ALL LOVELY.

Russell and Pritchard Now Hand in Hand For Office.

Two New Cotton Mills Chartered. Carr is a Candidate For Senator. Young Fawcett Enlists For the Philippines. What Duncan Says.

RALPHIGH, July 21.—The feeling between Senator Pritchard and Governor Russell has long been extreme in coldness and dislike but it has ended. Senator Pritchard is the Governor's guest and the Governor gave him a reception, at which a score of well known Republicans were present. A conference followed the reception. A number of Republican leaders, among them State Chairman Holton, Revenue Collector Duncan and Attorney General Walser, had been notified that Senator Pritchard would be here and desired a conference. The constitutional amendment, limiting the negro franchise, was discussed and other party matters.

There had for some time been a movement to have Senator Pritchard retire to become Federal judge of the Western district, Judge Ewart to become clerk of that court at Asheville; Governor Russell to resign, Lieutenant Governor Reynolds to succeed him and then to appoint Russell Senator. Ewart does not fancy this and had a friend here to look after his interests. This friend says Ewart is sure he will be confirmed—is, in fact, jubilant.

A Republican, high in the party, mused aloud on this big deal, saying: "But what will the Democratic Legislature do when it meets again next June, as meet it surely will?" Then he went on to speak of Governor Russell's desire to get out of the executive chair; a steady desire, long felt and very powerful. Only weariness comes to him. Months ago there was an attempt to engineer the big political deal, but there was delay.

Among the faithful there was also talk and conference as to the constitutional amendment. There is a thorn in Senator Pritchard's side. He knows that the ratification of the amendment by a big majority is sure. Governor Russell knows it and admits as much, as Logic Harris admits. It is really hard to induce a Republican of prominence to say openly that he is in opposition to the amendment, as any one will discover who asks the question.

Tyre Glenn, Wheeler Martin and Grant were among those invited to the Governor's reception, given in compliment to Senator Pritchard. Attorney General Walser was at the reception. He and Governor Russell have buried the hatchet.

The State has chartered the Neuse River Cotton Mills, in this county, near Wake Forest College. The capital stock is $100,000. R. H. Battle, Joseph G. Brown, W. W. Vass and others are owners. A contract has been made for the erection of a $75,000 cotton mill at Shelby.

Before District Court Judge Parnell argument is begun on the exceptions in the cases against Breese and Dickinson, of the wrecked Asheville bank. There are 300 typewritten pages of the exceptions, and it will require three days to dispose of them.

Auditor Ayer says he gets many inquiries as to the school taxes and wants the public to know that three-fourths of the poll taxes go to the public schools. Friends of that greatly esteemed citizen, Julian S. Carr, say he is a candidate for the nomination for the United States Senate.

Mr. Robson, the head of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, has had a conference with the commissioner of insurance and as a result the order will domesticate itself in North Carolina.

One of the latest additions to the State Museum is a man-of-war bird, with a wing spread of 7 feet 8 inches. A particular fine group of North Carolina eagles is nearly ready. The latter are heavy birds; the man-of-war bird being only one-third their weight.

David G. Fowle, son of the late Governor Fowle has enlisted in the Twenty-seventh Regiment for service in the Philippines. He was in the Second Regiment of Volunteers last year.

Chairman Holton, Carl Duncan and other Republicans have passed the word that all Republicans who vote for the constitutional amendment will not be classed as Republicans. This will scare off so many. Duncan said: "Not a Republican in North Carolina will vote for the amendment, for if he does he is not a Republican. Duncan gave out that this gathering was of Republicans who wanted to see Senator Pritchard, and were notified to meet him here to save the expense of going to his home at Marshall.

The Republican Chairman was asked his view of the constitutional amendment. He said: "The people will not vote for the amendment. It will have to be counted in. They are not willing to put a word on their right of suffrage. With a full vote the amendment will be defeated by 40,000." This he said after being asked if he did not know that the amendment would be ratified by at least 40,000 votes. When he was told that it was very difficult to find a white Republican in this part of the State who approved the amendment, he said: "I hear that in the extreme east they oppose it." He went on to speak of Governor Russell, saying: He is all right. Doesn't need anything. Hasn't he 18 months of office ahead of him? As to the next campaign, he admitted that it would be a very warm one.

George Vanderbilt has purchased for his Blitmore farm, near Asheville, the finest hog in the world, the English boar Highclere Topper. It is said he cost over $1,000.

State Veterinarian Currier and Acting Entomologist Sanderson were at Southern Pines today, where the largest peach orchard in the State was in greater part ruined by the San Jose scale. Saturday they will be at Lenoir. Mr. Currier is invited to lecture in Georgia, on the subject of splenic fever in cattle, before a large gathering of farmers and cattlemen.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

Meeting At Chicago Shows That Bryan is At The Head.

CHICAGO, July 20.—Bryan is master. The National Democratic Committee is its instrument. Various bodies outside the regular Democratic organization, which are known as bimetallic leagues or bimetallic unions, are his auxiliaries. Democratic factions in most of the States, whether they harmonize their quarrels or not, are his devoted partisans. He can be the candidate on a platform of his own making.

The local conflict in Illinois between the Altgeld and Harrison factions no longer has a bearing on national politics. Bryan, after his arrival in the morning, sought to have Altgeld turn tonight's mass meeting over to the national committee in the interest of harmony. Two or three of Altgeld's followers were willing, but Altgeld himself refused and Bryan did not insist. This meeting serves to show that while Altgeld may have lost control of the Democratic organization in Illinois he has a large following and must be reckoned with as one of the potent Bryan leaders at large.

All these things were made so clear at the national committee's meeting today that the blindest observer could not fail to see it. Representatives of Tammany and of the New York Democrats who were here to take notes saw it. Most of them left on the early train. The only message of comfort which they carry back is that, while free silver must be in the platform, Bryan is disposed to listen to their pleas for a chance to put other issues forward. In doing so he will make no promises, but will receive their suggestions in a friendly spirit.

Everything in the national committee and out of it was so thoroughly a Bryan ratification meeting that he can afford to be generous. He and his friends assume that the Eastern Democrats are now convinced of the futility of making combinations to prevent his nomination.

The meeting of the national committee was a harmony gathering throughout. About three-fourths of the members were present and the remainder were represented by proxy. Bryan had the proxy of Daniel J. Campau, of Michigan, and attended the sessions, though he refrained from having much to say in the discussions.
