KENTUCKY TRUCE.

No Serious Conflict Occurred Yesterday at Frankfort.

Goebel at Death's Door. Effort of Court to Keep Peace. Developments Looked For Monday. Will Not Obey.

Special to Journal.

FRANKFORT, Feb. 3.—The death of William Goebel is now considered a matter of only a short time. Judge Pryor has wired Judge Hedwige at Jackson that he may not live an hour and that there is no earthly hope.

Justice Goebel, his brother, arrived at Frankfort this afternoon and came out of the sick chamber weeping bitterly. Goebel suffered a relapse shortly after one o'clock this afternoon and did not respond to the remedies which were applied and failed to rally.

None of the doctors holds out any hope of his recovery. The stomach has been the great trouble. On the morning he was shot he was sick at the stomach at the hotel. He went to the State House that morning without any breakfast, and he has had practically no nourishment since.

Judge Cantrell has issued an injunction against Taylor and Adjutant General Collier and the hearing of whether the injunction will be made permanent will be heard before Judge Cantrell February 8th at Georgetown.

If the Democratic legislators are refused admission to the State House Monday, Taylor and Collier will be considered in contempt. The Democrats will come back to Frankfort Monday, and the Republicans will assemble at London, Laurel county.

No effort will be made to secure personal service on the Taylor. The Judge has ordered that the injunction be allowed to remain in being without service because of the danger that would threaten the man who should undertake the task and the results that might ensue owing to the state of the public mind.

Speaker Tremble said today that the Democratic legislators will not obey any orders issued by Taylor and go to London. Barkham, the Lieutenant Governor, is acting in the place of Goebel as Governor.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—A delegation of Kentucky Democrats, consisting of Senator-elect Hackburn, and Representatives Rhea, Wheeler, Smith, Allen and Gillert, and Colonel Phil. Thompson, called upon President McKinley today at the White House to protest against Federal interference in the contest in Kentucky. They expressed their deep solicitude lest a collision should occur between the warring elements in Kentucky, and made the report that Governor Taylor had solicited Federal intervention the text of their protest.

They assured the President that the law and constitution of Kentucky had been strictly followed by the Democrats in the contest over the Governorship, and that they proposed to stand by the law. The crisis that had arisen, they declared, should be met in the courts and determined by the law. The Democrats, they assert, would obtain from violence. They simply desired a lawful and orderly settlement of the controversy. Federal intervention would only aggravate matters, intensify the excitement, and almost certainly lead to trouble, and perhaps, loss of life.

Senator Hackburn and Representative Rhea said that they were going to Kentucky to counsel peace and obedience to the law. Senator Lindsay endorsed what his colleagues had said about the Democrats adding within the law, no matter how much men might differ as to the wisdom and merits of the contest.

The dispatch of Federal troops to Kentucky, would, he said, in his opinion create anarchy and chaos.

The President in reply expressed his profoundest wish that violence should be avoided and contests should be legally determined. He assured the delegation in a general way that Federal interference would come only as the last resort after having been invoked by the proper authorities under the law and constitution.

BATTLE RUMOR.

Belief That Buller is Fighting Towards Ladysmith.

Movement of Boers. Flying Column North Causes Them Trouble. The Future Campaign is to be on Methu-en's Line.

Special to Journal.

LONDON, February 3.—The Central News gives a dispatch from Ladysmith that confirms the reports that the Boers are moving from the neighborhood of the town. Their object is unknown.

The public belief today, from various fragmentary reports and semi-official hints, is that General Buller is again moving for the relief of Ladysmith and that this time he is engaged in another battle.

The War office announces that thirteen deaths occurred in Ladysmith Wednesday and Thursday from disease.

Word has come from Durban regarding the flying British column which was dispatched early in December. The column has reached North Zululand. The ostensible object of this movement was to check the Boer cattle raiders. It is believed however that the force is really intended to harass the Boer lines of communication above Ladysmith.

The appearance of this flying column of British in Zululand has created uneasiness amongst the Boers over the border.

A number of Boers have been hurriedly withdrawn from Ladysmith and Dundee to Vryheid, in the Transvaal to protect that place and oppose the British advance.

The Boers have at Vryheid about 1,000 men with three guns.

A dispatch dated Pretoria January 29 says that Commandant Olivier reports from Ladysmith that his Free State Commando at Stormberg is nearly surrounded. Unless reinforcements are sent him he says that he will have to abandon the position. Many Cape Colonists have left the Boer army and returned home regardless of threats of death.

LONDON, February 3.—Charles Williams, military critic of the Morning Leader, says:

"Buller has begun a new movement toward Ladysmith and was probably engaged soon after noon today if all his artillery and munitions had come up. In any case, his orders were definite for an advance.

"There is no reason to suppose the direction of the new move is that of Dundonald's reconnaissance toward Hougber's Poort, close to Bethany, though some cavalry and horse artillery may go that way so as to operate on or perhaps beyond the Acton Homes road.

"We are inclined to believe that Buller means to pound out of existence any Boers or any works lying on the river near the junction of the Little Tugela. If he succeeds in establishing himself there on the northern bank he will virtually have turned the Boer positions at Onderbroek and Grobler's kloof, overlooking Colenso. This would mean splitting the Boer forces on the south of Ladysmith. Probably General White would be able to help this effort by occupying with energy the containing bodies of the Boers."

LONDON, Feb. 3.—General French, by instructions, is now in Cape Town consulting Lord Roberts.

Large engineering constructions are proceeding at the Modder river, suggesting that Lord Methuen's fortified camp has been selected as the base, from which to invade the Free State. Numerous sidings, platforms and warehouses are being built and a permanent railway bridge is well advanced. General Tuckey has arrived at Methuen's camp.

HIS REWARD.

Butler Promises to Make Otho Wilson a Congressman.

Candidates Are Still Coming Out Heads of State Schools. The State Library Improved Temple Site Up in Price.

RALEIGH, Feb. 3.—And now is said Senator Butler has promised Otho Wilson the position of Congressman from this district. Four years ago Otho wanted to be Senator. He met it by a long shot. His miss of the congressional target will be even worse. If that be possible.

State Senator R. L. Smith, of Stanley, announces his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant Governor.

Labor Commissioner Lacy says he is quite confident of receiving the nomination for Treasurer. He is in receipt of many letters which confirm that belief.

Clayton has so far raised $43,000 of the $75,000 wanted for a cotton mill. In 18 months the mill will be in operation.

Father Worth paid out $203,957 from the State Treasury last month.

The Methodists gained 1034 members in North Carolina last year. The Baptist are also growing rapidly.

It was remarked as a curious fact that while the heads of all the State educational institutions—the University, Agricultural and Mechanical College, Blind and deaf Mute Institutions, Normal and Industrial Colleges, are natives, all the heads of the denominational institutions are from other States, as for example, Davidson, Trinity, Elon, Wake Forest, the Baptist Female University, Peace Institute, St. Mary's, etc. This shows the great attention North Carolina is attracting from an educational point of view.

Improvements of the State Library continue. Bright and large volumes have been placed by Marshall Bradley on the backs of all its 10,000 and more volumes. These numbers refer to the cases, each one having a separate set of State reports or rather books on particular subjects. The rearrangement is excellent, as is also the remodeling of the Library.

While the Masons desire to buy the city hall at $25,000 some of the aldermen are declaring it to be worth $100,000.

Attorney General Waiser is here, ready for the Supreme Court business. He has recently granted leave for the bringing of several actions in quo warranto and will give these to the press.

A petition was handed to the Snow Lumber Company, of High Point yesterday signed by the white operatives of the factory, requesting that the negro men working in the shop with them be removed. They didn't object to the negroes working on the yards, but refused to be "mixed up" with them in the shop. The company refused to grant the request, and at 2:30 o'clock some one blew the whistle and all of the white hands walked out. For some time there has been feeling among white employees against negroes working alongside of them, and that since smallpox broke out here and some of the negroes have been exposed to the disease this hastened the trouble.

MANY A SLIP.

An Enormous Fee Missed Because the Judge Changed His Mind.

Special to Journal.

BOOKLYE, February 3.—John F. Carroll, Richard Croker's representative, missed a fee today of one hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars in a few hours.

Judge Fitzgerald appointed him the receiver of a wharf warehouse company, but within a short time he revoked the order. As the property is worth $17,000,000 his fee as receiver would have been the amount named. The lawyers who were interested concluded that they did not want a Tammany receiver.
