RUSSIA ARMING.

Alarm in London Over War Preparations at Sebastopol.

Buller Fighting Another Battle. Kruger Says He Is "Satisfied With the Situation."
Rout of Boers By Roberts Complete
Special to Journal.

London, March 10.—The war-like activity displayed by Russia in creating the greatest uneasiness in ministerial circles although every effort is being made to conceal the alarming news, recently received from Sebastopol to the effect that the Russian authorities there are rushing arms, ammunition and supplies and constantly adding to the strength of the garrison.

Everything is being done secretly and hurriedly by Russia as if trouble was expected to occur at any moment.

London, March 10.—Special.—News of a big battle at or near Biggarsburg reached here today.

Fifteen thousand Boers under General Botha were strongly entrenched there. They retired to the mountains after abandoning the steps of Ladysmith and since then have completed a long line of entrenchments.

General Buller sent twelve thousand men by the way of the Helpmakar road to attack them in the rear. The Boer pickets gave warning of the approach of this army after firing a few shots and fell back to the main body of the Boers.

General Kitchener has arrived at Victorias West, from Kimberley, to organize various columns of troops for the purpose of suppressing the rebellion which is spreading in that district. Minor fighting affairs have occurred in several places.

A dispatch from Pretoria says that President Kruger returned from his visit to the fighting lines in the Orange Free State and Natal and expresses himself satisfied with the general situation. Kruger and Steyn have made protests to the representatives of the neutral powers at Pretoria against the employment of Kaffir troops by Col. Baden-Powell at Mafeking and Colonel Plimmer. According to the dispatch the greatest order prevails at Johannesburg and Pretoria.

RELEASED, N. S., March 10.—Special.—The Leinster regiment has at last received definite orders regarding their departure from this station. The surprise was great when it became known that the regiment is to leave for Egypt at the end of the month. The corps expected to go to South Africa.

London, March 9.—The Daily Mail has received the following dispatch from South Africa.

Poplar Grove, Orange Free State, March 9.—Wednesday's movements accomplished more than was at first thought. The Boer flight appears to mean the disintegration of the burghers, whose organization has gone.

We now know the fact that Kruger was personally present during the fight. He slept Tuesday night at Poplar Grove, where the British are at present encamped. On Wednesday, finding his personal influence exhausted, he made fervent exhortation to the burghers, quoting Scriptural passages, making appeals and leading Biblical prophesy to induce them to stand. They fled, however.

There is a report that Kruger will take the supreme command instead of General Jouberit at Abraham's kraal.

No immediate opposition to the British is now expected. Indeed, there is no trace of the Boers for miles. By all accounts the Free State opposition is collapsing.

On Wednesday Lord Roberts captured two of the Boer guns, a quantity of stores and some prisoners.

LOREZO MARQUES, March 8.—It is reliably stated that high officials in Pretoria openly avow the British flag will never fly over Johannesburg, as the place will be razed to the ground. Mines of explosives are being constructed in various parts of the city. They are electrically connected with the forts and will be fired as cannon shots.

Most of the gold mines, except those controlled by the Government, are in a shocking state, being full of water, the machinery rusting and wilfully smashed.

Rev. W. B. Sizer, W. Galen, N. Y., writes: "I had dyspepsia over twenty years, and tried doctors and medicines without benefit. I was persuaded to use Knott's Dyspepsia Cure and it helped me from the start. Believe it to be a panacea for all forms of indigestion." It digests what you eat. F. H. Duffy.

Arrested on the Pier.
Special to Journal.

New York, March 10.—James Greengard and Morris Hatcher were arrested on the Lookout pier today. They were charged with aiding the escape of Nathan Butler who is charged with giving a worthless check for six thousand dollars. Hatcher is supposed to have acted in looking after the arrangement.

NATIONAL GUARD.

North Carolina Troops Will Probably Be In Good Shape.

Cotton Speculators Unhappy. City Election. Eclipse Committee At Washington. Alliance Doing Well. Public School Examiners.
RALEIGH, March 10.—Adjutant General Royster goes to Washington next week to unite with other National Guard officers in securing the amendment of the militia law of 1893 which will give the National Guard of the country $3,000,000 a year in ordinance and quarter master's stores. This will give North Carolina about $50,000. If the amendment is adopted the Guard in this State will be put in the very best shape. This State ought to have about 4,000 Guardsmen and naval militia, always ready for a State or national call.

"Never monkey with a buzz saw, the business end of a mule or cotton futures" were the last words of one of the greatest men this county has ever known, yet in spite of the admirable advice, one man in this county lost his arm by a saw, another has smashed his from the kick of a mule, while—besides knowing how many scores have been caught in the "future deadlock" this week. To quote the words of a victim: "Ah, why made money last week lost it this week."

Census Supervisor Jankins, Populists of Chatham, was here conferring with some of the "elect" (by which is meant Populists and Republicans, of course) about the appointments of census-takers etc. Jankins is in charge of this district. He has "pfe" to give away and he is not "plewed with alarm" by any means, but gets the glad hand.

Poll holders for the election here on March 19th on the question of the sale of the city hall and market building have been appointed. As yet but little is said about the election, though it is only ten days away.

Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshall, rector of Christ Church here, who has been quite sick for ten days, is reported to be convalescing.

Rev. A. A. Pruden, financial agent of St. Mary's Female College here, who has addressed himself to the task of raising $55,000 to pay the balance of the debt on the purchase of the college buildings and grounds, wants $10,000 from Raleigh, this city having raised $5,000 already. Yesterday and today he was given $1,000 by five persons here.

The North Carolina delegation, with the exception of Representatives Linnay and White, called in a body at the Seafair Institute in Washington yesterday to urge Department of take observations at Raleigh of the eclipse of the sun, which will occur in May next.

A point in Raleigh's favor that was brought out by the delegation was that the duration of the eclipse at Raleigh is three minutes longer than at other points. The Department informed the delegation that it would send an official to Raleigh to investigate, and if his report was favorable the request would be granted.

Two Mormon elders have been roaming around over Albemarle for the past two weeks. Yesterday morning as they were passing down street a full grown chowder of rotten eggs and potatoes met their astonished vision and they proceeded to forthwith and immediately shake the dust, or mud rather, of the wicked town from their feet, never again to return.

The list of the claims against the government on account of the war with Spain were sent to Washington last week Governor Russell's "god of war," Loge Harris, will go on and urge the War Department to settle up.

Secretary Parker of the Farmers' State Alliance, was here and said, when asked how that order was getting on, that there were Alliances in about 50 counties; that the average number of sub-Alliances is about seven or eight to a county, and that in one or two counties there are as many as 25. Nothing will be done in the way of reorganizing work at the state factory until after the State Alliance meets in August.

The State board of public school examiners was in session here yesterday preparing the questions to be asked at the examinations of applicants for teachers' certificates in July.

The Democratic convention of Montgomery county has instructed its delegates for Charles B. Aycock for Governor. State county will do likewise when her convention meets.

KENTUCKY CASE.

Judge Fields Decides in Favor of the Democratic Contestant.

Case Will be Appealed. The Militia Prevents Warrants Being Served. Bill Passed to Recover the Arms.
Special to Journal.

Louisville, Ky., March 10.—Judge Field decided in favor of the Democrats and holds that the courts cannot go into the case as the constitution of the state vests the power in the Legislature to decide these contests and even if fraud and conspiracy is shown the court has no right to go into the matter.

Frankfort, Ky., March 10.—Special.—Judge Field's decision in the contested Governorship case caused no change in the situation here.

Arrangements for the appeal of the case had already been made.

Officers are unable thus far to find more than one of the persons against whom warrants are out for the assassination of Wm. Goebel. W. H. Collier in jail, being arrested last night. He was a clerk in the office of the State Auditor.

The other warrants out but which the officers were unable to serve today, are against Secretary of State Caleb Powers, Charles Finley former Secretary of State John T. Powers, Supt. of Public Schools, and Capt. J. W. Davis, policeman of the Capitol Square, all charged with being accessories to the killing.

The militia refused to allow the officers to enter the executive building today, where Davis is supposed to be.

Frankfort, Ky., March 9.—The Senate today reconsidered the Triplet resolution, appropriating $100,000 for the purpose of equipping a State militia, and recovering the arms and munitions of war removed to London, Ky.

Senator Triplet said that during last night the remaining arms and other military property in the arsenal here were loaded on cars and shipped to London.

Senators Puryear and Jones, who voted against the resolution, voted for it today, and it passed, 19 to 1.

In the House the announcement was greeted by prolonged applause.

PORTO RICO MIDDLE.

Party Politics Have Control of the Matter Now.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The Porto Rico middle has grown thicker since the bill has been before the Senate. All sorts of amendments have been and are being proposed, and the widest sort of talk is being indulged in by the supporters and opponents of a tariff on Porto Rican products. Those who advocate free trade say that it was the sugar and tobacco trusts which forced the House to pass the bill imposing a duty of 13 per cent on Porto Rican products, while the tariff advocates are equally positive in asserting that the two trusts named are responsible for much of the clamor for free trade. Both claims cannot possibly be true, and, probably neither is. The whole truth is that Porto Rico is being made the foot ball of partisan politics. The bill as passed by the House may be amended, but it is not giving the majority of the Senate credit for ordinary political shrewdness to say that they will allow a party measure to be defeated.
