BRITISH GET CARELESS

And Allow Boers to Capture Party of Soldiers and Six Guns.

LONDON, April 1.—Dispatches received today show that the success which has recently attended Lord Roberts' operations was broken on Saturday, a British force walking blindly into a Boer ambush, being captured with six cannons.

Colonel Broadwood, in command of the Tenth Hussar, the Household Cavalry, two horse batteries and a force of mounted infantry under Colonel Plibhar, was garroting Thaba Nchu, 40 miles east of Bloemfontein and about half way between it and the Basutoaland border. On Friday Broadwood was threatened by the near approach of what is described as "a large force of Boers." Finding his position untenable he marched that night to the Bloemfontein waterworks, south of the Modder river. There he encamped for the night. The position is about 16 miles due east of Bloemfontein.

Early Saturday morning the British camp was shelled from the rear. Colonel Broadwood then sent off a convoy with the batteries, while the rest of his force remained behind to act as a rear guard. The road crosses a deep spruit or creek. In the bed of this the Boers were concealed. The whole British convoy walked into the ambush and was captured with its six guns.

Lord Roberts seems to have heard of Broadwood's position early. Colville's division left at once to rescue him. At the last news to hand Colville's men were shelling the Boers so that the guns and wagons may be recovered.

THE PORTO RICO BILL

Regarded as Sure to Pass Senate. Program of House for Week.

WASHINGTON, April 2nd.—It is regarded as so certain that the Senate will pass the Porto Rico bill tomorrow, when the vote will be taken, that public interest is already transferred to the House, where the result is not so certain.

The free traders are making some pretty stiff claims as to their ability to strike out the tariff clause of the bill and insert one providing for free trade in the House, but, investigation shows that those claims have no better foundation than the talk of a few members who voted for the original tariff bill and then became frightened by public criticism.

There is no faltering on the part of the leaders of the majority in the House, and the chances are that they will be able to keep the grumblers in line for the bill. The majority of the House is always susceptible to administration influence, and the whole influence of the administration is being thrown in favor of the Porto Rican bill. Speaker Henderson is also lending a hand and he says the bill will become a law before the end of the present week.

The program in the House this week is fully mapped out. On Tuesday, under a special order adopted some time ago, the House will enter upon the consideration of the bill to provide a civil government for Hawaii. By the terms of the order the general debate upon the bill will continue Tuesday and Wednesday, and on Thursday the bill will be read for amendment under the five minute rule. The final vote will be taken at 4 o'clock on Thursday. Friday will be devoted to private pension legislation and Saturday has been set aside for paying tribute to the memory of the late Richard P. Bland, of Missouri.

RALEIGH.

United States Commissioner Cannot Punish for Contempt.

Grand Secretary Woodell's Report. Water Company Refuses To Give Evidence, Faking On Small-pox Very Costly Matter.

RALEIGH, April 2.—Judge Farnell decides that a United States Commissioner cannot punish for contempt but must certify the matter to the judge, so the latter can act. The case came up from New Bern where Commissioner Dewey undertook to fine United States Deputy Marshal Perkins $50, and gave him 15 days imprisonment. The judge decides that the punishment in this case is not only unlawful, but improper.

Grand Secretary Woodell, of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, has prepared his annual report. It shows 5,478 members, a gain during the year of 1,047, the greatest in any one year since 1841. There are 111 lodges. Expended for relief $6,244. Total receipts $48,148. Money on hand, $17,810. Greensboro has the largest lodge, 173 members. Forty children are in the orphanage at Goldsboro. The property is worth $33,000. There are no debts, but a balance on hand for the orphan fund of $3,800.

The investigation of the failure of the water company to give proper pressure drains along. The water company will give no evidence, saying it wants to reserve its ammunition for suits, and making a sort of plea to the effect that the city ought not to aid the insurance companies by giving the latter material for suits against the water company. As yet there is no notice of such suits, but to be sure the insurance men have their eyes open. The investigating committee's chairman said it would go ahead with the investigation and get information and if that hurts the water company it simply can't be helped. It is a pretty interesting matter. The water company doesn't want to give any information which will be used against it in court.

The other day Dr. Lewis, the secretary of the State board of health, told of the presence of smallpox at Jonesboro. It seems some one then denied it. An expert went there and found smallpox right enough, the secretary says. The "chicken-pox" joke was worked or rather attempted to be worked. The secretary says that it is always the experience that this is a costly fable, costs more than a frank acknowledgment of the fact that the disease is smallpox. It is said by the secretary that a big reward might safely be offered for any case of chicken-pox in adults ever seen by a North Carolina doctor prior to 1898, when smallpox appeared in the State. The type of smallpox during these two years has been irregular, and mild, but it certainly ought to be well known by this time.

The attorney for Tom Jones, the wholesale murderer, said that after conferring with various attorneys he had decided to take the case to the Supreme Court, get it put at the end of the docket at the present term, and let that court determine whether Jones is or is not of sound mind. The attorney says there is doubt in the minds of some people, and that he wants to get Jones properly disposed of, which, he says, means placing him in the criminal insane department of the penitentiary. He thinks the Supreme Court can dispose of the case in a month. Many 11th is the date fixed for the hanging.

Miss Mary Jane Hickman, sister of the late noted "Bean" Hickman, of Washington, N. C., died last week. "Bean" was a native of Warren. He was the greatest dead-beat that ever walked the earth.

A member of the Legislature from northwestern North Carolina and one of the foremost Democrats in the State, says he can see no reason why the State convention should not endorse as corporation commissioners, etc., the men the Legislature elected.

RALEIGH, April 2.—This is the way the Kentucky mix-up strikes a well-known Kentuckian, Mr. O. B. Barley, of Louisville, now in Washington.

"The trouble in Kentucky will be a nuisance for a long time to come. It will show us all the political movements leading up to the Fall elections. There will not be a district or county convention which will be free of it. There will be street fights and convention rows, which the newspapers will report as riots. There will be shooting scrapes which will be called insurrections. In fact, it will be hot and disagreeable to all the people of the State, and I don't think of it all. To tell the truth, they are tired of it now. But there is no way of ending the trouble. It is an epidemic and must run its course."

TAX REDUCTION.

Secretary Gage Thinks Internal Revenue War Taxes Can Be Cut in Half.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Secretary Gage has made a verbal recommendation to the President that a special message be sent to Congress, suggesting legislation for a material reduction in the internal revenue war taxes.

Figures given by Secretary Gage show that the surplus of revenue over expenditures for current fiscal year already exceeds $53,000,000 and is likely to be largely added to during the last quarter. Mr. Gage thinks the war taxes could be safely cut in half, and the President has the matter under consideration.

Telegraphic Briefs.

Chicago, April 1.—The machinists' strike is over throughout the United States, the union having called it off.

Terre Haute, Ind., April 1.—All the coal mines in Indiana have suspended operations, owing to the failure of operators to sign a wage contract for the year beginning April 1.

Suffield, Conn., April 1.—Sidney A. Kent, a well-known Chicago broker, died at his summer residence in West Suffield today, after several weeks' illness from the grip, aged 66 years.

H. Clark, Chaucery, Ga., says I e Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him of piles that afflicted him for twenty years. It is also a specific cure for skin diseases. Beware of dangerous counterfeits. F. S. DUFFY.
