UNDER ARREST

On Charge Suspected Incendiarism At Wilson.

Competition For Vance Model. State Guard Assignments. Needs of North Carolina Tobacco Markets. Copper Mining Interests. Sensational Scene.

RALPHAM, July 6.—Insurance Commissioner Young returned from Wilson with extremely interesting news regarding his investigation of the incendiary fire under the opera house. He had subpoena issued for all witnesses and instantly examined these. There were two stores under the opera house, one occupied by J. B. Brooks and W. D. Cooper, furniture dealers; the other by Thomson & Co., dealers in tiptwars. There was a partition door between the stores. This was nailed from Thomson's side, with twelve wire nails, which are yet in the door. Persons on the street heard knocking on this door, before the fire alarm was given, went to the place, saw the door fly open and also saw fire in both stores, but more of it in the furniture store.

The partition door was fastened on the furniture store side by a hoop and staple with a hook in it. Brooks and Cooper swore they were in their bed room in their store from 9 o'clock to the time of the fire, 11:30 that night. In bed and asleep. The side of their bedroom towards the fire was glass and the foot of their bed was next to this glass. According to their own statement they gave no alarm. When people got to the rear of the building Brooks and Cooper had put a trunk out of the rear window and were trying to put out a desk. They were examined separately, one as soon as the other had testified, and their evidence was very conflicting. As soon as Commissioner Young had finished taking the evidence he made a statement that the mayor should have Brooks and Cooper arrested.

The mayor was present at the examination. Young was assisted by ex-Judge H. G. Conner. The mayor at once swore out warrants, returnable before a magistrate tomorrow morning. The evidence was all submitted by Commissioner Young to some of the most conservative citizens and agreed with his view. He found that Brooks and Cooper had stock to the value of twelve or fifteen hundred dollars and had $3,500 insurance, $1,000 of which was taken a week before the fire. Both Brooks and Cooper are from Plymouth and went to Wilson on April 1. Commissioner Young says they had a good record at Plymouth.

Up to date no less than eleven models of the Vance statue have been received by the committee, some from the greatest artists in America. Several artists are here. They say the number of competitors is remarkably large.

The Portis Exploration Company was chartered to develop gold mines in Nash and Franklin counties. Capital $10,000. E. W. Lyon, of Nash, and some Raleigh men are stockholders.

The following order, No. 17, was published by Adjutant General Royster.

1. The following companies, having complied with the regulations governing admission to the State Guard, are accepted and assigned as follows:

First Regiment: Goldsboro Rifles, assigned as Company B; Forsyth Riflemen, of Winston, as Company G; Raleigh Light Infantry, as Company D; Iredell Blues, of Statesville, as Company E; Cleveland Guards, of Shelby, as Company G; Richland Rifles, of Wayneville, as Company H; Old Guard, of Durham, as Company J; Governor's Guard, of Raleigh, as Company K; Osburns Black Boys, of Concord, as Company I; Queen City Guards, of Charlotte, as Company H. Third Regiment: Rowan Rifles, of Salisbury, as Company A.

2. An election will be held at Statesville July 30th, by company officers of the First Regiment to fill the office of colonel, lieutenant colonel and three majors. Company officers are authorized to vote by proxy.

3. The Wayneville Guard, of Wayneville, is disbanded and equipment and text books will be transferred to Company B, First Regiment, at Wayneville, proper receipts being taken from the commanding officer of the latter and forwarded to this office.

4. Until further orders the following companies are unattached and will make all reports required by law direct to this office: Lee Rifles, of Charlotte; Rine Ridge Rifles, of Asheville; Asheville Light Infantry; Rutherford Rifles, of Rutherfordton; King's Mountain Rifles of King's Mountain.

It is now expected that something like 500 men of the Second and Third Regiments of the State Guard will be in camp at Morehead City this month, at the two accommodations.

The State charters the Piedmont High School, of Lenoir, in Cleveland county, and the Blowing Rock Stage Company, which will operate stages to Lenoir, Blowing Rock, Elk Park, Boone, etc.

John S. Dunnington, of Raleigh, says he regards North Carolina tobacco market.

Nervous troubles are cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which enriches and purifies the blood. It is the best medicine for nervous PEOPLE.

lets, the real need is for ample warehouses at eastern points, such as Goldsboro, Wilson, Rocky Mount, and plenty of banking capital to back these warehouses, so the latter can buy tobacco from first hands and store it and thus checkmate Danville, which, he says, is seeking not only to take away Richmond and Petersburg's tobacco trade, but also to absorb that of North Carolina. The eastern section is now the chief producer of bright tobacco and the leaf can be held there and thus develop a North Carolina market. For half a century or more Virginia has thrived on and been given the credit for North Carolina tobacco.

Augustus W. Graham, of Oxford, who is here, gives some interesting news regarding the copper mines in Person and Granville. The North & South Carolina Railroad is in course of construction from Virginia in the Atlantic and Danville Railroad to Roanoke, and is completed to Halloway. Mr. East—has erected a smelter at Norfolk, and as soon as the road, which will traverse the entire ore belt, is finished, the ore will be shipped to Norfolk and smelted. The ore is said to be the richest south of Lake Superior. At one mine 500 men are at work.

Insurance Commissioner Young says he witnessed an exceedingly sensational occurrence at Wilson. Not long ago Mr. E. E. Britton and his wife were divorced she being given the custody of their two children. She was departing for Fayetteville with her oldest child of 11, on a visit. Britton suddenly appeared at the station as she was about to board the train and seized the child. Mrs. Britton screamed for help and the child also screamed, saying that she wanted to go with her mother. A crowd at once rushed in and took the child from Prof. Britton, and put her and her mother on the train. Britton also got on the train, saying that he, too, was going to Fayetteville. His wife denounced him. The train was held nearly a quarter of an hour, so intense was the excitement. Britton was advised at Selma not to go to Fayetteville, but said he would see a lawyer there and expected to get the custody of the child.
