LYNCHING IN VIRGINIA.

Withdrawal of Soldiers The Signal For Assault

Upon Jail at Emporia, Va. Negro and White Man Lynched. Negro Confessed to Twenty Five Murders. Negroes Assist the Hanging.

Special to the Journal. RICHMOND, Va., March 24.—At a meeting of the citizens held in the Judges office in Emporia, today, it was voted to withdraw the troops, though the citizens agreed that lynching would follow.

The order for the withdrawal of the troops was signed by the judge and sheriff, and the Richmond Light Infantry Blues left for home on a special train.

After the troops had withdrawn, the mob broke into the jail, dragged out Walter Cotton and lynched him. Cotton's body was riddled with bullets as he swung, and then the crowd started back to the jail for the white tramp, O'Grady, the white man who was Cotton's companion on Thursday when he killed two citizens.

O'Grady was put to death in the same manner as the negro Cotton. While mob lynched the negro, and the best element of the negro population were allowed to lynch the tramp, O'Grady.

Emporia, Va., March 23.—Tuesday morning about 8:30 o'clock thieves entered the bed chamber of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Grizzard, of this place, and stole clothing and about thirty dollars in money. The couple were aroused but Mr. Grizzard was confronted by a burly negro, who, armed with a pistol, made him sit down and keep quiet. Cotton coolly confessed in the jail this evening that he was the negro who committed this crime.

Mr. Saunders and Mr. Welton entered the building and found there also a negro. Cotton opened fire, and Mr. Welton was shot in the forehead and dropped dead. Mr. Saunders fired, and the shot struck one of Cotton's fingers. The negro fired four bullets into the justice. Three had struck him, when Mr. Saunders, realising that he would be killed, turned to go out of the building. The fatal shot struck him in the back just as he turned to make his escape.

According to both Cotton and O'Grady the negro did all the shooting. Both men escaped to the woods after the double murder. A negro was pursued and captured O'Grady, who was turned over to an officer and brought to the jail at this place yesterday evening. County Judge W. Samuel Goodwyn, fearing trouble, had four deputies to take the man out in the woods and keep him there all night.

It was expected that the parties suspected of the murder would be brought to Petersburg tonight for safe keeping, and several hundred people, both white and black, were at the depot anxious to see them, but they were disappointed. That the prisoners were not removed from the jail at Emporia, was doubtless due to the fact that it would likely have brought on a conflict between the troops and the angry citizens of Emporia and the several hundred farmers and others who have been pointing into Emporia all day from the surrounding country.

M. B. Smith, Rotorant, Mich., says, "DeWitt's Little Early Biscuits are the very best pills I ever used for constipation, liver and bowel troubles." F. S. Duff, 107 Pollock street, New Bern, N. C., writes: "I have used your pills and they have cured me of all my troubles."

DON'T CARE.

But White Republicans Want Negroes to Register.

PLENTY OF CAMPAIGN INTEREST. Recruiting is slow. New Cotton Mills Movement For Cancellation. First Base Ball Game.

RALEIGH, March 24.—An eastern Republican who was here, was asked if the negroes were not anxious to register this year and if the white Republicans were trying to hold them down. He replied: "The negroes say they are anxious to 'register,' as they term it, but are listening to advice." This is true. The white Republican leaders who are fighting the amendment want all the negroes to register. They give it out that they do not want the negroes to register, because if they do the Democrats will surely count their votes.

Henry A. London, Esq., of Chatham, was here. He stays one thing which is very observable this year is that the people in the country are turning out to hear the speeches. There is not the "deadly spathy" there was a few years ago, but there is interest. But a little while ago the Populists would not hear Democrats speak. Now they attend.

The advance sale of seats for "The Christian" is the largest ever made here. Raleigh will, in a few weeks, have three telephone systems—the Bell, the Star-State and the Raleigh. It is said to be the only place in the United States to have three systems.

William H. Council, Esq., of Watauga, is nominated by the Democrats as judge of the tenth district. Of course he will be selected. He will hold his first court in Johnston, in August, directly after the election, and of course he will immediately commission, as he will an unexpected term. Judge Bowman, whom he will succeed, will hold his last court here in June.

A charter is granted by the State to the Oxford Cotton Mills, capital $150,000, with leave to increase it to $200,000. The mills will begin spin and weave. This is the nineteenth mill chartered this year. April 1st the company will organize.

Good progress is being made in the work of constructing the New River Cotton Mills, at Pine Falls of New, 10 miles north of here. The building will be entirely of granite, which is raised out of the quarry by derricks and swung right into place in the walls. The main is also of granite. It is to be an 8,000 spindle mill.

Eugene S. Martin, special master in charge as to freight rates on fertilizers on the Carolina Central Railroad, says he desires additional evidence as to the volume of freight and to the money receipts for freight of fertilizers for a number of years past, in order that he may ascertain the difference between the actual cost of hauling and the freight receipts, so he can see whether there was or was not a profit.

The movement for the nomination of John S. Cunningham for Lieutenant Governor grows. Gentlemen here from three counties spoke of it, saying they would to see this step taken and believed it would be giving excellent reasons for their view of the matter.

Secretary Lewis of the State board of health, says that his report shows that smallpox was in thirty counties during February. There were many cases at Jonesboro. It was the old story that it was commonplace. Of course it was smallpox.

The State chartered the Charlotte Waste Company, capital $50,000. It will take and deal in cotton mill and other waste.
