Railroad Officials Appear To Argue On Valuations.

Geologists Go West. Asylum Is Imposed On Gov. Russell Appoints Directors. A Desperate Cabbylet. Tobacco Men Going East.

RALEIGH, July 14.—At the first session of the Corporation Commission leading officials of the Atlantic Coast Line, Southern and Seaboard Air Line Railways and their attorneys made arguments against the increase of assessed value, claiming that there was gross discrimination against railroads.

Governor Russell had counsel, who anticipated any reduction as to telegraph companies. The Governor's counsel at first said he represented the Governor as to railroads, but later stated that he was mistaken as to this after he had gone to see the Governor.

Among the railroad officials were President Elliott, Mr. Kirby and R. O. Burton, Esq., of the Atlantic Coast Line; Vice President Andrews, Mr. Culp and Messrs. Henderson, Price and Busbee, of the Southern; ex-Judge Watts, John D. Shaw and McEhee & Day, of the Seaboard Air Line; S. L. Dill, of the Atlantic & North Carolina; Mr. Thom, of the Atlantic & Danville; H. A. Page, of the Aberdeen & Ashboro.

Vice-President A. B. Andrews opened with a statement showing that the valuation per mile in North Carolina was higher than in either Virginia or South Carolina. President Elliott spoke forcibly against the inequality between the taxation of railroad property and other property in the State. Mr. Shaw followed along the same line, with an imposing array of facts and figures in proof of his contention. Mr. Thom stated that the Atlantic & Danville was not earning enough to justify any such tax valuation as was put upon it.

Col. Henderson said that there was gross inequality in taxation as between railroad property and other property in North Carolina; that people are never satisfied so long as the courts give way, and let this unequal burden be put on the roads, until the increase in the burden reaches an unbearable point so far as the roads are concerned. In some counties in North Carolina now (McDowell, for instance), the railroads now pay half the entire taxes.

Superintendent Kates and F. H. Busbee appeared on behalf of the Postal Telegraph Company, urging that its assessment be reduced from $50,000 to $25,000. Col. Hindsdale spoke in the case, saying he represented the Governor in the telegraph matter, and that the assessment of $50,000 ought to stand and would be satisfactory to the State. He also stated that he appeared for the State in the Western Union Telegraph case, which will be heard tomorrow, as will also the case of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad, for which J. C. L. Harris will appear, and urge that the assessment be not increased.

Mr. Burton spoke on behalf of the Atlantic Coast Line; Charles Price and F. H. Busbee for the Southern. Mr. Busbee dwelt especially upon the assessment of the Atlantic & Yadkin Railroad saying that it was assessed at what it sold for.

There are grounds for the belief that the commission will reduce its assessment of both divisions of the Atlantic & Yadkin Railroad, that is, on parts owned respectively by the Atlantic Coast Line and the Southern Railway. There may be some reduction on the Postal Telegraph assessment. Possibly there may be some slight reductions as to certain branch lines.

fantry, who died of yellow fever in Cuba was a brother of Major Carl A. Woodruff, U. S. A., who spends some time each year in Raleigh.

There was considerable interest here today as to the North Carolina Railroad meeting, when it was learned that the Governor had selected J. S. Armstrong, of Wilmington, to be president vice Dr. R. M. Norment, who is now postmaster at Lumberton, and that he had appointed Lawrence S. Holt and Augustus W. Graham to succeed Norment and ex-Judge A. C. Avery as directors. A friend of Governor Russell said that the changes were decided on were decided on several weeks ago.

A white convict, Jesse Cox, who was serving a 10 year sentence in the penitentiary, escaped last spring and went to Lenoir county, where he gave trouble. He and his brother last Saturday attacked two innocent negroes, shooting one dangerously and cutting the other. Pursuit was made by a posse of whites and negroes and the desperado, Jesse Cox, tracked to a swamp. He shot at Deputy Sheriff Rouse, but only one shot hit. Rouse shot Cox with more than 90 shot, all over the body. Then the convict was shot in the legs by a negro of the posse. He was then recaptured.

A great many tobacco men are leaving Durham and vicinity daily for the eastern part of this State and for South Carolina to engage in the tobacco business. The markets are just opening up in these sections.
