GERMANY WRATHY.

Seizure Of A Mail Steamer By British Cruiser At Aden.

Emperor William Demands Reparation. No Reply Yet Made. Usual Skirmishing Near Lady-smith. Gen. French Reinforced.

BERLIN, January 4.—The German Imperial mail steamer General has been seized by the British at Aden, Arabia. This has caused a storm of indignation here, as it follows other similar incidents.

The Berliner Tageblatt says: "The measure of patience of the German nation is full. Does England want to drive Germany violently into the arms of the Russo-French coalition?"

The Lokal Anzeiger says: "England has always carried out a ruthless maritime policy, and whenever her interests demanded it has always violated the rights of others. Before the German steamer Bunderath was captured recently a number of other ships, Russian, American and French, were taken. It is to be hoped that the powers will unite for their common protection. For this however, France and Germany must give up distrusting each other."

Emperor William is now thoroughly aroused by the repeated seizures of vessels, not one of which, he has been assured, is guilty of carrying contraband. He regards the seizures as high handed proceedings which England would not have dared to undertake if the German navy were more powerful than it is. He has, therefore, instructed Count von Bulow, the Foreign Secretary, to demand exact and full reparation for the outrage done to the German flag.

No answer that is considered satisfactory has yet been received from London, and according to advices here none is to be expected for several days longer.

London, Jan. 4.—The Daily Telegraph has received the following dispatch from South Africa:

Frere Camp, Natal, Jan. 4.—General Buller's big army guns today shelled the Colenso lines again. One missile burst in a trench, causing the Boers to scramble quickly. Another exploded among a drove of horses, killing several of them and stampeding the remainder.

Nineteen Kaffirs who had escaped from the Boer lines have come here from Colenso. They say the Boers are short of supplies, and that the commandants treated them so badly that they could stand it no longer.

Parties of scouts now proceeded daily toward the Tugela, engaging the Boer guards. The Boers continue to bombard Ladysmith.

Pains, Jan. 4.—A report was current on the Bourse today that General Buller had met another check in his efforts to relieve the British garrison at Ladysmith.

London, Jan. 4.—There is great satisfaction here at the news that De Aar has been able to send to General French reinforcements of guns and infantry, of which he appears to be much in need.

The fighting in the hills is incessant. The latest telegrams say General French has almost surrounded Colenso, but that the Boers are stiffly defending all their positions close to the town, preventing the British from capturing it.

A dispatch from Rensburg says the heavy artillery duel has recommenced.

Last Honors to Lawton.

WASHINGTON, January 4.—Public services will attend the burial of the remains of General Lawton at Arlington. It has been suggested to the President that he close the Government departments on the day and make the occasion an official event. It is expected that the body will reach Washington early in February.

The Lawton Fund.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Subscriptions to the Lawton fund closed tonight. The total amount received will be in the neighborhood of $60,000, which makes it certain that the widow and children of the gallant officer will be well provided for.

Democrats Prepared To Meet Any Moves The Fusionists May Make.

Masonic Temple at Wilson. Bar Association Meeting June 27th. The Rocky Mount Postoffice. The Marshall Counter-fetting Case.

RALEIGH, Jan. 5.—Some of the eastern Republicans appear to think their piedmont and western brethren "know it all" and are managing it as to the action regarding the election law. One of them said that he would like to know on what ground the Republicans would apply for an injunction to prevent the new election law from being carried into effect.

The Democrats are masters of the situation and when the Legislature meets in June it will checkmate any Republican work.

The Asheville Gazette now has a correspondent here who came here from Washington City. No Republican is now considered orthodox unless he takes the Gazette. In fact, it is considered good form for a Republican to have a copy always in his breast-pocket and to wrap the baby in it when the youngster is first weighed.

The executive committee of the State Democratic Press Association met here yesterday with State Chairman Simmons and made excellent arrangements for the publication of campaign matter and for reaching the voters.

At Wilson Grand Master Richard J. Noble laid the cornerstone and dedicated the Masonic Temple. The building is completed and a space was left for the cornerstone.

The investigation of the freight rate matter, before Special Master Martin continues. Several fertilizer men were on the witness stand.

The new trains which the Seaboard Air Line will use on its New York-Tampa service have arrived at Portsmouth. It is said by officials that they will undoubtedly be running by February 1st. The Seaboard Air Line is making the greatest possible effort to get laborers to work on its new lines.

The commissioner of insurance reports as new licensees 29 life, 82 fire, 13 accidental and surety companies and 19 fraternal orders.

The executive committee of the North Carolina Bar Association met here yesterday and decided to hold its next annual meeting in Asheville on June 27. The Seaboard Air Line values the Carolina Central Railroad at $3,000,000, while the corporation commission values it at $1,800,000.

The negro assistant to ex-Postmaster Israel Hargett, colored, at Rocky Mount, is implicated in the embezzlement of funds. As stated, Hargett acknowledges the shortage. He is out on bond.

In the Federal Court yesterday was devoted to the trial of A. J. Marshall of Wilmington, on the charge of counterfeiting silver dollars, half dollars and quarters. There are nine witnesses for the government and some 60 for Marshall. The chief witness against Marshall was Nicholas Politz, a Greek, who was brought from the penitentiary to testify. He was in citizen's clothing, Marshall sat among his attorneys, his wife being beside him. Politz swore Marshall bought counterfeiting materials and together with a Greek named Catosobolos made counterfeit money night after night in a room over Politz's store. Politz said he saw them making it, but swore he never circulated any of it. The defence was "leaded" for Politz and he was given a severe cross examination. Counsel for the defence say openly that there is politics in this case and that it is an attempt to down Marshall for this reason. Marshall is a Democrat and a great supporter of Congressman Bellamy.

L. T. Travis, Agent Southern R. R. Selma, Ga., writes, "I can not say too much in praise of One Minute Cough Cure. In my case it worked like a charm." The only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, and all throat and lung troubles. F. S. Duffy.

MORGAN WILL DEFEND US.

The Senator From Alabama Will Answer Fritchard in the Senate

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Senator Morgan will speak next Monday on Senator Fritchard's resolution that the proposed amendment to the Constitution of North Carolina restricting suffrage is against the spirit of the Constitution of the United States. Senator Morgan's speech will be a defense of the methods of the South in preserving the purity of the ballot box, and will be intended not only for the benefit of the Democrats of North Carolina, but of Alabama as well.
