WILL NORTH CAROLINA AGAIN SUPPLY DEMAND?

The reports from Baltimore already indicate that there will be a scarcity in the oyster supply for that market for the coming season. In consequence of this outlook it is quite natural that the oyster men are feeling blue over the outlook for their business. The old oyster beds seem to be depleted, and as no oyster beds have been planted the result is seen in small stocks and a poor season. The importance of all this to North Carolina is apparent to any one familiar with the oyster business, or who has read and kept posted on how this State does not value its oysters. The Journal has often called attention to the fact that legislation seems to fall where it should be strong to protect, encourage and assist in developing this splendid natural and abundant industry, the oyster, which abounds on the eastern shores of this State. The consequence of this neglect is apparent every season, when oysters are in demand. It has been done before and will be again, the taking of the North Carolina oyster to Norfolk and Baltimore, and giving a new label to the oyster and sending it to consumers under the brand of Norfolk or Baltimore. If it was known as North Carolina it would not be received with favor, not because of its size or flavor, but simply because it has no reputation under such a name. Take any interior town of North Carolina where oysters are sold, and what does the consumer ask for? North Carolina oysters? Never, but some "choice Norfolk oysters," and the chances are North Carolina oysters are given, but with the Norfolk label. The above notes of scarcity at Baltimore will undoubtedly lead to North Carolina oysters supplying that market this winter, and consumers will buy and eat them under any other name but North Carolina. Who will be the rescuer of the North Carolina oyster from his present ignominious condition, and place this luscious bivalve where it rightly belongs, and under its own true name?

BeWARE OF Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists, price 75c. per bottle. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

What do you mean by that?

"What do you mean by that?" she asked. "Why, just this; if all the wind used to blow the froth from foaming steels could be united in one concerted effort it would lift those tall yachts right out of the water. When our boys were almost dead from whooping cough, our doctor gave One Minute Cough Cure. They recovered rapidly," writes P. B. Belles, Argyle, Pa. It cures coughs, colds, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. F. S. Duffy.

What is that?

"What is that?" queried his companion. "Why, a man can get as tight as he pleases every day and everybody will think he is only seash." answered the traveler. "I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Mansfield, of Beaumont, Texas. There are many thousands of mothers whose children have been saved from stacks of dysentery and cholera infantum who must also feel thankful. It is for sale by F. S. Duffy & Co.

Every Well Man Hath His Ill Day.

A doctor's examination might show that kidneys, liver and stomach are normal, but the doctor cannot analyse the blood upon which these organs depend. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies, vitalizes and enriches the blood. It cures you when "a bit off" or when seriously afflicted. It never disappoints. "My husband had dyspepsia and Hood's Sarsaparilla cured him. Our little boy was nervous and the baby had whooping cough. It cured both." Mrs. Emma Ross, Portage, Pa. "I could not eat for some months on account of indigestion and indigestion. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me. I can eat and sleep well." Mrs. G. A. Owen, Taylor and Walnut Sts., Wilmington, Del.

Reaches Back to Adam.

The emperor of Japan is entitled to be considered the most aristocratic ruler on earth. The royal family of Japan has a genealogical tree which reaches back to Adam. There have been 121 emperors of Japan, and they all belong to this family. The first one governed Japan just about 2,500 years ago. He was on the throne 300 years before Alexander the Great thought he had conquered the world. The Japanese have the history of all of their emperors from that time down to this, and they assure you that the mikado is a direct descendant of the first emperor.

Then There Was Trouble.

A well dressed, ladylike looking woman entered a car the other day with her little boy of about 6 years of age. On the conductor coming to collect the fares the lady handed her little son a quarter, he being nearer the door. The little fellow examined the coin carefully, and then gave it to the conductor. Scarcely had the man returned the change than the youngster clapped his hands and, looking at his mother, exclaimed triumphantly: "Mamma, mamma, he has taken the bad quarter!"

Why Are All Widows "Charming"?

"Now, I should like to ask you why men always speak of a widow as a 'charming widow,'" said a pretty Kirkwood girl. "There is a young widow at Kirkwood, and I am free to admit that she is charming, but she isn't any more charming than a dozen - yes, than at least 30 - Kirkwood girls whom I could mention, and yet I have never heard a man refer to her except as the 'charming widow.'" - St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
