Plans To Bring Desirable Settlers To North Carolina

Conservatory of Music For Durham. Teachers' Assembly Meeting a Success. Good Management Oxford Orphan Asylum. State Lands Option Deal.

RALPH, June 20--The Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias begins its annual session at Fayetteville today. T. S. Franklin is the grand chancellor. There are about 90 lodges in the State.

At Leasli, Saturday, a handsome chair, specially designed, was presented to Rev. Dr. Jarvis Baxter, in memory of the fiftieth anniversary of his ordination as a priest of the Protestant Episcopal church.

The "Concatenation of Hoohoo's" for North Carolina meets next week at Lumberton. It is composed of persons engaged in the lumber trade.

Washington Duke, one of Durham's tobacco millionaires, will erect a very spacious and handsome building for the Southern Conservatory of Music at that place. It will cost $25,000.

The East Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Association meets at Wilmington on Wednesday. Many important questions are to be considered. The members of the association lost quite heavily as to the strawberry crop. Irish potatoes and beans appear to have this season proved the best paying crops.

Work is expected to begin in a few days on the Seaboard Air Line's new short cut from Hamlet to Columbia. This and the Richmond & Ridgeway short cut will make great changes.

State Superintendent Mehane is back from the Teachers' Assembly at Morehead City. He says he is sure there was never a more pleasant or profitable session; that over 800 teachers were present and that the spirit was entirely harmonious, and that he never saw it better.

The corporation commission asked the Agricultural Department for more room either on the ground floor, or above, preferably above. The Department there gives it the front, with the exception of the southeast room. The new quarters will be divided into three rooms, court room, private room and clerk's office.

It is the plan that John W. Thompson the newly-appointed immigration commissioner, shall make an extended tour in the northwest for the purpose of inducing immigration to move in this direction. There is considerable correspondence with people in that section. The people of this State know little about the mode of securing immigrants, as the State has really made no effort on any scale.

A letter to the Adjutant General from Lieutenant H. S. Stewart, of Asheville, says none of the old officers or men of Company F, of the First Volunteers, will enlist in the State Guard, and that the new Company F there should be recognized. The sole idea was that if the First Volunteers desired to perpetuate itself, it should be given every opportunity to do so. If its officers and men are not so minded, then there are plenty of others waiting and wishing to get in the Guard.

The State Life of Indiana and the Mechanics and Traders' Fire Insurance Company, of New Orleans, domesticate themselves.

The State granted a charter to a Durham clothing firm with the name of Lumb & Lamb; capital $25,000.

A great many well deserved compliments are paid W. J. Hicks, the superintendent of the Oxford Orphan Asylum for his admirable management. It is said the buildings and grounds were never in such fine shape as at present.

All the smallpox patients save one, and all the suspects save one, are discharged. The smallpox patient kept in named Spence. He is a white man, and is a so-called "Holiness preacher." The suspect is his son.

The Attorney General of the United States called on Clerk Julius Brutus Fortson, of the District court for a full report of all the bankruptcy cases filed in the district. There have so far been 36 filed, and some have been filed with the Deputy clerks at Wilmington, New Bern and Elizabeth City. There are 3 referees and they are also called on to make reports by the 25th instant.

The State board of education met, and Isaac Meekins complained that the language of the former order of the board in revoking the option given him for certain lands in Camden, Currituck, Pasquotank, Hartford, Chowan, Bertie, Gates, Dare and Washington counties was such as to reflect on his integrity and good faith in his transaction. Meekins admitted that he did represent to the board that the option previously given Finch and Felling did not cover these lands. He said that he so represented in good faith, and that he so con-

ROYAL BAKING POWDER ABSOLUTELY PURE Makes the food more delicious and wholesome

There's a new disease prevailing, each physician's skill assailing, and baffling diagnosis it pervasively doth permit; The 'no microbe' in it lurking 'tis audaciously working, and the 'bacteria' wise for once have dubbed it simply "alk skirt writ."

It attacks the winsome maiden with her summer freshness laden, and confines itself exclusively unto the fairer sex; And they do not care to cure it but are willing to endure it, and they revel in the glory which this new disease reflects.

It requires a proper holding of the outer skirt, and folding, to expose the bright-lined navel underneath sufficiently. That the siren robe may dangle in view, a certain angle of the hand must be maintained with firmness and persistency.

So a maiden soon discovers that the said affliction hovers all around her, yet she never for a moment has a fear; But she trips the highway daily with her garments rustling gaily, and she holds them in such manner that the silk one doth appear.

What are aching wrist and fingers, or the pain that in them lingers? What's the difference if the silk skirt writ attacks the maid?

For 'tis better far to suffer than to be a silly duffer and go out upon the street without the awaiting skirt displayed. Now when next you hear a rattle, mark the region of the bustle and you'll see with what dexterity she gives the proper twist.

To the overskirt, disclosing gaudy silk that is reposing underneath it--and then rest assured she has the "alk skirt writ."

What you want is not temporary relief from plics but a cure to stay cured. De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cures piles, and they stay cured. F. S. Duffy & Co.

Imagination

Plays the leading part when it come to buying clothes of a tailor. You imagine they are better because you are paying more.

Now, we make to order, and we make to fit; and if you buy here, we make you judge and jury, besides if the clothes wear, if they do not give satisfaction in every way, we give your money back. The most important point in a suit of clothes after the quality of the cloth is considered is the care and skill displayed in making it. On that point alone is based the charges of the highest-price tailors.
