forth Carolina Second In Exhibits

Next to California. Braner Satisfied With Home. Famous Conrict Released. Dog Show Next Fall. Carr Contributes Money.

Ralkhom, April 26.—Secretary T. K.
Bruner, of the board of agriculture, now in Perus is looking closely after North Carolina's interests. He writes a very entertuining letter to Commissioner of Agriculture Patterson, in which he says that the other day while in the "Palace of Agriculture" he saw workmen putting up the first picture in the building, a color-photograph 425 feet, by Hillyan He found it was being inbeled a California mountain view, but discovered that it should be credited to North Carolina Exposition Agent Green, of the Southern Rallway, came up and backed Bruner and as a result the magnificent photograph is properly labelled.

The letter from Mr. Bruner is gratifying in the news regarding this State's comparative prominuace. California, in its usual aggressive go-ahuad way, stands first, which is no surprise to those who have seen that State's extansive advertising in the pest and examined its exhibits at the recent expositions on this taye seen tent States extensive accor-tibles at the recent expositions on this his of the water. But it is an object essen to find North Carolina standing econd in the quality and quantity and liverally of the material shown. The limiter exhibit of this State is more comsiste than any other shown, although adividual specimens do not, of course compare in size with the great redwoodof the West to mining and mine at C&O about the same conditions prevail, our A.C.O attree cross and other communic minerals, si O rac 575 being very complete to their series a samples of our great outerground senith. The axhibit of native medicinal wealth. The schibit of native medicinal wild plants and herbs seems to be the only one there at present and will no doubt be a unique display. Gold nuggets and silver nuggets, and a dazgling display of native gems cap the exhibit so far as beauty and intrinsic value are concerned. The mounted game birds of the State are a feature and a large display of photographs of North Carolina scenery give the visitor a much better idea of the state than he could have had before.

Secretary firunar says everything is very much behind and it will be two months before all exhibits are in place. The United States, however, is ahead of any other nation in preparations and has received commendations from high quarters on anergy shown. The Partir prices ters on energy shown. The Parit prices are very high and Americans are consid-ered fair game, which seems to be usual will be done before the exposition is complain, be says.

For many years, almost daily, Matthew Austin, a venerable negro, has had his post at south entrance to the capital square, and thousands of people, residents and visitors alike have heard his quick apolten "Mogain", generate thankee for a cents."
