AMERICAN LOVE OBJECTS.

One of the several peculiarities attributed to Americans, is that of love for outlandish objects.

The "freak" is strictly American, be it the long whiskered woman, the double headed calf or the three legged chicken.

The average American will more readily pay the admission fee to a museum where the abnormal is nature is on view than to see the beautiful.

The French people with this knowledge of the American nature, propose to exhibit at the Paris Exposition next year, and everything in the freak line, realizing that such attractions will prove good drawing cards.

A castle in the air is one of the attractions, and this apparently impossible creation is thus described:

"Yet here is a castle in the air that will soon be a reality. To prove this one may mention that $5,000 francs have been appropriated for the building of the same, and that elaborate preparations are being made to people it with servants and other creature comforts.

"An attraction so unique, and from an architectural standpoint, so daring that it is entitled to be regarded as one of the wonders of the century is this castle in the air that is to be constructed by one of the most noted of Parisian architects.

"It is no less than an aluminum structure, built in the form of an old castle, which will be suspended two hundred and fifty feet above the earth. The balloon to which this aerial castle will be attached is to be the largest in the world as it will have a capacity of 100,000 gallons. It is to be filled with hydrogen gas and will be constructed of the strongest oiled silk, covered with catgut net. The castle will be attached to the balloon by aluminum bands, while other bands will connect the balloon with the earth, which will prevent it from rising any higher than the desired point.

"The castle itself is to be an immense structure. One floor will be used as a music hall, where there will be singing and dancing. Another floor will be used as a rink for roller skating, the stadium floor making an ideal surface for this sport, and here an international contest in plain and fancy roller skating will be carried on.

"On another floor there will be an immense bicycle rink, with aluminum track, as smooth as glass and as glittering as silver, where races will be conducted every day and evening. In addition to these features there is to be a gymnasium, a dance hall and several cafes and restaurants."

No Right to Overtake.

The woman who is loyal in face, firm and temper will always have friends, but she who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate the stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, rosy cheeks, and rich complexion. A tall, good looking, charming woman of a rare downy, only 60 cents at D. B. Bickham's drug store.

A young professor was explaining the derivation of the word "catarrh" to his class in a local academy. He told the story of the early Roman republics and the overthrow of the monarchy of the times. He related how, when any king in the republic became obnoxious to his neighbors, they used to write his name on an oyster shell (Latin—ostrum, shell, and on the receipt of a specified number by the consuls that man was banished, killed or otherwise removed in some one of these places.

Now, the boy here in the front seat, what did he derive from the ostrum shell, which was called ostrum? The answer he expected was far from what he got, for the little student with spectacles in the front seat arose and delivered himself thus: "From the Roman habit of using shells to get the best of people, we derive the present Coney Island shell game, which is a fascinating and costly sport."—Brooklyn Times.

LEMONS AS MEDICINE.

They regulate the Liver, Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys and Blood as prepared by Dr. H. Mesley, in his Lemon Elixir, a pleasant lemon drink. It cures indigestion, constipation, indigestion, headache, malaria, kidney disease, fever, chills, heart failure, nervous prostration, and all other diseases caused by a torpid or diseased liver and kidneys. It is an established fact that lemon, when combined properly with other liver tonics, produces the most desirable results upon the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys and blood. Sold by druggists. 50c and $1 bottles.

Cured me of sick and nervous headache, I had been subject to all my life. Wm. N. A. McENTIRE, Spring Place, Ga.

Cured me of indigestion and nervous prostration. I got more relief, and at once, from Lemon Elixir than all other medicines. J. C. FRIGENTY, Indian Springs, Ga.

Cured me of a long standing case of shingles and fever, by using two bottles. J. C. STANLEY, Engineer R T Va & Co R R.

Cured me of a case of heart disease and indigestion of four years' standing. I tried a dozen different medicines. None but Lemon Elixir done me any good. TOLED DIBBT, Cor. Habersham and St. Thomas sts. Savannah, Ga.

I fully endorse it for nervous prostration, headache, indigestion and constipation, having used it with most satisfactory results, after all other remedies had failed. J. W. HOLLOWELL, West End, Atlanta, Ga.

You are dreadfully black! exclaimed the pot, hotly. Yes, but I have a porcelain lining, protected the kettle. And, after all, inward graces are the graces that count.

Are grand, but skin eruptions rob life of joy. Bucklen's Auralic Balm, cures them; also old running and fever sores, ulcers, boils, felons, corns, warts, cuts, sprains, burns, scalds, chapped hands, chilblains. Best pile cure on earth. Drives out pains and aches. Only 25c a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by C D Bradham, druggist.

It Always Happens. Did you hear about Lucy Weston and Al Winslow falling out? Well, when did that happen? Pah! It can't be true. I saw them together at the root garden last night. Yes, it's really so. They went rowing on the pond in the park day before yesterday and tried to change seats in the boat.

His Life Was Saved. Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Troubles. Regular sizes 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C D Bradham's drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

Tom Tom. As a nickname of the Prince of Wales this singular epithet is said to have originated at a Derby dinner, during which Sir Frederick Johnston, as the report goes, in a highly hilarious frame of mind, patted the stomach of his future king, scooping him at the same time as "Tom Tom."

Dr. E. DeWitt's Anti Diabetic. May be worth to you more than $100 if you have a child who soils bedding from sweet urine of water during sleep. Comes old and young alike. It arrests the uric acid and young alike. It arrests the uric acid and young alike. It arrests the uric acid and young alike.

Remember & cough, had. I don't know the name of the doctor, but I have mentioned a lot of cough cures in my different cough remedies, but none has given better satisfaction than Chamberlain's," says Mr. Charles Holzner, Druggist, New York, N. Y. "It is perfectly safe and can be relied upon in all cases of cough, cold or hoarseness. Sold by F. S. Duffy.

UNCLE SAM'S HOT BATHS. The Hot Springs of Arkansas Via Southern Railway. Will eradicate from your system the lingering effects of grip and other ailments caused by the severe winter, and malaria, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, stomach, kidney, liver and nervous disorders, paralysis, blood and skin diseases, and chronic and functional derangements. The mountain climate of Hot Springs is cool and delightful in summer. 100 Hotels open for your resort. For illustrated literature, containing all information, address C. F. Dudley, Manager, Southern Railway, Hot Springs, Ark.

The Savage Buckshot. "It is seldom we hear of a woman dying of lockjaw," said the irritable landlord.

"More of 'em die than you hear of," said the Savage Buckshot. "Lockjaw is a woman generally poisons death in less than a minute. At least, that is my theory."

IS IT RIGHT? For An Editor to Recommend Patent Medicines?

From Hyman Valley News, Bradford, N. C. It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventive of suffering we feel it a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this medicine in our family for twenty years and have always found it reliable.

In many cases a dose of the remedy would save hours of suffering while a physician is awaited. We do not believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do believe that if a bottle of Chamberlain's Diarrhoea Remedy were kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack much suffering might be avoided and in very many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years. For sale by F. S. Duffy & Co.

Wash. Jane, did you break the china plate? Yes'm. You got taken in with that plain man. It's a weak one. It broke the fourth time I dropped it.

A diseased stomach surely undermines health. It dulls the brain, kills energy, destroys the nervous system, and predisposes to insanity and fatal diseases. All dyspeptic troubles are quickly cured by Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It has cured thousands of cases and is curing them every day. Its ingredients are such that it can't help curing. F. S. Duffy.

Chinese Weight. "Catty" is a weight still in use in the treaty ports of China. When the Chinese first sold tea to Europeans they fastened it in little lacquer cases, which each weighed a "catty," and in due time were called tea catties, and at tea-caddies.

An Epidemic of Diarrhoea. Mr. A. Sanders, writing from Coconut Grove, Fla., says there has been quite an epidemic of diarrhoea there. He had a severe attack and was cured by four doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says he also recommended it to his neighbors and they say it is the best medicine they ever used. For sale by F. S. Duffy & Co.

Cherry OC. Hobb—There's something almost supernatural about the way your wife and mine agree. Nobb—Is there? I never thought of it. "Why, man, they both like the same doctor."

Bismarck's Iron Nerve. Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25c at C D Bradham's drug store.

Her Last Chance. "Why should I marry you?" she asked, coldly. "Well, of course," he replied viciously, "you can be an old maid if you wish."

Thomas Rhodes, Centerfield, O., writes "I suffered from piles seven or eight years. No remedy gave me relief until DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, less than a box of which permanently cured me." Soothing, healing, perfectly harmless. Beware of counterfeits. F. S. Duffy.

Wisely Ignorant. "No, I am a handsomer man than you," said the name of Farragut—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Old Companions. The Kennebec Journal tells of a man who has a fox and a hound that are lion companions. When both animals were in the pup stage, they were placed together and have now enjoyed a year of each other's society in peace and harmony. They sleep together and play with each other much after the manner of two frolicsome pups. The fox has perfect freedom of action, coming and going at will, but he always returns at night to share the dog's bed.

GRANT CALMED THEM. AN INCIDENT OF JOHNSTON'S MARCH BEING AROUND THE CIRCLE.

A Federal Speculator Which the General brought in a Chase by Forcing the Transatlantic Crowd to Listen to the President.

There is nothing in history that corresponds to that wonderful evening of President Johnson from Washington to Chicago by way of Boston Flood's barn.

Mr. Johnson planned the trip with little intention. He planned himself to be a spectator, and he believed that he would not meet the people and that if he could meet them face to face he could convince them that the president was right and Congress wrong. To get the love of the people he carried with him the General Grant, Admiral Farragut, Secretaries Seward, Welles and Hamilton, General Custer and other men well known to the people. His reason for that, accompanied by the popular hero of the day, he would be sure of a sympathetic reception everywhere. That was all that he asked. Give him a big crowd, and he was confident that he could win them over.

The president started from Washington with a chip on his shoulder. The very first crowd he met knocked it off without ceremony. It soon became clear the people were in a respectful mood, and after two or three clashes some of Mr. Johnson's best friends recommended a change of programme.

Many believed that the president, seeing the mood of the people, would yield, but they didn't know the man. He had seen him face all sorts of crowds while he was military governor of Tennessee. He had heard him scold the leading citizens of Nashville as he would a lot of school children; had seen him, when a mob threatened his life, stride out into the street and march the full length of the city at the head of a procession; carrying the stars and stripes, and he knew that he would relish keenly a scrap with those who detested him.

At one point a crowd of 50,000 people had gathered, mainly to see Grant, Farragut and Seward. There was tremendous enthusiasm over the party, and the president was elated. But when he rose to speak the crowd hooted and hissed and set up a great shout for Grant. The people had seen through the president's scheme and were turning the tables on him by using Grant and Farragut to humiliate and punish him. The president saw the strategy of the move, and he was as furious as he was helpless. In every interval of quiet he would attempt to speak, but every word he uttered would be lost in the thunder of the shouts for Grant.

It was a painful spectacle and everybody was embarrassed. The crowd would not listen to the chairman or any other local rebuilder.

General Custer, then at the height of his popularity, stepped forward in his dramatic, imperious way, believing that he could quiet the tumult. The crowd was friendly, but it howled him down, and the dashing cavalryman took his seat, with the remark that he would like to clear the grounds with a brigade of cavalry.

Johnson, looking down on the tumult, saw smiling, contemptuous faces, but he sat. He turned to Grant, who had retired to the rear of the platform, and said pointedly, "General, you will have to speak to them."

General Grant said decisively, "I will not." Then the president said, more graciously, "Won't you show yourself, general?"

Grant stepped forward, and after a sound of cheers, the people were as quiet as a church in prayer time. Waiting an instant, Grant raised his hand, made a gesture toward Johnson and said clearly, "The president of the United States."

The incident was a simple one, but it spoke volumes. Grant's face was full of indignation and reproach, and the crowd, accepting his rebuke, listened to the president for an hour. He acceded then to his heart's content, replied to all their taunts, talked back to every man that opened his mouth and seemed to enjoy the performance as a war horse would a battle. The people took the scolding in good part and realized that they had come in contact with a new sort of president. They heard him in respectful silence, but they disapproved of him, as the president knew when the votes were counted at the election that fall.

Seward's face at such meetings was a study. The wound in his neck was only faintly healed, and the people took a deferential attitude toward him. But still everybody wanted to see him and shake hands with him.

Farragut, in crossing the rounds of the capitol, came upon a group of ladies, one of whom turned toward him and eagerly inquired, "Are you Mr. Seward?" Farragut answered without a moment's hesitation:

"No, I am a handsomer man than you," said the name of Farragut—Chicago Inter Ocean.
