Low Fare Wanted Late Military Appointments. Carr at the Head of Affairs. Durham is Live by The Mining Chalkier. Some Appointments

RALPHIN, Sept. 2.—Senator Marion Butler tells his friends that as soon as he secures his license as an attorney from the Supreme Court, the last of September, he will go actively into politics and the State campaign. His paper editorially denounces the new Democratic election law as "infamous," and also more or less directly attacks the proposed amendment to the Constitution.

Chairman Brown, of the penitentiary examination committee, says it is not at all near the end of its work. There will be a thorough ventilation of prison management and fraud.

Washington reports the following military appointments from North Carolina for the volunteer regiments, with the named rank and regiment: Captain W. H. Beavers, assigned to Forty third Regiment; First Lieutenant A. V. Brown, Forty fourth Regiment; First Lieutenant B. J. Wooten, Twenty eighth Regiment; First Lieutenant J. N. Gullett, Forty seventh Regiment. All except Captain Beavers, who was in Cuba with the First North Carolina Regiment, were in the Second North Carolina Regiment of Volunteers in the Spanish war.

It is no doubt a fact that General J. S. Carr is interested in, and at the head of, more industrial enterprises than any man in North Carolina, if not in the entire South. It was conceded that if he is not the next United States Senator from this State, it will not be the fault either of the old veterans to whom comfort he has contributed thousands of dollars, or the innumerable others of all sects and creeds to whom he has given timely help throughout the State.

The addition to the already large East Durham cotton mill will bring fifty families to that suburb. The tobacco factories in Durham are all working over time, and are behind in orders. A cigar and cheroot factory has orders ahead for one brand of cheroots amounting to seventy eight thousand. The same condition of things exists in smoking tobacco, cigars, in the cotton mills and the hosiery mill.

Mrs. G. T. Sloan, wife of the missing cashier of the Wilmington Savings and Trust Company, is at Lincolnton, spending the summer. Not until yesterday did she know of her husband's trouble and disappearance. She received a letter from him, with nothing to show from whom it was written. Her husband told her he was broken down and his assistance by reason of overwork, after he had asked for clerical help and declared that he had not taken a cent of money either to the bank or to any depositor. He promises to give her his address in a few days. Then she will urge him to go to Lincolnton and rest.

SIR THOMAS LIPTON ARRIVES.

The Cup Challenger Given a Warm Reception When the Company Reached New York.

NEW YORK, September 1.—The Cunard Line steamship Campania arrived at Quarantine tonight at 7:30 o'clock, and was met in the Narrows by a flotilla of tugs and the steam yacht Erin to greet Sir Thomas Lipton, who was a passenger on the liner. The quarantine commissioners' boat, the State of New York, also appeared on the scene with a large party under the guidance of Commissioner Palmer.

Sir Thomas received an invitation extending the courtesies of sixteen clubs while in this country, and an invitation to lead the marine division of the Dewey Day celebration with his yacht Erin. Both were accepted.

One of the first questions Sir Thomas asked, after the first greeting, was, "How is the Columbia?"

"He then expressed the belief that the best boat would win, saying: 'We felt it a waste of time to come here with any thing but the best boat in England. She is here now. The Shamrock will do her best, and we will try to do better than some people who have been here before.'

When Sir Thomas came over the gang-plank he was received with another great cheer. He took of his cap and bowed, and there was a smile on his face.

"Upon my word, I did not expect this," said he, as Messrs. Fife and Ratsey and a couple of members of the New York Yacht Club, aided by several policemen, made a way for him through the crowd.

"Is this the way they welcome the men who come to get the cup?"

"You're all right, Sir Thomas," shouted a voice.

"I'm glad to hear that, by Jove. I rather think I will be sorry to take that cup, after all," replied Sir Thomas.

"You'll get a run for your money," shouted a voice.

"I don't doubt it," answered Sir Thomas laughingly.

No cup challenger was ever before given a reception that would compare with that accorded to Sir Thomas.
