Negro Race Out of Politics, and Amendment Will Carry.

Criminal Court in Session. Plans for a New Auditorium. Buried At Home. Reports of Corporations. The Cattle Fever.

RALEIGH, July 13.—Rev. Dr. R. H. W. Leak, the well known and influential negro preacher politician was asked what was the attitude of his race towards the franchise amendment to the constitution. Dr. Leak replied: "They are not caring much about it. They have very little to say. The amendment will be ratified by a big majority, 40,000 or more, I believe."

The A. M. E. church held a Sunday school institute here today at which "Jim Crow" cars and the franchise amendment to the constitution was among the chief topics of discussion, the question being as to whether Jim Crow cars humiliate the negro and whether the amendment discourages or encourages him. It would be easy to answer both by saying that there is no humiliation whatever in the Jim Crow cars, but quite a reverse, and as to the franchise amendment that by requiring his education it would naturally tend to develop any ambition the negro may manifest or develop.

The July term of the Criminal Court for this county is in session, and the work of disposing of the cases has been specifically swift. A youth fourteen years old who has repeatedly been before the court was given five years on the public roads. A long term seems to be the only hope of redeeming such cases. Last year the fusion board of penitentiary directors announced that at the Anson farm, near Wadesboro, it would establish a reformatory for young criminals. But it was only talk. Nothing came of it. A number of white and negro boys have been sentenced this week to long terms, and Judge Fred Moore, in sentencing them, expressed in the plainest terms the need of a reformatory.

A third story has been added to the institution for white blind here. It will at the next term be able to accommodate all the blind. It is the first time there has been room for all.

Greenboro's gala week during the firemen's tournament will be a gay affair. The First Regiment Band has been secured to furnish music.

Raleigh is at last taking some steps towards securing an auditorium. No place in the State so greatly needs one. There are two public halls here, neither large enough, and both of them sweat-boxes during the summer heats. It is desired that 100 persons subscribe $100 for the auditorium.

All the arrangements for the encampment of the Second Regiment of the State Guard at Morehead City, beginning next Saturday, have been completed. The State bought tents from a Toledo firm.

The Hamilton Distilling Company is chartered by the State at Hamlet, Claudius Dockery and others owners.

Dr. William R. Wood, for a number of years superintendent of the insane asylum here, died at his home, Scotland Neck. He was a very able and prominent physician and cousin of ex-Senator Ransom.

Ex-Judge M. L. McCorkle died at Newton, aged 82 years. He served a number of terms in the Legislature and in the Constitutional Convention and was judge of the Superior Court for eight years. He was a colonel of a North Carolina regiment during the Civil War.

The funeral of Mrs. A. Q. Holliday, wife of the ex-president of the Agricultural and Mechanical College, was held at Christ church this afternoon, and the burial was in Oakwood cemetery. It was announced last evening that her burial would be at her birthplace, near Richmond, but at a late hour a change was made. She was a member of the widely known Bolling family.

The State Auditor reports that 888 corporations have been reported by the sheriffs in the State, but that only 495 of these have reported to him, giving in $1,258 shares under a hundred dollars in value and 98,656 over that sum, the number of shares reported without value being 26,012, the number owned by North Carolina residents 148,681, and by non-residents 57,218. The value of shares reported to the Auditor averages $75 and the value of 207,899 is therefore $15,543,000.

The Governor appoints Laurence S. Holt of Alamance, director of the North Carolina Railroad.

At the annual meeting of the Wake County Farmers' Alliance only four sub-alliances were represented. Once there were more than ten times that number.

E. L. Daughtridge, of Rocky Mount, was here on his way to the road-builders' convention. He informed the Agricultural Department officials that some disease was killing his cows rapidly. He has a dairy farm. Last fall six cows died. Two weeks ago others became sick and eight have thus far died. He has not until now made any report of Admiral Dewey at Sea.

SEA, July 13.—The United States cruiser Olympia, from Colombo, Ceylon, June 28, arrived here today with Admiral Dewey on board.

The Admiral said he was in good health. He appeared to be in excellent condition, which was also the case with his officers and men. Most of them have suffered from malarial fever, but have now recovered.

The Olympia was quarantined, no direct communication with the shore being allowed. After passing through the canal she will call at Trieste, Austria. Thereafter the Admiral's plans are uncertain. Possibly he will go to Gibraltar and thence to New York.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers benefit permanently. They lend gentle assistance to nature, causing no pains or weakness, permanently curing constipation and liver ailments. F. S. Duffy.

The Tilden Estate.

NEW YORK, July 12.—Samuel J. Tilden's estate, according to the report of Lawrence Godkin, passing upon the accounts of John Bigelow, Andrew H. Green and Geo. W. Smith as executors of the will, amounted to about $3,500,000 not as large by several million dollars as was anticipated.

The report, which was filed in the Supreme Court today, is the first statement showing the exact condition of the property left by Mr. Tilden and its value.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Lackamp, Elston, Mo., write: "One Minute Cough Cure saved the life of our little boy when nearly dead with croup." F. S. Duffy.
