New Copper Mine Near Raleigh To Be Operated.

Monthlong On The Increase. Timber Buyers Out. Profit in Furniture Making. Seizure At Statesville. Orphan Home Extension Progress at Concord

RALEIGH, Aug. 21.—Mr. D. W. Whitaker, of Raleigh, is one of a company that has bought a copper mine 12 miles south of Raleigh. The company will be organized next week. This mine is a new discovery, though in 1853 it was thought there was copper there. Prof. Holmes and other experts pronounce the prospect for copper excellent. The company will be capitalized to commence with at not less than $35,000. J. S. Carr, John Pullen, DeWolf, Ashby Home and many other prominent financiers are interested.

There is a vast deal more blockading in eastern North Carolina than there ever was before, while blockading in the western part of the State—the original home of the blockader—is decreasing from a comparative standpoint. "Just how much blockading is done inside government still houses we will never be able to ascertain," said one of the officers. "The simple truth though, is that no distiller who does business on a small scale and legitimately can possibly make money."

In nearly all the surrounding counties agents for lumber and furniture concerns are traveling through forests and buying thousands of trees as they stand. This lumber business in its various branches has grown tremendously in this State in the past few years. For instance, furniture from High Point is shipped to every part of the United States and a great deal of it is sent to Germany and other parts of Europe. And as a test as to whether this enterprise is profitable or not one doesn't get around the fact that the furniture factories in High Point declare a dividend of 25 per cent.

At Winston a number of the stemmers who went out on a strike returned and wanted to go back to work, but Capt. W. F. Smith declined to give them employment. Their places are being rapidly filled with other stemmers.

Col. J. F. Armfield was offered the appointment as major in the Forty-sixth Regiment of Volunteers, recently ordered to be recruited for service in the Philippines. It is not known whether he will accept or not.

The entire wholesale whiskey and rectifying establishment of the Key & Co. Manufacturing and Distilling Company at Statesville was on Wednesday detained by Special Deputy J. J. Britt, who is understood to be acting under the orders of Special Agent L. A. Thrasher, of Greensboro. On orders from Collector Harkins, about 8,000 gallons of spirits in the warehouse were seized. The action of the officers was taken on account of alleged violation of the internal revenue laws. The case will likely be heard before the Commissioner of Internal Revenue at Washington.

The children from the Odd Fellow's Orphan Home, at Goldsboro, will go down on their week's outing to Wilmington and the seaside resorts next Tuesday. They will arrive in Wilmington on the 9:40 a. m. train on the Atlantic Coast Line and will be met at Front street depot by the committee of Odd Fellows representing the four lodges of the city. While there the children and those who accompany them will be the guests of the committee.

More than 200 houses have been built in Concord since the first of March and there are many now in course of erection.

Arrangements are being made for an electric light plant and an entire macadam for the streets of Mount Pleasant. The new furniture factory at Lexington which will be in operation soon, was incorporated under the name of the Central Manufacturing Company.

The stockholders of the proposed new savings bank at Salisbury, met last night and organized by the election of the following directors: D. H. Julian, D. A. Atwell, A. B. McCanless, F. H. Thompson, R. L. Wright, E. P. Wharton, M. S. Brown, W. H. Overman, John S. Henderson. The directors then elected officers as follows: President L. L. Overman; vice president A. H. Boyden; cashier, W. F. Snider; teller, C. E. McNeely. Work on the building will soon begin and the bank will begin operations when it is completed.

PLENTY PRISONERS ESCAPE

From Wake County Jail and Penitentiary. Desperate Gang of Breakouts. Special to Journal.

RALEIGH, August 21.—Last night at one o'clock, five prisoners in Wake county jail escaped, one being afterwards caught.

This morning five United States and two State prisoners escaped from the penitentiary.

At 6 a. m. they went to work in the brick yard outside of the stone wall of the penitentiary, but inside the plank stockade.

At a preconcerted signal the seven prisoners made a rush to the stockade, and dashed through the planks which had been almost sawed in two from the outside, supposed to be the work of an ex-convict.

These men were the most desperate gang in the south.

Most, a ten year prisoner aged 53 years, from Louisiana, led the escaping party.

THE TRIAL AT RENOVA.

Dreyfus Debounces W. Wilson. Gen. Mercer Talks of Parole.

RENOVA, FRANCE, Aug. 20.—Major Calquest, Gen. de Boledeff and General Goosse—all hostile to Dreyfus—were the witnesses before the Dreyfus court-martial yesterday.

Calquest invited the court's special attention to the doctrine, in which, he said, would be found ample proof of the prisoner's guilt.

At this stage of the proceedings Dreyfus rose and interrupted the witness, shouting: "That's a manifest lie."

General Mercer, who, in the Dreyfus trial, is the virtual prosecutor, made the following expression of his views through his eldest son, who spoke for him, this afternoon: "It is useless to attempt to convert foreign opinion regarding the Dreyfus question, in which, moreover, foreigners have no right to intervene. Foreign peoples have been misled by their press, which is violently Dreyfusard, for the very good reason that a majority of the foreign newspapers have been bribed by the Jewish syndicate. General Mercer considers that anything he might say explaining his position, which is that of a majority of the French people, would be useless."

"The best reply to Dreyfusard statements abroad will be the condemnation of Dreyfus. This condemnation is only a question of 10 days or a fortnight, for condemned Dreyfus will certainly be. Foreigners will then see that their journals have deceived them, for they will recognize that the mass of the French nation, who will receive the news of the conviction of Dreyfus as joyful tidings, is not composed of fools, and that, if the majority of the French applaud the condemnation, it will be because it is just and merited."
