WARNING TO FARMERS

Attention of Whom You Ship Potatoes to all the North.

Florence, N. C., May 10. A word of warning to the farmers of Eastern North Carolina and elsewhere. In the season is drawing near for the farmers to commence shipping their potatoes and other produce to the north...

Last year there was one of those kind of commission merchants represented in this county (Pamlico) to my certain knowledge that had no place of business.

I visited the city and place that he claimed to be, last December and found that he had no place of business.

I think that the farmers in this county lost last year $5000.00 by sending their produce to unreliable men to sell for them.

There is a man in Boston, Mass., that claims to be a commission merchant that has no place of business. He has a cellar rented a room about 15 feet square. I went down in it last December and was informed by a reliable person that this so called commission merchant had judgments hanging over him and the officers could not find any property belonging to him to attach and that man had two agents in this county representing him last year and will probably have as many or more to represent him this year and some of our farmers will probably ship to him this year to their sorrow.

There are good reliable commission merchants in Boston that would treat their shippers all right. The firm of Messrs. Seaverns & Co., 93 and 95 South Market street and 66 Commerce street, Boston, Mass., is as good a house to ship to as I have ever shipped to, I am personally acquainted with them and have been shipping to them for twenty-three years and have realized better prices from them than any other commission merchants that I have shipped to.

They deal honest and fair with their patrons and are very good salesmen. Any person wishing to ship to them it they will write to the firm and ask for stencil and cards they will be sent to them.

I have been shipping potatoes for the last twenty-five years and have found Boston to be the best market to ship them to.

Yours, etc., W. H. SAWYER.

Dove's Dealings.

Dove, May 10.

Near 400 baskets of peas were shipped from here yesterday, and a large quantity today.

We were shown a nice size Irish potato yesterday coming from Mr. W. A. Wilson's patch. Our farmers will soon be shipping them.

A negro laborer was severely hurt Tuesday night at the Goldsboro Lumber Co.'s saw mill. It seems that he was managing the cut off saw and the slab bearer pushed them down too fast and the saw became entangled and broke throwing a piece against the negro striking him between the neck and shoulder inflicting a terrible gash. Dr. Bonner dressed the wound.

Mr. Joseph Kinsey and wife were in town a short while Sunday.

Judge Kornegay held court most of yesterday afternoon. Two colored damages around on Huckleberry avenue became a little boisterous on Sunday morning and were arraigned before his honor. The squire sits with a great deal of grace and dignity, but gets off a little when he hears of such decisions as relating to the A. & N. C. R. H. yesterday.

Our town continues to improve. New buildings going up, streets being improved, people moving in, factories rushed with orders, saw mills working steadily, all going to show we are a bustling set of people and will soon have one of the liveliest towns on the A. & N. C. We have 3 churches, services in each regularly; 3 live Sunday schools, prayer meeting twice a week.

Miss Maud Arnold returned home yesterday from a visit in the Port Barnwell section.

Miss Meta Onlaw is right sick. We hope though she will be out soon.

Mr. Hampton West from Cross is in town trading today. Our merchants carry well selected stocks and are drawing customers a good long distance.

TRUCK CROPS FINE

And Chicken Crop Large In Jones County. Fruit Source. Big Tobacco Crop. Potatoes.

Trenton May 10th 1899.

There will be a Sunday Fch of picnic at Trenton on Friday next 12th May. All denominations have joined together and a real nice time is anticipated.

Cabbages are plentiful around here and they are real nice, selling at five cents per head.

L. A. Haywood Esq., has five acres planted in Irish potatoes which are really fine and promise a heavy yield. T. C. Whitaker we learn has 2 acres equally as good as Mr. Haywood's while Benjamin Erwin, C. C. Henderson and many others around here have real fine potatoes.

At Olters we learn that J. J. Simmons Benj. Henderson and many others there have real magnificent crops of potatoes. Our market was well supplied with fine May shad on Monday morning last, many were the enquiries when were the nets set, was it Sunday evening or Monday morning after midnight? But we are inclined to believe that the majority concluded that it was Monday after midnight as they were charitably inclined to believe that our fishermen had too much respect for the Sabbath to violate it notwithstanding there was a real storm of wind and rain on Monday morning. Charity it is said covers a multitude of sins.

The crop of Spring chickens we learn will be unusually large this season, so will Irish potatoes. With chickens, potatoes and cabbage, where is any that fears starvation, only one and he says that he will live until he dies if he perishes to death.

Mr. A. C. Bart is repairing Mrs. Sally Brown's dwellings. Mr. Frank Barnes is painting the Disciples new church here which when completed will be quite an ornament to our town.

Fruits and berries will be unusually scarce this season what few that escaped the cold snaps are now dropping off.

Honors are crowding on our worthy citizen, Lou Taylor, elected mayor of Trenton, then appointed magistrate. He has the vim and energy sufficient to discharge every duty that may come before him.

The tobacco crop will be large this year in Jones county. If the tobacco crop continues to increase would it not be advisable for our merchants and money men here to go to work and put up a tobacco warehouse here. Our lands here are nearly all adapted to tobacco and will eventually draw all our farmers in the raising of it and if they have to carry it off to sell it, won't they spend their money where they sell it? Many of you recollect that I advised many years ago our merchants to purchase bale cotton when they complained of dull seasons. Now see the change, some days in the fall season over 300 bales sold here with everybody selling dry goods and groceries.

Let tobacco take the place of cotton. With no market here you certainly will fall back where you were before. Why not go to work and make enquiries about the cost of buildings. Above all keep an eye on the increase of the tobacco crop for it will certainly in a short time supplant the cotton crop in Jones county.

The idle crowd around Trenton is disagreeably disconsolate as the late rains have so mud-dyed the waters of the old Trent that the fish won't bite and the boys are so busy at work that they can't dig bait for them. If times don't mend, in a few days pitching quoits and hitching boxes to dogs tails will be the principal amusements. Just to have a little fun as it is said "a little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men."

Gardens considering the cold spring are looking extremely fine.

The health of this whole community is remarkably good, in fact we hear of but little sickness in the whole county.

Dr. S. E. Koonce, formerly of this place, now resident physician of Pollockville, will lead to the Elymensal altar one of the fairest daughters of Pollockville, Miss Lila Ward, this evening at the Baptist church there. May many years of happiness attend them will be the wishes of all that know them.

Lewis King, J. A. Smith and son, Joe, and several others left yesterday for Charleston to attend the Confederate Reunion.

Mr. J. W. Bryan lost his horse a few days ago by falling in a ditch and drowning.
