Wholesale Murder of a Negro Family in Wake County.

Hurderer Landed In Jail, Different Opinions On Crop Acreage. Swamp Lands. Museum Inspection. Corporation Commission. RALEIGH, N. O March 28-About a mile his side of the village of Garner, which s six miles southeast of Raleigh, there was committed Wednesday night, the worst crime of the year. The charge is that a negro named Jones murdered six members of a negro family. The house of the latter was not far from the raiload, and was burned about 11 o'clock that night. There were eight people in the family. Ella Joues and her children one nearly grown. It appears that some veeks ago the negro Jenes had made threats against the woman. Two little children made their escape from the arms. house; one aged 7, the other 5. These ald Jones had killed their mother and he other children and had then set fire o the house. Jones was arrested this morning and blood was found upon his clothing. He was locked up and guarded. By 10 o'clock this morning three bodies had been taken from the debris of the burned house. The embers, were sc hot as to make the work slow and difficult. A number of Raleigh people went to the scene of the horrible occur-
