Official Paper of New Bern and Craven County.

New Bern, N. C., Nov. 11, 1899.

HOW TWO NEWSPAPERS REGARD THE ELECTION.

Probably the most interesting study of last Tuesday's elections is found in the editorial expressions of the Charlotte Observer and the Raleigh News-Observer, both admirably edited dailies, and the leaders among North Carolina dailies.

This study reveals to a high degree the temperaments of the writers which go to make each paper peculiarly different from its fellow.

The Charlotte paper states its opinion in its title of editorial, "Not a Democratic Day," while the Raleigh daily takes nearly a column to define its idea of the elections.

Both papers are gratified over the Maryland Democratic victory.

On Nebraska, the Charlotte daily says: "The result in Nebraska is a victory for Mr. Bryan but not for the Democratic party, since the successful candidate for the principal office to be filled by the election is not Democrat but a Populist, and the combined elements of opposition to the Republicans in Nebraska were always, during the campaign, spoken of as 'the fusionists.'"

The News-Observer on the same State says: "In Nebraska Mr. Bryan has had to fight for his life, so to speak. Since 1896, the Republican party of the country has sought by every means it could command to take Nebraska from Bryan. In 1898 they reduced the majority for Governor to 2,700 and carried the Legislature, and expected by the lavish use of money and by intimidation and coercion to win a signal victory. Their failure to do so is a crushing blow to their hopes, and a wonderful victory for Bryan. The warfare has been so persistent against Mr. Bryan in his own State that the fight has been rather one for Bryan and against Bryan than for or against a political party. Nebraska is proud of being the home of the greatest living American statesman and in the face of the greatest opposition any man has had to encounter, Bryan emerges victorious. If the election had resulted otherwise, he would still have been the nominee in 1900, but his home victory makes him the unquestioned leader and the President of the United States on the Fourth of March 1901."

On Ohio, the Charlotte Observer says: "The sine of the Republican majority—about 50,000—in Ohio, is a surprise, and there is the more occasion for this when it is known that Jones, Schollist, drew more votes from the Republican candidate for Governor than from the Democratic party. Nebraska is proud of being the home of the greatest living American statesman and in the face of the greatest opposition any man has had to encounter, Bryan emerges victorious. If the election had resulted otherwise, he would still have been the nominee in 1900, but his home victory makes him the unquestioned leader and the President of the United States on the Fourth of March 1901."

The News-Observer says: "In Ohio the contest has assumed a like national interest because the Democrats have waged an aggressive campaign against McKinley's policy. A week ago they had won a decisive victory. At the last minute, by the methods that won in 1896, it seems that the Republicans have elected their candidate for Governor by a reduced majority. It is a dearly bought victory, but one that will be regarded by Republicans as an endorsement of the President's policy."

The Observer says on Kentucky: "There is no substantial reason apparent for doubting that Taylor, Republican, is elected Governor of Kentucky. It is true that Mr. Goebel and ex-Senator Blackburn are still claiming the State for the former, but Western Union returns tell another and doubtless more accurate story. A good many back counties are, however, yet to be heard from, and upon some of these the Goebel election law may get in its due work and change the count, but there are hardly enough unreported counties for this law to be made effective in behalf of its author."

The Raleigh daily says, "This year their success was certain, but for an unfortunate conflict within the party. The revolt against Goebel, fanned by the Louisville and Nashville railroad, has made the result in grave doubt from the first. The State is certain to vote for Bryan in 1900 and the Legislature, if Democratic will elect Blackburn to the Senate. The vote for Governor at this writing appears to be very close and it may take the official returns to determine whether Goebel or Taylor is elected Governor."

Here are the two opinions, the one hard, practical, reasoning with facts; the other enthusiastic and hopeful, predicting sure success for Bryan and Democracy in 1900.

As before said the comparisons above made are interesting studies, and while not forecasts on their part, they present two views of the same subject from different Democratic points of view.

Migrating Birds. The distances over which birds migrate vary between wide limits and are often surprisingly great. The bobolinks, which rear their young on the shores of Lake Winnipeg and go to Cuba and Porto Rico to spend the winter, twice traverse a distance exceeding 2,800 miles, or more than a fifth of the circumference of our earth, each year. The kingbird lays its eggs as far north as the fifty-seventh degree of latitude and is found in the winter in South America. The biennial plumages of the little reedling exceed 3,000 miles and the tiny humming bird 2,000.

A Money Saver. When you flip a coin with the other fellow and win, don't stop to argue with the other fellow as to whether "dates is heads" or "dates are heads" is correct. Go on flipping till you begin to lose. Then start up the argument. This money saving device is not patented.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Not Up on French. French Yagran-Pouves vous me donner quelque chose pour manger, madame? American Lady—You impudent scoundrel, how dare you call me names like that? Why, I could have you arrested if I chose.—Ohio State Journal.

Must Have Been Born Lucky. "How did you make out with that effort to break your uncle's will?" "Fine! After it was all settled up and the lawyers had the estate I didn't owe them a cent."—Chicago Times-Herald.

His Drawback. A minister having preached a very long sermon, as was his custom, some hours after asked a gentleman his candid opinion of it, to which the latter remarked that "twas good, but it had spoiled a goose worth two of it."

MOZLEY'S LEMON ELIXIR. A Pleasant Lemon Tonic. Cures indigestion, headache, malaria, kidney disease, fever, chills, loss of appetite, debility, nervous prostration and heart failure, by regulating the Liver, Stomach, Bowels and Kidneys.

Mozley's Lemon Elixir. Cured me of indigestion. I had suffered for ten years. I had tried almost every medicine, but all failed. Since taking Lemon Elixir I can eat anything I like. W. A. GRIFFITH, Heevesville, S. C.

Mozley's Lemon Elixir. Cured me of indigestion and heart disease, after years of suffering when all other remedies and doctors had failed. N. D. COLEMAN, Deniah, S. C.

Mozley's Lemon Elixir. I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia for about fifteen years, my trouble being my liver, stomach and bowels, with terrible headaches. Lemon Elixir cured me. My appetite is good, and I am well. I had taken a barrel of other medicines, that done me no good. CHARLES GIBBARD, No. 1515 Jefferson St., Louisville, Ky.

Mozley's Lemon Elixir. Cured me of enlarged liver, nervous indigestion and heart disease. I was unable to walk up stairs or to do any kind of work. I was treated by many physicians, but got no better until I used Lemon Elixir. I am now healthy and vigorous. C. H. BALDWIN, No. 98 Alexander St., Atlanta, Ga.

MOZLEY'S LEMON HOT DROPS. Cures all Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Hemorrhages, and all throat and lung diseases. Elegant and reliable. 25c at druggists. Prepared only by Dr. H. Mozley, Atlanta, Ga.

Punctured. A little German town boy who is just learning to ride a bicycle heard a stuttering man talk the other day for the first time. Turning to his father he remarked: "Say, Pop, that man has a puncture in his speech, hasn't he?"

F. S. Duffy & Co. guarantees every 100 lbs of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to any one who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for all coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

No Lonely Feeling. Wiggs—Why does Bjones have that photograph going all the time? It's awful. Wiggs—Well, you see his wife's away, and when he has the photograph going he says he doesn't miss her so much.

A friend in need is a friend indeed. That is exactly what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is. It is the mother's help when she is suddenly weakened in the night by the outrageous hoarse cough, and labor breathing of her babe. It is the safe rest of the youth or adult when he has "caught cold" and there is something and irritation of the mucous membrane of the throat. It always irritates and cures the cold. For sale by F. S. Duffy & Co.

When the Baytown ship at the Legation House for good accommodations.

"Every Well Man Hath His Ill Day." A doctor's examination might show that kidneys, liver and stomach are normal, but the doctor cannot analyze the blood upon which these organs depend.

Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies, vitalizes and enriches the blood. It cures you when "a bit off" or when seriously afflicted. It never disappoints.

Dyspepsia.—My husband had dyspepsia and Hood's Sarsaparilla cured him. Our little boy was nervous and the baby had ulcers on his face. It cured both. Mrs. Emma Bras, Portage, Pa.

Indigestion.—I could not get for some months on account of distress and indigestion. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me so that I can eat and sleep well. Mrs. G. A. Green, Taylor and Walnut Sts., Wilmington, Del.

Hood's Sarsaparilla NEVER DISAPPOINTS. Hood's Pills cure liver ill, the non-irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mostly Gossiped. Mrs. Henpeck—A husband and wife should be of one mind. Mr. Henpeck—Yes; and it isn't hard to tell who's going to do the minding.

"Life Renewer" For Ladies. Oliver Peterson, of Coldwater, Mich., writes: "I had not been able to sit up a half day at a time for thirteen years until I used the Myrtle Life Renewer. It has cured me of nervous troubles, headache and a very bad stomach. It has helped me in so many ways, and cured me of ailments that the doctors said could not be cured. The blessed Life Renewer has done more for me than all the Patent Medicines, Doctors and Christian Science treatments combined. It is the most wonderful medicine I ever saw." Sold by T. A. Henry, druggist, New Bern.

Hoax—That fellow, Harduppe, bones everybody. He's a regular skin. Joak—Yes; he's nothing but skin and bones.

Used by British Soldiers in Africa. Capt. C. G. Dennison is well known all over Africa as commander of the forces that captured the famous rebel Gaidis. Under date of November 4, 1897, from Vryburg, Bechuanaland, he writes: "Before starting on the last campaign I bought a quantity of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used myself when troubled with bowel complaint, and had given to my men, and in every case it proved most beneficial." For sale by F. S. Duffy & Co.

Relief At Hand. My path in life is not strewn with roses remarked the beggar. Then here's a coat remarked the kind-hearted old lady.

J. D. Bridges, Editor "Democrat" Lancaster, N. H., says, "One Minute Cough Cure is the best remedy for cough I ever used." Immediately relieves and cures coughs, colds, croup, asthma, pneumonia, bronchitis, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. It prevents consumption. F. S. Duffy.

The First Request. "What's the first thing to learn about golf?" "Blobs"—"To pronounce it as though it rained with cough."

Chamberlain's Pain Balm Cures Others, Why Not You? My wife has been using Chamberlain's Pain Balm, with good results, for a lame shoulder that has pained her continually for nine years. We have tried all kinds of medicines and doctors without receiving any benefit from any of them. One day we saw an advertisement of this medicine and thought of trying it, which we did with the best of satisfaction. She has used only one bottle and her shoulder is almost well.—ADOLPH L. MILLART, Manchester, N. H. For sale by F. S. Duffy & Co.

One Exception. Lots of people who say they don't believe in signs will shy at one which reads "Paint."

Relief in Six Hours. Distressing Kidney and Bladder Diseases relieved in six hours by "New Great South American Kidney Cure." It is a great surprise on account of its exceeding promptness in relieving pain in bladder, kidneys and back. In male or female follows retention of water almost immediately. If you want quick relief and cure this is the remedy. Sold by G. D. Bradburn, druggist, New Bern, N. C.

One Disadvantage. One of the disadvantages of being a free-born American citizen is that you have so many bosses.

The Leisure Well. Sick to heart, remarked the brewer, and you won't see me. Perhaps not replied the legislator, but here is fall of hope and between frogs and snakes I prefer snakes.

Dr. E. B. Dabbs' Salt Solution. May be worth to you more than $100 if you have a pain which will not yield from any of the usual remedies. It is a simple and safe remedy for all kinds of rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, etc. It is sold by F. S. Duffy & Co.

Convent the Curious Tooth. "Paving over the unclaimed mail is a favorite amusement among a certain set of idle youths," said a hotel clerk yesterday. "Any letters for So-and-so" they will ask, giving an imaginary name, their object being apparently to gratify their curiosity by studying the superscription and reading the contents. Last fall an idiot of that type received a severe lesson here in this house. He made the usual request, giving rather a peculiar name, which he afterward admitted he had thought of on the spur of the moment. By a remarkable coincidence two central office detectives were standing near the desk at the time, and the name he gave was that of a noted crook who was wanted by the police of Chicago very badly.

"Without a word more than was necessary they took the young gentleman by the arm and carried him off to police headquarters. He was so astonished that he was unable to make a coherent explanation and really presented a picture of guilt. His story at headquarters under an assumed name was regarded as so improbable that they held him until telegraphic inquiries could be made. Of course it turned out that he was not the Chicago crook, but he got the scare of his life, and you may rest assured that he has dropped that form of amusement from his indulgences."—New York News.

He Wasn't "Soaked." "When I go over to the old country I am going to get a lot of clothes to bring back with me," said a well known Windsorite, who went abroad recently.

"Oh," said his hearer, "if that is the case, I have a brother who is a tailor in London, and I will give you a letter of introduction and write him telling him to use your right."

In course of time the traveler stepped into the tailor shop in London and presented his letter of introduction. He got a warm handshake from the tailor, who said he had received a letter from his brother telling of the traveler's expected arrival, but could not understand part of the letter. The letter, when produced, read:

"Dear Brother—The bearer, Mr. —, is from our place and wishes to get a lot of clothes in London. He has all sorts of money. Soak him. Yours affectionately."

"If there is anything I dislike," remarked Colonel Stilwell, wiping his mustache with impressive deliberation, "it is a bigoted person. Some of the people at my home in Kentucky came very near inking permanent offense at me, but I held out and finally convinced them."

"It was the old controversy. Somebody mentioned water, and Judge Morgan stated his opinion that it was something that ought to be abolished. The major argued for its use in moderation, but the judge wouldn't have it. I was sorry to disagree with the judge, but I stated my arguments and clinched them so that he had to give in. I called his attention to the great achievements which all the world is now engaged in applauding. I recalled to his mind the glories of our naval heroes, the men who are so proud of their country, the men of whom their country is so proud. Then I pointed my finger at the judge and asked him how those naval heroes could have done these glorious deeds if there hadn't been plenty of water for them to sail their ships on."—Washington Star.

Trains, Worry, Disease and Death. Train trains are a source of annoyance to everybody. The British Medical Journal dwells upon the very serious result produced by them upon the health of travelers. The rush to the station to catch the train which may perchance be punctual; the weary wait on drafty platforms or in stuffy waiting rooms; the dilatory journey—all these, we are told, add seriously to the labor of the day even in the best of times, but when the weather is cold and damp they are still more injurious and in that they are largely responsible for those "colds" as they are called, those conditions of depressed vitality which are the starting points of most of the acute diseases from which men suffer and from which the elderly and the feeble die.

Geniality Courtesy. Surface manners are like cut flowers stuck in a shallow glass with just enough water to keep them fresh an hour or so; but the courtesy that has its growth in the heart is like the rose-bush in the garden that no inclement season can kill and no dark day force to forego the unfolding of a bud.

Wonderful Development. "What's the development of the sense of touch in the blind is something always a wonder to me.

Getter—I have it pretty well developed myself. I have got to call a borrower two blocks away.—Indianapolis Journal.

Nomenclature. "Have you studied any language beside English?" "Yes," answered Miss Cayenne, "three—golf, baseball and yachting."—Washington Star.

The man who reaches the railroad station two minutes after time and sees the train standing out of the other end derives no satisfaction from the prospect. "Better late than never,"—Duffin (Add.) Herald.
