Plenty of Business For the Legislature, is Taken Up.

Can Butler Name the Candidate? Hoke-Henderson Case Spreads. Mill Charters. Amusements in Prospect.

Epworth League

RALEGE, March 1 .- All the signs point to the fact that the Legislature will be powerfully urged to transact quite a lot of business at its June session business which would prolong its session to ten days. The question is whether it will do more than take up and dispose of the emergency business for which it was originally proposed to be held; that is regarding the election law and the constitutional amendment.

One of the interesting questions how s whether Senstor Butler can force the Democrats to endorse his man for Vice President. In December the cenator's plan to thus ferce, or try to force, the Democratic hand became known.

It is the talk among the Republicans here that if Judge Ewart is not confirmed So. Ry Pfd.... 591 as Judge, that Pritchard and not Jim Reading ..... 60 Boyd will be judge.
