BOERS ESCAPE GEN. FRENCH.

They Got by His Cordon and Are Trekking Northward. Cronje's Mistake.

LONGON, March 26.—The most important news from the seat of war tonight is contained in the following dispatch from Bloemfontein:

"General French has returned from Taba Neku, having failed to engage the Boers, who are trekking northward." This marks the success of Commandant Olivier and his associates in escaping from the Orange river through French's cordon. It is believed that Olivier has carried his guns with him.

A strong column is now moving on Griquatown, whence after attacking the Boer force at that place it will advance on Mafeking.

The Boers at Kroonstad are in a treacherous and preparing to make a stand. In the hope that Lord Roberts will make a frontal attack. The problem for them is difficult. If they do not stand and fight they abandon the whole Free State. But if they stand they run a big chance, also Roberts now has 10,000 mounted men to use in flank turning moves, while he has at least 25,000 infantry for direct attack.

The Boers in Natal appear to be falling back from Biggarsberg to Laing's nek. It is doubtful whether there are more than 10,000 Boers now in Natal, as the main force seems to be at Kroonstad, where reinforcements from the north have arrived. It is not likely that General Buller will attempt to move until Lord Roberts is ready. Any advance in Natal will be a sign that the commander-in-chief is again marching.

It is semi-officially announced that Lord Roberts is not going to make a move until his communications have been made perfectly secure, not in the Orange Free State only, but all the way from the real base of the coast.

PARIS, March 26.—Count Adalbert Sternberg, a distinguished Austrian officer who fought with the Boers under Cronje and was taken prisoner at Paardeberg, has just arrived in Paris. In an interview he said:

"Cronje made a mistake. He was ignorant of the movements of the English and took no trouble to find out. When the enemy was all around him at Magersfontein he still insisted on believing that a frontal attack was intended, and said 'Let the English come on.' Cronje thought the turning movement only a feint to get him to weaken his center. That is why he remained at Magersfontein, and began to retreat only when surrounded."

Wm. Orr, Newark, O., says: "We never feel safe without One Minute Cough Cure in the house. It saved my little boy's life when he had the pneumonia. We think it is the best medicine made." It cures coughs and all lung diseases. Pleasant to take, harmless and gives immediate results. F. E. Duffy.

Politics in Santiago.

SANTIAGO, Cuba, March 26.—A meeting convened by the various political factions last evening with a view of effecting an agreement on candidates for the approaching elections broke up in a riot. At a caucus held a week ago a closely drawn color line was developed, and they called last night's meeting in the expectation of being able to nominate a satisfactory ticket. There was an immense crowd in attendance and the proceedings at the outset were intensely patriotic. A discussion of the color line caused a riot which the police had trouble in suppressing.

To secure the original witch hazel salve, ask for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, well known as a certain cure for piles and skin diseases. Beware of worthless counterfeits. They are dangerous. F. E. Duffy.
