POLLOCKSVILLE.

Cotton Up, Farmers Busy, Large Cotton Purchase, Trade Is Good, Politics the Talk, Personal.
 POLLOCKSVILLE, May 2.
 Weather just the thing needed, a light rain all day.
 The farmers in this vicinity are fully up in their farm affairs, most all the cotton planted and lots of it up.
 Very little truck planted around this place, peas and potatoes are very fine, cabbage very poor.
 Mr. Walker Means, representing the Alex Sprunt & Sons, exporters of cotton of Wilmington, is visiting friends in this place. He bought of Mr. John Simmons on last Friday, the 18th, 220 bales of very fine cotton at $0.50 per pound.
 The health of this place was never better than at this time. There is not a single case of sickness in the place.
 Trade is improving, the merchants are very busy every Saturday in the place and have a fair trade all the week.
 Politics is the general topic of the day on the streets here. We hope they may all get elected and buy their spring hats and shoes from Bender Bros., who have a very complete line of everything in the dry goods and notion line.
 The Baptist Sunday school will picnic at the old Mill Creek Academy Grove on Friday the 4th day of May.
 Miss Jennie Kilpatrick who has been visiting her sister at this place returned to her home in Pitt county last Thursday.
 Rev. Mr. H. E. Tripp of Clinton is visiting his friends in this place. Mr. Tripp has many warm friends in this county who are glad to see him.
 Mr. John Pearce, of this place left on the morning train last Wednesday for Wilmington, N. C.
 Hon. Isaac G. Barrus of this place is mourning the sad loss of his fine setter dog, worth $350, which left home last Tuesday morning and was shot 8 miles from home the same day, having gone mad.
 Messrs D J Saunders and Herbert, Ward of Oaslov were in town last Monday en route to New Bern to sell cotton. They sold at 9.50.
 Mr. Willie Meadows and brother Dall returned from Florida last week where they have been engaged in handling fish and oysters. They say that Florida is a great place, plenty of business and money.
 Miss Edith Stanly who has been spending the last year in Richmond, Va. is home visiting her parents. She will leave next Friday for Richmond where she will be employed by a publication house.

NEARBY AFFAIRS.
Matters of Local Interest in the City and Country.
 Sales of cotton in this market yesterday were made at 9.50.
 Cloudy, slight change in temperature, is the forecast for today.
 The King's Daughters will meet at their room on Craven street this afternoon at four o'clock.
 The banks of this city will close at 12 o'clock Friday on account of the Democratic Ratification meeting.
 There will be a rehearsal of the music for the 10th of May, tonight, at the residence of Mrs. John Hughes at nine o'clock. All who will assist are urged to attend.

W. S. Musser, Millboro, Pa., saved the life of his little girl by giving her One Minute Cough Cure when she was dying from croup. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. It quickly cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, grippe, asthma and all throat and lung troubles. F. S. Duffy.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.
 Miss Lucy Koonce, is visiting relatives at Stella.
 Mr. J. Barker Green left for Mt. Airy yesterday.
 Miss Maude Sanders of Bogue, returned home yesterday.
 Mr. J. F. Taylor of Kinston, was in New Bern yesterday.
 Mr. W. G. Folsom of Wilmington, was in the city last night.
 Miss Elsie Andrews, of Birmingham, Ohio, who has been visiting at Mr. W. C. Willett's left Tuesday, returning home.

J. C. Kennedy, Rosnocks, Tenn., says, "I cannot say too much for DeWitt's Little Early Risers. One box of it cured what the doctors called an incurable ulcer on my jaw." Cures piles and all skin diseases. Look out for worthless imitations. F. S. Duffy.

CANDIDATES RECEPTION.

Today's and Friday's Programs in New Bern.
Candidates Arrival Announced by Whistles of all Mills and Boats, Line of March, Public Reception Hotel Chatawka, Speaking on Academy Green.
 Final arrangements for the reception of the Democratic State candidates were completed last night, and the reception will be a cordial one, such as New Bern is capable of extending.
 Chairman C. T. Watson received a telegram last night stating that there would be seven of the candidates coming to this city, and they will arrive by the Wilmington train, due here at 5.30 p. m. this evening.
 Upon the arrival of the train the candidates will be met and taken in charge of by the Reception Committee, who will conduct them to carriages in waiting and immediately follow in the line of parade, which will be formed on Graves street.
 Chief Marshal T. A. Green, and the Committee on Parade request all who are to take part to assemble in their respective places on Graves street, before the train arrives, and be ready so that there may be no delay in starting promptly.
 The parade will form as follows:
 Chief Marshal T. A. Green.
 Police.
 New Bern City Band.
 Naval Reserves Division.
 White Supremacy Clubs.
 Citizens in Carriages.
 Candidates and Committee in Carriages.
 The line of march will be as follows:
 Graves to Middle, to Broad, to George to Pollock, to Middle, to Hotel Chatawka, where the Entertainment Committee will meet the candidates.
 At night, at the Chatawka, there will be a public reception, when the candidates will meet alternately, the reception hours being from 8 to 10 o'clock.
 Chairman C. T. Watson, of the Democratic Executive Committee of Craven Co. and James A. Bryan, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee will greet the candidates and present them to the candidates.
 There will also be a public reception at the same place on Friday morning from 10 to 11 o'clock.
 At noon, Friday, there will be speaking by the Candidates on the Academy Green, to which all are invited.
 The whistle at the Ice factory will announce the arrival of the party from Wilmington, and the proprietors of the mills and factories, the captains of the steam craft in the rivers, are requested to note when this whistle starts, and to at once blow their whistles, keeping same going until the Ice factory whistle stops, then all to stop.
 "De Witt's Little Early Risers are the finest pills I ever used." - J. J. Moore, Millbrook, Ala. They quickly cure all liver and bowel troubles. F. S. Duffy.

The Nomination For Sheriff.
 ED. JOURNAL - Mr. J. H. Harvey is the first township's candidate for the nomination for Sheriff and we ask our friends in the other Townships of the county to assist us in bringing about his nomination. Mr. Harvey is a gentleman of high character and fairly well educated, come of a good stock and has a fund of common sense, and if nominated and elected will make a sheriff of the county will be proud of, there is no doubt about his being able to give bond.
 We hope the friends of Mr. Harvey, in fact all those who think the first Township should be represented on the Democratic ticket this year, will give him their support.
 Yours truly,
 W. C. BROWN.

Corsets!

We make a specialty of the "W B" Corset. We are exclusive handlers of it in New Bern and as it is a guaranteed corset we take pains to tell each customer, "your money back if not worth the price we ask." For Spring and Summer we recommend the W B. Batiste, which is very light of weight and remarkably durable.

Others of this make that are popular are 4 hook short waist, 4 hook extra waist, 5 hook extra long waist. We also sell Thompson's Glove Fitting Corset which has many friends in New Bern. Vassar Corset at 50c is not equalled for the price.

Wash Stuffs are in season now and our stock of these popular Spring and Summer light weight fabrics is at its best.
