THE COLLEGES.

The University, Wake Forest and A. & M. Trustees Meet.

Long Contest at the A. & M. Over Officers. A Question of Poll Tax. Collector Demands Oaths Demerits. The Water Supply. Postmaster Chadbourne.

RALPHAM, August 2.—The University trustees met at noon Tuesday, Governor Russell presiding. Judge Shepherd declined the professorship of law, which was offered him some months ago. His declination is based upon his inability to arrange certain matters bearing upon domestic affairs, and his sense of duty in that direction has induced his action. The trustees expressed their great regret at the declination and some of them made remarks in well deserved eulogy of Judge Shepherd.

The public shares the regret of the trustee. The executive committee was instructed to look over the field as to available men and report to the trustees, who will meet between now and September 1st. Ex-Judge Conner and Burwell decline the position. A strong man will be found and the law department will be made a strong feature of the University. The work will be broadened and two professors will be elected. Thomas Wills was elected assistant professor of Latin and Greek; E. K. Graham, of Charlotte, librarian.

The trustees of the Wake Forest College met here and elected James L. Lake professor of physics. He is a native of Virginia and a graduate of John Hopkins and Chinese Universities. The selection of a professor of chemistry is left to the executive committee of the trustees. The trustees of the Agricultural and Mechanical College had a long and lively session. There was a two hours' fight over filling an office. Finally, J. M. Johnston was transferred from the position of assistant in agriculture and experimental field crops to the chair of animal industry and animal biology at a salary of $1,000. The fusion members of the board had slated Frank E. Emery for this place and it is alleged that this was pursuant to a purpose to carry out some kind of a deal. B. I. Ivey was elected instructor of textile art and machinery. The next matter taken up was the filling of the chair of agriculture. There were 12 applicants, but as only four had recommendations of value, only those four were considered. They were: Kelger, of New Mexico, who was recommended by the committee of reorganization of the college; Ivey, Emery and Prof. Connor, of South Carolina.

On the sixteenth ballot Benjamin Ivey was elected professor of agriculture, receiving ten votes; Conner, of Clemson College, 8, receiving eight, and Emery one. Ivey was professor of agriculture five years and was succeeded by Emery. The fusionists ousted Ivey, though there were no charges or complaints against him. Logo Harris made very frank acknowledgment of this fact to the board. The stockholders of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad met here September 14th to consider the great question of the consolidation into one harmonious whole of the various divisions of the Seaboard Air Line.

John C. Drewry, grand secretary of the Grand Lodge of Masons, well known in insurance circles and chairman of the street committee of Raleigh's board of aldermen, abandons the idea of making Richmond his home and will continue to reside here. The corporation commission and H. C. Brown will attend the annual meeting of the railroad commission at Denver, leaving at the end of this week. The State Treasurer has received inquiry from a register of deeds whether a man not naturalized but long a resident was liable to the poll tax. The Treasurer replied that liability to the poll tax is not dependent upon citizenship and that this man must, therefore, pay it. Revenue Collector Duncan is much pleased at the fact that during the past twelve-month his deputies have seized something over 500 illicit distilleries in this district. The collector has sent in the names of 500 Republicans for positions as storekeepers and gaugers to replace Democrats. A batch of about twenty of his "nominees" came back accepted. "The others" will no doubt be quickly acted on.

There is quite a hitch between the water company and the city. It grows out of the refusal of the city to pay for the vile-tasting water furnished last spring. The water company has been renting the water company pays no city taxes, claiming as an equivalent the water it furnishes for street sprinkling. Its taxes would be $100 a year. One of the water commissioners of the city figures that the water for sprinkling could be bought for 75¢.

State Treasurer Worth is quite puzzled because the preliminary debt bonds have never been removed from the American Bank Company's hands.

telegraphed, asking the cause of the great delay. At the Adjutant General's office today it was learned that after all, the First Regiment will have its practice march, probably next month. It will be given what it pressingly needs in the way of equipment.

It is said among Republicans in the lower circle that the trouble between Governor Russell and Postmaster Chadbourne, of Wilmington, is of longer standing than a year; that it antedates Chadbourne's letter to Senator Pritchard and grew out of a personal matter. It is the comment of Republicans here that Chadbourne ought to say whether he has resigned or not, and also that he could not be ousted for writing letters on a public question; that is, a man's being postmaster takes away none of his rights.

YELLOW FEVER SPREADS.

Three Cases in Phoebus. Six New Cases And One Death. NEWPORT NEWS, Va., August 1.—Six new cases of yellow fever, outside of the Soldiers' Home, and one death from the disease within the limits of the Home. This, in brief, is the situation at Hampton today. One of the Phoebus patients is Policeman Martin; the other two are veterans who live just outside Home.

The appearance of the disease outside of the institution, where it first made its appearance, is regarded as the most serious development yet noted in the situation. The manner in which it was transmitted to Phoebus is no secret. As late as Monday morning pestilence was living outside of the Home, with their wives, were permitted to enter the grounds and get their breakfast and then return to their homes. Phoebus is now effectually cut off from the rest of the world, Hampton today putting out a line of pickets at the bridge which connects the two towns.

The exodus from the handsome summer hotels at Old Point is now about complete. A special train took out the remaining guests last night, and today the management of the magnificent hostelry discharged their cooks and waiters and have practically suspended business for the time being.

The garrison at Old Point will leave some time tonight on a transport for Battery Point, at the mouth of the Delaware river. About 20 men and 3 officers, all fever immune, will be left in charge of the fortifications.

All the outgoing trains are carrying large crowds of panic-stricken residents of this city. A coal famine is threatened in Hampton, and today the officers of the Newport News and Old Point Railroad Company announced that the company would be forced to suspend its service until another supply of fuel has been secured. Provisions are also said to be scarce in the infected districts, and it is by no means unlikely that an appeal for outside assistance in the matter of feeding the unfortunates who are penned up without the facilities for earning their daily bread may be necessary.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Officials of the Marine Hospital Service and the medical department of the army regard the yellow fever situation at Hampton, Va., as encouraging. None of the nearby towns except Phoebus has reported the appearance of infection or suspicious cases. The people for miles around the Soldiers Home are very much alarmed, but are quiet. No restrictions have been placed on the departure of the several hundred visitors at Old Point Comfort, but Dr. Patton, who has absolute charge of affairs there, will exercise careful supervision of those who may leave, so as to avoid danger of their communicating the disease.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure thoroughly digests food without aid from the stomach and at the same time heals and restores the diseased digestive organs. It is the only remedy that does both of these things and can be relied upon to permanently cure dyspepsia. F. S. Duffy.
