc.

April 17th.

Still very cold weather, we had a drive with the frost in the dry places around here last night.

Never before have our farmers been so busy with their farm work as they are this spring.

The truckers around here are contemplating of seed sowing in the ground, beans have been badly damaged by the late frost.

Miss Henrietta Jarman, of Jacksonville, Onslow Co., is visiting Miss Lina Ward of this place.

Miss Gertrude Hill of Morehead City was visiting friends and relatives here last week, she left for home this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Haywood of Wilmington are visiting their mother of this place, Mrs. Edith Haywood. We are glad to have our friend Haywood among us again.

Mr. John Pierce is quite sick & has been so for about a week. We hear she is gradually improving and we hope to soon see her out again.

Our fat man like is one of our progressive neighbors who is ever on the improvement plan, he is now having a very nice picket fence put around his yard, which will add very much to the appearance of his very nice residence.

Misses Birdie Koonce and Lizzie Baker of Trenton were visiting friends and relatives in this place last week.

Deputy sheriff Paul Koonce is hustling around among the delinquent tax payers trying to collect, but says he is having more trouble in Pollockville township than all the others put together.

We hear that the wedding bells will begin ringing a little earlier this spring than last, they will begin in May this time but we are not sure how many times they will ring that month but surely one.

Mrs. W. J. Kilpatrick and daughter, Miss Nettie, who have been visiting her daughter, Mrs. T. B. Bender, of this place left for their home in Pitt county this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Corbin of Baltimore are visiting Mrs. Lillie Bell and family. We are glad to have them again with us.

Mr. J. H. Bell has moved in his new house just across the bridge. He has the prettiest and most convenient country residence that we have ever seen in Eastern Carolina, it is elegantly finished with the latest style furniture, everything is in perfect harmony.

Mr. Hugh Cummings of Kinston has done some of the finest grain work in some of the residences of this place we ever saw, he is now doing some papering of rooms. He it was who did the painting for the Bell residence which is second to none.

Mrs. Martha Brinkley is having quite a change made in her residence on Main street. When finished it will be one of the handsomest residences in town. Mr. John L. Henderson of Jacksonville is doing the work. It seems that a spirit of improvement has struck this town a pretty generally.

Capt. W. H. Willis of Wards Mill, N. C., the man who moves houses, walls, springs and says he can straighten Trent river, is here moving houses and doing a general repair work to all bad buildings such as jacking up and underpinning warehouses and wharfs. He has completed a job of pulling a store out of Trent river for J. H. Bell.

Now in conclusion we would like to inform the public that Julian B. Bealer of Pollockville will take their subscriptions for the Daily or Semi-Weekly JOURNAL and guarantee that you will get the worth of your money in paper alone say nothing of the valuable reading.

TRAGEDY IN PORTSMOUTH.

Robt. E. Shaw Killed by Constable James Hutchins.

NORFOLK, Va., April 17.—Robert E. Shaw was shot yesterday in Portsmouth by County Constable James Hutchins. The former, whose neck scarf was perforated by the shot which entered his breast, walked two blocks and then fell dead.

Shaw, who has a wife and five children residing in Portsmouth, was employed as a clerk in the Seaboard Air Line office. He came originally from Littleton, N. C., where his family connections are said to be excellent; but from these he is reported to have been for some time estranged.

The tragedy yesterday is said to have been caused by Shaw's persistently visiting Mrs. Hutchins, who is believed to have been indiscreet. Shaw, it appears, had been forbidden by Hutchins to visit her and was met yesterday afternoon by her husband as he (Shaw) emerged from the house. The killing followed. Hutchins, who gave himself up to Justice Atsworth, is in custody.

He made a statement this evening. He says that he, upon approaching his home heard his wife say "My God, there is Jim Hutchins" and upon Shaw emerging from the house, which he had been warned by the husband not to enter again shot him. Mrs. Jones, colored, in front of whose house Shaw died, says that Mrs. Hutchins approached and levied an endorsement upon the dying man and that her husband ordered her to desert or he would shoot her. Shaw is a son of the proprietor of Shaw's Springs, North Carolina.

The father came for his son's body and will convey it home for burial. The coroner's jury will this evening and Hutchins will be held by the sheriff.
