AT RALEIGH.

Craven Delegation Hold a Caucus and Arrange Details.

Speeches Made By Delegates. Large Attendance in the City. Aycock Sure of Ten Votes Those Who Left Here.

RALEIGH, April 10.—The Craven County delegation arrived here safely and are comfortably situated.

The city is filled with the delegates to attend tomorrow's convention. The largest number of delegates are here that have been at a convention since 1890.

Tonight matters are getting settled among the delegations, although there is still a good deal of confusion, and caucusing is going on on all sides.

It is expected that Aycock and Davidson will go before the convention for Governor with Aycock having at least 700 votes on the first ballot.

The Craven county delegation met in caucus tonight and there were 48 persons present. Speeches were made by a number of the delegates and there was general good feeling prevailing.

Those Daniels was chairman of the delegation and the number of delegates to the Convention tomorrow was limited to the Craven county representation and were named by the caucus tonight.

The names of the eleven delegates chosen were as follows: Thos. Daniels, D. R. Fulford, F. L. Potts, E. M. Green, Enoch Wadsworth, W. R. Harrington, F. S. Ermiel, T. W. Dewey, W. B. Flander, S. R. Ball and M. F. Morton.

The rest of the delegates previously appointed by the chairman were made alternates.

For committeeman of the State Executive committee the name of Thomas Daniels is to be urged by Craven county. E. M. Green is to be recommended as delegate to attend the National Democratic convention, to be held at Kansas City July 4th.

The Craven county delegation will vote as a unit in the convention at the Academy of Music tomorrow.

It was quiet in political circles last night in New Bern. All the war horses and trumpeters were in Raleigh making the walk in ring. A big crowd was at the station yesterday morning when the long train pulled out, to see the delegates off and much pleasantry and amusement was indulged in.

There will be plenty of fun in Raleigh today and when the convention is called to order a little before noon, it will be an interesting occasion. The names of the leading candidates are already pretty well-known and the successful ones quite fairly settled upon. It is unusual for the selections to be so apparent, in advance of the work of the convention. The JOURNAL will have bulletins today giving the news from the convention hall.

The following were the delegates who went to Raleigh yesterday to represent Craven county:

Fench Wadsworth, D. L. Fulford, Thomas Daniels, T. W. Dewey, Chas. L. Stevens, Edward Clark, E. W. Armstrong, John M. Hargett, H. H. Tucker, W. B. Flander, M. F. Morton, Jas. E. Smith, Wm. H. Oliver, F. S. Ermiel, R. B. Blalock, Ferate Gaskill, C. L. Spencer, S. M. Brinson, Owen d. Galois, Ernest M. Green, M. M. Shute, J. W. Stewart, E. S. Hines, S. H. Lane, Rayner Perry, Harris Lane, W. H. Harrington, and W. H. Scott. S. R. Ball and J. A. Patterson went Monday. Mayor F. T. Patterson leaves this morning.

The Carter county delegates were: Stacy W. Wade, W. S. Chadwick, Thos. Webb, Will Webb, Sheriff A. S. Willis, W. L. Arundell, Dr. J. W. Saunders, Murray Thomas and Will Morton.

Panlico county delegates were as follows: R. H. Baxter, S. W. Ferebee, H. L. Gibby, Chas. H. Fowler, J. E. Cowell, Wallace Gaskins, Asa Gattis, W. A. Heddlit, G. M. McCluskey, W. T. Cabo, G. G. Daniels, H. L. Woodard and Jas. M. Best.

President James A. Bryan, took up a party in the A. H. N. O.'s new parlor, last night. Among the guests were: H. A. Nunn, James E. Caraway, H. R. Bryan, Jr., S. H. Scott, John C. Thomas, Tom Howard, G. E. Foy, J. J. Baxter, Ellis Hudges, Mark Dismore, D. L. Ward, Capt. S. B. Waters, E. A. Street, James Motley, W. H. Bray, W. E. Cruckett, and Charles Bell.

THE NEW JUDGE.

Judge Moore is a Republican and Confederate.

Never Held Office in This State. Patrick Gets a Position. Prediction On The Amendment. New Home For Episcopal Bishops.

RALEIGH, April 10.—Judge A. M. Moore is commissioned and yesterday afternoon he left for Charlotte to hold his first term, beginning today. Judge Moore is of very pleasant address. He was born in Eleton, in December, 1841, was educated at the Horner School and the State University and left the latter to enter the Confederate service, in the First North Carolina Regiment. Later he was in the artillery and yet later on staff duty. He has always been a Republican and never held a public office in this State. In 1880 he was a candidate for Attorney General, in 1888 for elector-at-large. In 1889 he removed to the State of Washington and remained there until 1897. During his stay there he served in the Legislature and was appointed judge, but could not hold the latter office as he had not been a resident sufficiently long. In 1898 he was a candidate for judge in this State. Twice he refused the nomination for Congress. He says he never sought the Criminal Court judgeship. He was asked what would be the length of his term and said until next January; that nearly all the lawyers say so; that the act creating the office says the election shall be by the "next" General Assembly; not by the present one which meets in June.

It was said by a leading Republican that the appointment of Judge Moore was delayed until it was certain a place would thereby be made for Daniel Patrick as a census supervisor for the second district. The delay was due to slowness in finding out from Washington whether Patrick would be then provided for. Patrick is a great friend of Governor Russell, and the latter has been anxious for some time to get him a place.

Walter H. Neal, chairman of the State election board, said: "I want to make the prediction that within 60 days from this time the amendment fight will be settled and that the opponents of that measure will virtually withdraw from the field." He added that the people were determined to settle the question.

Editor Varner, of Lexington, says he is confident of the nomination for Labor Commissioner. It is the current talk that Dr. B. F. Dixon is far in the lead for the nomination for Auditor.

The State board of public charities called on the county authorities here and urged them to provide separate quarters for female prisoners in the jail. The request is complied with. A house for the jailer will be built north of the jail, his rooms will be fitted up for female prisoners, and this will give much more room for the male prisoners.

The residence of the late Bishop Lyman here, which was bought by the Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina, as a home for bishops is sold to a gentleman from the North, who will greatly improve it. The diocese will build a home for Bishop Dunham on the grounds of the St. Mary's College here.

Friends of John D. Bellamy are pressing him for the national Democratic committee.

Ordo Wilson denies that he has made friends with Senator Butler and says he will bolt the ticket if Butler is nominated on it.

It is said tonight that E. J. Justice is developing marked strength for the Attorney General nomination.

It was the unanimous opinion of all who expressed themselves that the convention at Greensboro last week was the best State convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of North Carolina ever held. In point of attendance, enthusiasm and work accomplished it was a record breaker.

President McKinley is invited to attend the annual celebration of Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, at Charlotte May 26. The President said he would take the matter under advisement.

MUST BE DELAY.

Necessary Supplies And Horses Must be Obtained by Roberts.

London, April 9.—Roberts are now beginning, though reluctantly, to realize that Lord Roberts is in for a winter campaign, lasting several months. This is the end, in a few words, of the high hopes based upon Roberts' brilliant dash to Kimberley and Bloemfontein.

Preparations are being made to hold Bloemfontein against surprise. Lord Kitchener has been given an important duty, being responsible for the protection of the railway, while Lord Roberts is waiting for remounts and winter clothing for the troops, cotton khaki uniforms and thin boots are worn out.

Lord Roberts will probably for some time confine his operations to clearing the Free State behind him of raiders and to relieving Mafeking, for which purpose apparently, the Eighth Division, now arriving at Cape Town, has been ordered to Kimberley. Lady Sarah Wilson and other Mafeking correspondents send diaries of the doings there, showing that the Boers have abandoned their trenches, to lure the besieged out into a mined ambush. The British engineers discovered the mines, cut the wire communication and unearthed 250 pounds of dynamite and war gelatine.

What the chances are for an advance to Pretoria may be judged from the fact that only from 6,000 to 10,000 horses are on their way to the Cape, and from the further fact that the military tailoring departments only within the last three weeks began making woolen khaki uniforms. It is said that it will take at least two months to provide 300,000 uniforms.
