Republican Friends of Settle Say
They Will Do Likewise.

The Blind Asylum. Applications for Space Large. Building Operations. Three Brothers. Tobacco from Winston. Oxford Orphans Did Well.

RALEIGH, September 1.—The position of the Hon. Thomas Settle on the constitutional amendment has caused some sensation. It was altogether unexpected by the Republicans, but no one attacks the sincerity of his purpose or the honesty of his convictions. Secretly they all admire the clean-cut, bold stand that he has taken. In fact, the only harsh criticism, from their standpoint is a statement that Mr. Settle's declaration as to the amendment is his first step towards entering the Democratic ranks.

Six among the leading Republicans of this county went to Mr. Settle and told him that they entirely agreed with him in his present position on the amendment; and they stated that when time is opportune they would have no hesitancy in getting public expression to their views.

Mr. Settle's stand on the amendment needs no analysis. In conversation he spoke somewhat in detail as to the reasons that governed him.

"The present conditions of the Republican party in North Carolina, is not short of disgusting," said he. "We are not able to hold a convention that is not held up to the ridicule of the world. It seems impossible for us to come together in decency and in order. Mind you, it is not a pleasant thing for a respectable white man to be called to order in a convention by a burly, riotous negro. The negro as such must go from politics."

"I believe," he continued, "that the adoption of the amendment will ultimately mean good for the republican party in North Carolina. At any rate, the carrying of it will ensure the adjustment of political differences in a fair and decent manner."

Col. J. F. Armfield has declined not to accept the appointment as major in the Forty-sixth Regiment, now enlisting for service in the Philippines, and has so notified the officials. Private reasons have finally prevented his accepting the offer.

It was expected that the work on the Institution for the White Blind here would be completed by September 1st, but it will not be until October 1st. Superintendent Ray says the institution will therefore not be open until October 1st. He says that if all the extensive additions and alterations are completed by October 1st, he will be well pleased.

Fires in Raleigh are a rarity. There was one yesterday in the grocery store of Dewar & Wilder. It originated in the cellar, and it is said to have been caused by spontaneous combustion of cotton bagging. The fire had smoldered all night, and was discovered at 5:30, and was confined to the cellar. The stock alone was damaged by smoke.

Secretary Joseph E. Fogue says the number of applications for space at the State Fair is far larger than ever before. It is gratifying to see the interest in the fair. Raleigh is to be handsomely decorated and will put its best foot foremost. The State grants a charter to the White Patent Axle and Hub Company, which will have its manufactory either at Wilmington or Greensboro. Its capital stock is $14,000 and the stockholders are B. F. Keith, F. P. White and others.

Senator Butler's newspaper, The Constitution, has some fling at its election law, styling it infamous. The Asheville Gazette is patted on the back and there are more or less direct threats at the constitutional amendment.

The roof timbers of the new First Presbyterian church are being put in place. Work on the Haney Memorial Library building has been checked an entire month because of the failure of a Pennsylvania brick making firm to send some orders of special designs. The entrance to the library is through a pillared portico of brown stone, of antique design. The plate glass, which will be the largest in the State, for the new Tucker office building, have not yet arrived. The cost of the building complete will, it is said, approximate $80,000.

Raleigh's public schools will open on September 10th. Stokes county has three brothers (Southern by name) whose combined age is 200 years. Their respective ages are 83, 87 and 89. These three brothers live in two miles of each other, and are hale and hearty.

Brick-laying was begun last week on the walls of Shelby's new $100,000 cotton mill, and fine progress is being made though the rainy weather has interfered with the work to some extent.

The shipments of manufactured tobacco from Winston this month aggregate over a million and a half pounds. The revenue collections for tobacco amounted to $140,000.

represents the parties contesting the title selected for Winston's government building has recently filed a complaint for his client, preparatory to a suit. The counsel for Mr. Jacobs, owner of the lot, has filed an answer to said complaint.

The board of directors and officers of the Piedmont Park Association, held an enthusiastic meeting at Winston. It was decided to make the grand stand 150 feet long. The capital stock of the association is $5,000, and a committee was appointed to dispose of the unsold stock. The Oxford orphans who are making a tour of the State are certainly making a success of their concert. The manager says that they had cleared over $3,000, and had only been on the road six weeks.

MANY DROPPED FROM ROLLS

Pension List Decreasing On Account Of Deaths of Pensioners.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The annual report of H. Clay Evans, Commissioner of Pensions, shows that during the year ending June 30, 1889, there were added to the pension roll 40,991 names, and 41,186 were dropped, 84,345 of these by reason of death. There was expended for pensions $188,305,082. The annual pension roll amounts to $181,817,961, being $649,496 more than it ever was, due to the higher average annual rate of pensions.

The roll is made up of 758,451 surviving soldiers, 207,415 widows and dependent relatives and 633 nurses. The total number of original applications filed during the year, including those on account of the war with Spain, was 48,765. The number of original claims allowed was 37,077. During the year 107,919 claims of all classes were rejected, a large percentage of these being claims for increase. To secure a more uniform practice in the future, the appointment of a commissioner on the revision of the laws, rules and regulations is recommended.

There are now on the rolls four widows of Revolutionary soldiers, as follows: Esther S. Damon, 85 years old, Vermont; Nancy Jones, 85, Tennessee; Rebecca Mayo, 86, Virginia; Mary Snead, 88, Virginia.

There are also on the rolls seven daughters of Revolutionary soldiers, as follows: Hannah Nowell Barrett, 99 years old, Massachusetts; Susannah Chadwick, 84, Pennsylvania; Sarah C. Hurlburt, 81, Pennsylvania; Eliza Sanford, New Jersey; Ann M. Slaughter, 89, Virginia; Rhoda Augusta Thompson, 78, Connecticut; Augusta Fuller, Connecticut.

Hiram Cronk, of New York, is the only surviving pensioned soldier of the War of 1812. He is 99 years of age and served with the troops from New York.

The number of widows on the rolls, based on the service of their husbands in the War of 1812, is 1,908.

There are 1,655 surviving soldiers and 3,899 widows pensioned, based upon service in the Indian wars, from 1833 to 1842.

For service in the War with Mexico, 9,904 surviving soldiers and 6,175 widows of soldiers who served in that war are pensioned.

Irritating blisters, scratches, wounds and cuts, are healed by DeWitt's Which Heel Salve, a sure and safe application for tormented flesh. Beware of counterfeits. F. B. Duffy.

HALSTEAD HAS SPIRIT.

His Lecture Before the Economic Club Productive of Stirring Results. He Rehearsed an Interesting Questioner.

CINCINNATI, August 31.—Editor Muriel Halstead lectured tonight by invitation before the Economic Club. The audience was miscellaneous in addition to the members of the club, which is largely anti-imperialistic. Mr. Halstead's subject was the Philippines. After the lecture, according to the rules of the club, Mr. Halstead was pelted with questions. One of the questioners, with decided sympathy for Aguinaldo, after his question had been answered, added the remark: "I hope Otis will be kept in and will keep on blundering till he and the whole army are driven into the sea or captured."

Mr. Halstead said: "A man with those sentiments is a traitor to his country." Several men jumped up and remarked: "Two-thirds of this audience thinks that way."

Mr. Halstead replied: "Whoever thinks that way is a traitor."

Then there was a rush down the hall with raised fists toward Mr. Halstead, but a great number of men stepped in between Mr. Halstead and those who were rushing at him. There was a great noise and uproar which disclosed the fact that the audience was composed of men on both sides of that question.

Mr. Halstead was quietly let out of the church by a side door, and taken home. No blows were struck, but chairs and seats were upset, and there were loud threats and great uproariousness.

Treasury Record Broken.

WASHINGTON, August 31.—Today's Treasury statement shows that the net gold on hand was $347,880,001. This is the largest amount in the Treasury at one time in the history of the Department, the next largest amount having been $346,937,094, on December 31, 1888. The situation is accounted for by the fact that during the last two weeks or more the revenues of the Government, of which from 80 to 90 per cent are paid in gold, have largely exceeded the expenditures.
