POLITICS.

Superintendent Mebane Make Statement Of His Position.

Governor Russell Makes Moore a Judge. The Temporary Chairman, Instructs for Aycock. Mebane is Popular. Christian Endeavor Convention.

RALEIGH, April 9.—State Supt. C. H. Mebane was today asked by a prominent educator in the State what course he would pursue as to his candidacy before the Democratic Convention this week and what he would do in case said convention did not nominate him. He sent the following letter in reply:

Dear Sir:—In reply to your inquiry I will say that I have decided to be a candidate before the Democratic Convention and this of course means that I will abide by the decision of said convention. If I am not nominated by the Democratic Convention I shall not be a candidate before either of the other Political Conventions, but shall retire to private life taking with me the full assurance of an honest conscience that I have done what I could to promote the great cause of Public Education in North Carolina, and shall extend my best wishes and hearty support to the man who shall be the leader of the cause of the grand army of six hundred and forty thousand children for the next four years.

This work and its consequences is of far more importance to the State and the future welfare of our citizens than any other branch of our State Government. This is a great truth that we as a people have not yet fully realized.

Very truly yours, C. H. MEBAHE, Supt. Pub. Inst. April 9th 1900.

Governor Russell today appointed Mr. Justice M. Moore of Greenville, Judge of the eastern criminal circuit.

The Progressive Farmer says editorially that the franchise amendment stands or falls as a whole and cites the decision of a federal judge in proof. Ex-Chief Jas. Shepley says that unquestionably the amendment stands or falls as a whole and that if the fifth section is knocked out, all go.

No signs can be discovered here some Democratic leaders say of any attempt whatever by railroads to defeat McNeill and Rogers for corporation commissioners. It is said they are practically sure of re-nominations.

Chairman Simmons says E. Y. Webb, of Shelby, will be temporary chairman of the State convention.

Rockingham county instructed unanimously for Aycock and Cunningham.

Wake Democratic convention gave no instructions to its delegates for any candidate.

There is naturally much interest as to whether Dr. Mebane will get the Democratic nomination for superintendent of public instruction. As a rule, the teachers in the State, both public and private are for him. So are the politicians. It is positively asserted that he is the very best man for the place.

Miss Mary Ouis, daughter of General Ouis, the commander in the Philippines, left here, after a three weeks' visit to Miss Jane Andrews.

The sixth annual State convention of Christian Endeavor will be held here April 26th to 29th. It will be the annual "fellowship" meeting. The delegates will be entertained by the society of the Christian church. One session will be held with the society in the penitentiary.

The female inmates in the asylum here now make all the clothing for their fellow unfortunate. This new feature proves an excellent one.

Porto Rico Bill Will No Doubt Pass The House.

Manner Of Governing Hawaii Still Unsettled. No Canal Bill Likely This Session. Result of Treaty Failure.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Both sides are lining up for the final fight on the Porto Rico bill, which had to be postponed from last week because of the large number of Republicans absent. The fight will be short and sharp, as the bill is to be reported from the ways and means committee, just as it was passed by the Senate, and voted upon all on the same day. Both sides are claiming victory, but among unbiased observers there is very little doubt that the bill will be passed by a small majority. Its unqualified endorsement by the Republican caucus has made this reasonably certain.

It remains for a conference committee to determine what sort of a government Hawaii shall have. The Senate passed a bill to provide a government for the territory of Hawaii; a House committee reported a substitute for the Senate bill and after attaching numerous amendments thereto, the House passed it. Now the original bill and the substitute, with its amendments, will be turned over to a committee, and a bill differing from both may be the result.

No treaty, no canal bill. That is the situation in the Senate, and unless there is a radical change in existing conditions, there will be no action upon either at this session. It has been understood all along that the Nicaragua Canal bill was dependent upon the ratification of the Nicaragua canal treaty, and within the past week, it has become almost certain that if a vote on the treaty were taken, it would be rejected, and it is to be allowed to go over until next session.

Members of the Isthmian Canal Commission created by the last Congress have reached Washington, but they say no report of their work will be made in time for submission to this session of Congress. The postponement of the Canal bill is just what the administration desired, but the failure to ratify the treaty is a heart-rending disappointment.

J. I. Carson, Prothonotary, Washington, Pa., says, "I have found Kodol Dyspepsia Cure an excellent remedy in case of stomach trouble, and have derived great benefit from its use." It digests what you eat and can not fail to cure. F. S. Duffy.

GETTING READY.

General Roberts Thought to Be Preparing For Work.

LONDON, April 9.—The Daily Telegraph has received the following dispatch from South Africa:

Bloemfontein, April 7.—A general re-arrangement of the disposition of the British troops is taking place today. Infantry and a part of the City Imperial Volunteers are assembling at Nasoport preparatory to starting for Bloemfontein where they will advance. The Boers have formed a strong laager at Donkerspoort, 18 miles southwest of Venter's farm.

Lord Kitchener is in command of the railway to the south of Bloemfontein to secure it against interruptions.

Details of the fight at De Wit's dorp, near Rensdorp, have reached here, from which it appears that upon an uneven plain, surrounded by kopjes, the Boers opened a cannonade and a rifle fire. The British soldiers found shelter in dongas and returned a muzzled fire.

The Boer positions were almost unassailable, but the British soldiers stormed the kopjes, from which they fired upon the Boers with more effect. The latter concentrated their whole fire and strength against the position and captured it. Sharpshooting went on during the night but on Wednesday the British, who were suffering from want of food and water, surrendered. The fight had been watched by people from Rensdorp.

Aakhaad Shays, younger brother of the Free State President, who is supposed of giving information to the Boers, has been arrested upon his farm, 14 miles north of Bloemfontein.

Gen. Trenchard says of the old historic regiment, the Orange Dragoons, the following: "The Orange Dragoons and the Buffs could not muster a hundred mounted men, while ordinary horse were scarce."

The British troops are all in good spirits, though badly in need of clothing and boots.

It is said Dr. Williams' Little Early Bitters are the best pills in the world's supply. Dr. Latham, New Bern, N. C. They are an invaluable aid in the liver and stomach, and quickly and surely cure. F. S. Duffy.
