Plans Adopted For Management of the A. & M. College.

Confederate Reunion. The Wilmington Post Office, Changes in Office. The State Guard, Public School Law, Trials, Conventions.

RALEIGH, August 5.—President George T. Winston and the special committee of the trustees of the State Agricultural and Mechanical College met at Charlotte Saturday and took action in regard to the new textile department of the college. The committee adopted resolutions that the full course leading to the degree of bachelor of science in textile art shall embrace a period of four years' instruction.

That the third year shall include instruction in the following subjects: Opening, carding, spinning and weaving plain white and check goods.

That the fourth year shall include instruction in dyeing, bleaching, designing and the use of dobbies and jacquards, with lectures each year on mill management.

That the degree shall be conferred after one year's practical work in a mill succeeding the completion of the college course.

This follows the line of effort outlined some days ago. The instructor who is to be in charge of the textile department and who is an able and practical cotton mill superintendent, met with the committee.

The Corporation Commission is asked to look into the fact that the trains here and elsewhere will not wait for other trains and make connections even when there are passengers who will be inconvenienced.

Wednesday of this week the ex-Confederates of Cumberland county will go into camp at the fair grounds at Fayetteville for a two days' reunion. Daniel Hugh McLean, representative from Harriet in the lower house, will deliver an address.

Dr. William C. McDuffie, a prominent physician of Fayetteville, is seriously ill. It is asserted that upland corn was never finer in this State than the present crop.

J. M. Allen, a fusion ex-employee at the Agricultural Department, who recently began the publication of a Republican newspaper here, gets an appointment as revenue storekeeper and gauger.

Work on another cotton mill at Henderson will begin in 60 days.

An attempt to rob the postoffice at Henderson last Friday night was foiled by the chief of police, who fired four times at the thief.

A rumor appears to be current in Wilmington that Miss Darby, the new postmaster, will appoint George Z. French assistant postmaster. The Messenger says regarding this: "We make the assertion from a knowledge of the temper of the community when we say that the appointment of French in any connection with the postoffice that will make him again a resident of Wilmington will surely disturb the peace of our city and put his life in jeopardy. There is a very powerful element in the community that is determined, whatever the consequences may be, that French will not be allowed to make his residence in Wilmington again. We would regret to see him attempt it and shudder to think of the consequences."

August 5th several of the finishing-of-the-holders at the penitentiary will retire, among them Warden Thomas H. Russell, clerk Wimble and Overseer Mott. The latter was in charge of the shirt factory while it was in operation, but has since been kept on duty as overseer. Wimble has had a soft snap for several months—pay and no work at all. He could not be gotten rid of until his term expired, under the terms of the Supreme Court decision in the Day case.

State Treasurer Worth today received a bid for State bonds all the way from Buena Vista, Cuba.

The hitch as to the settlement of the penitentiary debt continues. The biggest debt is unpaid; that is the one—De Forbes & Co., of Richmond, for $14,000. Of this, all save $400 was contracted last year. Some fusionists seek to make it appear that they did not make any debts at the penitentiary, but that the debts were old ones.

The field and staff officers of the First Regiment of the State Guard are not yet commissioned, but will be as soon as the Adjutant General arrives. It is said that then the regiment, which now has only ten companies, will be completed, and that the two companies which will thus get in will be the Lee Rifles, of Charlotte, Captain Anderson, and the Blue Ridge Rifles, of Asheville, Captain Chesler.

The State charter the Mount Airy Lumber Company capital $250,000—stockholders, Walter A. Puck, of Mt. Airy; Theo. A. Tank, of Baltimore, and others.
