Lamb, of Sizabeth City, of the State board of in-ernal improvements, was here yesterday ternal improvements, was here yesterday Saturday the board impected the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad. Mr. Lamb was today asked his impression of the road. He said: "The whole line is rotton. There are no ditches alongside the tract and no attempt to preserve the cross-ties and rails from water, and the road has suffered in consequence. The expenses are much larger than they aged as if each day were the last. The purpose of the new management, I am assured, is to try to pay the usual 1 per cent dividend and carry on the work of improvement. President Bryan has secured a credit of $30,000 I found at some stations no warehouse; at some rotten ones, the wharf at New Bern rotten and dangerous; the long bridge across the Trent river decayed and ur gently needing attention; great piles of old iron in the yard at New Bern, overgrown with grass; the round hose there used for oil storage; the roof of the cial organ, suggests that the moment the

The Popullst State committee meets here next Thursday. It will, of course, call a convention. The matter most dissussed will be the constitutional amendment. An ex-chairmen of the party says ne does not believe the committee will make any declaration either for or against the amendment, but will leave that matter entirely to the convention. One committeeman, Geo. E. Boggs, of the minth district, has declared blusself a favor of the amendment. None of the others, so far as can be recalled have made any "deliverance" on the subject-It has been stated that some anti-amendment Democrat would be put on the State Reperintendent of Public Instruction Makane said, speaking about the re-opening of the State Normal and Industrial College at Greenshore. "Over their own signatures 260 of the students have given detice that they will return." Funds for the Methodist Orphanage here come in almost daily, but generally in small amounts, if there was more money a more ambificus building scheme could be ataried at once, but as mattern stand it usems only one cuttage can the built at a time. These cottages, according to the plan, are to deat $1,000 such. By the first of June one will be ready. There are now $4 building and loan associations in this State. These are not embraced in the report of the commission for 1500. Itlant forms for reports were sant out to the associations by the commission.
