WILL HAVE MONEY.

Treasurer Worth Will Probably Pay Over The Public School Fund.

A Very Young Convict. The Blue Ridge National Park. A Big Railroad Bill. Concert to Buy Uniforms.

RALEIGH, Nov. 23.—State Superintendent Mcbane says he believes that when January 1st arrives Father Worth will pay the $100,000 appropriated from the public fund for the public schools. It is decided to be his duty to see Father Worth he will ask for a mandamus, but he thinks the officials in the counties to whose order he will draw the warrants on the State Auditor are the persons to institute the suits.

President William A. Graham, of the State Farmers' Alliance, calls on all the sub-alliance to send delegates to the State convention of tobacco growers here December 6th. It is well known that one of the special purposes of this convention is to fight the American Tobacco Company, which is easily the most cordially hated trust in the State.

A boy 13 years old arrived at the penitentiary yesterday, from Rutherford, to serve four years, for taking the bolts out of a railroad track for the purpose of wrecking a train. A white man from the same county gets five years for burning a store.

Senator Bulter arrived here on his way to Asheville, to attend the Inter-State meeting which will memorialize Congress to make a national park in the Blue Ridge Region of North Carolina.

One of the oldest letters secretary of State Thompson has ever received reached him from John A. Graham, of New Wood. Mr. Graham says he will sue the superintendent of the Western Hospital for damages of not less than $15,000. He says he has asked for the papers on which he was committed, but can't get them. He says he will serve papers on some of the inmates of the hospital. In conclusion he says that unless the State settles damages with him he will have the matter pressed in the Supreme Court. Dr. Thompson filed the letter in the "archives of gravity."

Editor Bailey, of the Biblical Recorder says it appears that the State Baptist Convention at Asheville will be nothing less than a jubilee. He says that heroic efforts are being made to raise the $5,000 for the mission fund. It appears that it will be secured. There is $30,000 of this fund. For all purposes the Convention raises $100,000.

Dr. A. J. Buffalo, of Raleigh, has filed his appeal to the Supreme Court in the case in which the Superior court gave his wife a partial divorce.

The outlook for a new theatre here does not appear to be bright just now. State Labor Commissioner Lacy is called as an expert witness in a suit to be heard at Smithfield, in which a railroad employe sues for $80,000 damages for an injury.

The ladies here will give a concert to money to buy uniforms, drums, etc., for the drum corps of L. O. B. Branch Camp C. V.

The cost of the smallpox pest house and detention camp here last spring was $6,400. The county at last agrees to pay $2,000 of this. The buildings are the property of the city.

The Olivia Haney Memorial Library, which R. H. Haney is building, has the following officers, elected this week: Richard H. Battle, president; Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshall, vice president; F. P. Haywood, Jr., secretary; Herbert W. Jackson, secretary. The library building will not be ready for occupancy until in the spring.

AMERICA CHEERED.

Demonstration in an English Theatre. The Flags Entertained.

LONDON, November 21.—At the Empire Theatre tonight there was an American demonstration. The Rev. Mr. Foster and Mr. Hitchcock, of the Empire Theatre, engaged Mrs. James Brown Foster to make a stirring competition in verse by Henry Hamilton. The whole of the house was crowded to overflowing. In the boxes were Lady Randolph Churchill and her younger son, John, with other prominent in society.

When Mrs. Foster appeared in white satin trimmed with sable and with a red rose in her hair, she was observed. On each side of her stood a soldier in khaki uniform, one holding the English flag, the other the Stars and Stripes.

Mrs. Foster was nervous, which is not to be wondered at, with such an audience. It was just touch and go whether she would break down or not, but she went through the piece, which is called "Ode to the Stars and Stripes," in due declamatory style. Then, when she closed with the final words, "God save the Queen," she broke down completely as she whole lower jaw and sang "God save the Queen" nine and nine times again.

Mrs. Foster was recalled. When she returned went up the second time she clasped the two flags and wound them together. At this the audience made another wildly enthusiastic demonstration.

A ROUGH CAMPAIGN.

The Pursuit of Aguinaldo a Hard One. The Effort Made to End the War.

MANILA, Nov. 21.—The whereabouts of General Lawton and Young is becoming as mysterious as Aguinaldo. The belief is beginning to grow in Manila that General Lawton has struck the trail of the insurgent "government" and is pursuing the ministers into the Bisquet mountains. It has been his ambition to capture the Filipino leaders, and he and General Young believe that a cavalry brigade, living on the country could run them down to any part of the island.

One vague report brought by Spanish prisoners is that Aguinaldo and others were nearly surrounded by Americans soon after the insurgent chief left Tarlac, but he escaped through the lines in peasant's clothing. Officers and soldiers arriving at Cabanatuan from General Lawton's force describe the campaign as one of the great hardships. Many men were nearly starved and were left at various points without adequate supplies and at times some of them making their way back across the terrible roads.

A number of horses were dying and many of the soldiers, and even some of the officers, were marching on half rations, their clothes having been torn to pieces in getting through the jungles. Some of them were reduced almost to mere skeletons and hundreds were bare footed, their shoes being worn out and all were living on any sort of provisions. Bread was scarce and cerabao most and bananas were the staples.

General Lawton feared that the campaign would involve such hardships, but he considered the quickest and cheapest way of ending the war.

The last number of the day before the Americans entered that place contains a dependent bibliography entitled "Adieu." The tone of the article showed the writer considered the game as played out. He said: "Obliged by circumstances, we have found it necessary to interrupt with this number the pleasant labors of defending our ideal and interests. We leave of the public and our readers with great most profound and bitterness most cruel."

"I had dyspepsia fifty-seven years and never found permanent relief till I used Koder Dyspepsia Cure. Now I am well and feel like a new man," writes S. J. Fleming, Murry, Neb. It is the best digestant known. Cures all forms of indigestion. Physicians everywhere prescribe it. P. S. Duffy.

THE DEWEY HOME.

The People's Gift is Now The Property of The Admirals Son.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—George Goodwin Dewey, Admiral Dewey's only son, is now the owner of the residence presented to the Admiral by the American people. Papers were prepared and signed early today by which Mrs. Mildred McLean Dewey transfers all rights and titles to the property known as 1747 Rhode Island avenue, this city to George Goodwin Dewey.

This is the property which yesterday Admiral Dewey transferred to Mrs. Dewey. The papers making the new transfer probably will be placed on file tomorrow morning.

In explanation of the transaction practically completed today, a relative of the Dewey family made the following statement to the Associated Press: "Admiral and Mrs. Dewey have transferred to the former's son, George Goodwin Dewey, the title of the home presented to the Admiral by the people of this country. It will continue to be the home of Admiral and Mrs. Dewey so long as he may live."

"It may be desirable now to say that it was the wish of both the Admiral and Mrs. Dewey to provide for a proper succession to the property. The transfer of today completes the transaction begun yesterday, and is the carrying out only of the original intention of both the Admiral and Mrs. Dewey."

By all those interested in the matter the method of transfer adopted was considered the best and safest that could have been adopted. It is to be considered, naturally that the transfer was to be in favor of Mrs. Dewey, as well as of the Admiral. It was her desire that she should release any claim she might have to the property through her marriage to the Admiral, and to do this the transfer was made through her to the Admiral's son as soon as was practical.

"Through the method adopted no dispute ever can arise over the disposition of the property."

First Battle of Buller's Campaign Likely to Occur There.

LONDON, November 21.—The eyes of English strategists are now fixed on the territory of the Orange River, De Asaar Junction, Queenstown and Allwal North. Here it is believed will be fought the first battle of General Buller's campaign.

The British have blocked the Boer advance along this line and a few days are expected to bring news of starting the movement to hurt the invaders back.

The Boers are in force north of Hope-town and Orange River, but the British force at the latter place prevents their further advance in that direction. The burghers are also at Colesburg, but the British block the way south at Naauwpoort.

Pretoria, November 21 (via Lorenzo Marques).—Monday's report from General Joubert's headquarters, which was presented to the Transvaal council of war today, says:

"Heavy gun firing was heard in the direction of Estcourt on Saturday, and continuous rifle firing is proceeding south of Ladysmith.

"A small sortie from Ladysmith this morning was repulsed. The Transvaal heavy guns fired a number of shells into the town this afternoon.

Ererour, Nov. 21.—While the Boers have retired from the camp outside of Estcourt, they have established a new camp to the south of this place, between Willow Grange railway station and the highlands.

They are reported to have four guns and to suffering from bad commissariat arrangements, both as regards food and clothing.
