

To the Public.

I have this day sold to Mr. E. B. Hackburn, the mercantile business carried on by me at No. 47 and 49 Pollock Street, New Bern, N. C., to whom all debts due to said business will be paid, and by whom all contracts made by said business will be filled and all debts due by said business will be paid on presentation.

September 6th, 1899.

J. H. HACKBURN.

I respectfully solicit from the general public a continuance of the very liberal patronage bestowed upon the retiring firm. I hope by faithful attention to business, coupled with close prices and honest goods to merit same.

Yours Very Truly,

E. B. HACKBURN.

A SLOW RATE.

Given By The Railroads For The State Fair In October.

A Big Excursion. Lawyers En Route To Asheville. Volunteers. Cotton Mill Dividend. The New College. Sales To Be First. Davidson Athletics.

RALPH, Sept. 13.—The railroads give the State Fair a low rate of fare. There goes into effect October 14th a rate of one fare for the round trip, good until the 24. Then there goes into effect October 18 and 19th a rate 1 cent a mile, good returning until the 23d. This means a great attendance. The posters for the fair have arrived. They will be put up at every railroad station.

An effort is being made to get a retired army officer as military instructor at the Agricultural and Mechanical College. Students continue to arrive, nine yesterday, eleven today. The steward says rooms are being rented outside. There is no trouble about feeding 100 more students, but there are no quarters. There are at least 100 more applicants for admission yet on the list, he says.

The largest excursion of the season arrived from Wilmington yesterday. There were seventeen cars and something like 1,000 excursionists. It is said there were as many as 150 in some cars.

The corporation commission calls for a report from the State, savings and private banks up to September 7th.

Raleigh has sent a strong delegation of attorneys to Asheville to appear in the big case there—F. M. Simmons, Robert O. Burton, J. H. Poo, F. H. Busbee, Charles M. Busbee, W. C. Douglas, James C. MacRae, R. H. Battle, James E. Shepherd and J. C. L. Harris. Then there are A. D. Ward, of New Bern; H. G. Connor, of Wilson; Charles A. Cook, of Warrenton; George Rountree, of Wilmington; Charles Price, of Salisbury.

Captain Beavers of Raleigh, has so far secured eleven men for his regiment, which is at Fort Ethan Allen, Vt. He expects to get fourteen more.

The Carolina Cotton Mills here today declared a semi-annual dividend of 1 per cent.

Rapid progress is now being made on the fitting up of the Baptist Church University here. The building is a large one. It is admirably located and lighted. The furniture, except the beds, is of North Carolina oak, the beds being of iron. A great many of the rooms have been furnished by individual sales or Sunday schools or churches. Cards are on the doors giving the names of the donors. The laboratory and recitation rooms are on the ground floor. Later a laboratory will be built. There is one dormitory building, but two more are needed. The dining room is on the second floor and the chapel on the third.

Commissioner Patterson expresses his regret at the decline in crop conditions as shown by the report issued yesterday. He desired greatly that the State should make a fair showing in the next census.

It is decided by the Governor that an admiral's salute of 17 guns shall be fired here on the arrival of Dewey at New York. The salute will be fired in the capitol square, upon a telegraphic signal from New York.

North Carolina cotton mills and other manufacturers are to a great extent insured in the New England mutual insurance companies. It has been reported that the latter would cease to do business here, but it is said tonight that they will continue to operate through a North Carolina mutual company now being organized by manufacturers.

The State charters the Windemere Knitting Mill, at Albemarle, Stanly county, capital $30,000; the York & Wadsworth Hardware Company, of Concord, capital $50,000. It also charters the Waynesville board of trade, to develop that town.

Dr. Martin addressed the student body at Davidson College, and outlined the athletic policy of the college for the ensuing year. Four foot ball games will be played this fall. Notable among these will be the game with the University, in Charlotte, October 25th; and the one with South Carolina College in Columbia on Thanksgiving Day. No student will be allowed to compete for a place on the team who falls below the passing mark in his studies.

Judge Parnell has gone to Lynchburg to hold court for Judge Paul.

Chester H. Brown, Kalamazoo, Mich. says: "Kofol Dyspepsia Cure cured me of a severe case of indigestion; can strongly recommend it to all dyspeptics. Digests what you eat without aid from the stomach, and cures dyspepsia. F. S. Duffy."

A. & N. C. Stockholders Meeting. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad Co. will be held in Morehead City, N. C., on Thursday, Sept. 28, 1899. D. M. Spawton, Sec. and Treas.

DREYFUS IS COMPOSED. Movement in Many Places Against the French Expedition.

HEKKEK, September 13—Matthias Dreyfus has returned here and visited his brother this morning in the prison. He found him still beating up well. The prisoner has received an enormous number of letters of sympathy since Saturday and he passed the greater part of the day in reading them.

LONDON, September 13—The movement to boycott the Paris Exposition continues. Several additional firms announced this afternoon their intention to suspend preparation of their exhibits until the Dreyfus blot is wiped out.

TORONTO, September 13—A meeting of the Canadian commissioners of The Paris Exposition has been called for tomorrow at Ottawa.

It is expected that in consequence of the result of the Dreyfus trial steps may be taken at the meeting to boycott the Exposition, especially by the English speaking people.

WASHINGTON, September 12—About a thousand persons attended a mass meeting at the Masonic Temple tonight to protest against the verdict in the Dreyfus case, pledging those present to use every lawful and proper means to prevent the operation of this country in the Paris Exposition.

CHICAGO, September 12—Indignation over the outcome of the Dreyfus trial has caused a party of over 700 Chicagoans who were going to the fair in a body to abandon their trip. Today notices were issued to the members to call at the Treasurer's office and get their money back.
